

WILSON ASSAILS VETUES BY TAFT

Pennsylvania Farmers Hear Governor Speak Against Protection Policy.

THOUSANDS HEAR TALKS

Democratic Candidate Asserts He Has Great Personal Respect for President, but He Differs in Viewpoint Concerning Tariff.

EASTON, Pa., Aug. 30.—Governor Woodrow Wilson invaded Pennsylvania yesterday, intending only to make an address at the state Grangers' picnic at Williams Grove, south of Harrisburg. The Governor was surrounded by such big crowds wherever his train stopped that he found when he crossed from Pennsylvania into New Jersey at Easton last night he had made half a dozen speeches, to tens of thousands of persons and had talked collectively to a multitude in a single day.

Several thousand persons wedged themselves in the big auditorium at Williams Grove to hear the Governor's principal speech, but a far greater number was unable to gain entrance and he made a second speech out doors. He disressed materially from his prepared speech.

Reverence for Protection Respected. It does not know how many Republicans there are within the sound of my voice at least, those who have been Republicans, but are now on the anxious seat. Wilson said in his first speech at Williams Grove, "but I want to say that I entirely respect, though I do not not, all the views and their reference for the doctrine of protection. "What happened in the Congress which has just adjourned? The House of Representatives, which is not Democratic, passed what was known as the farmers' free-list bill. What did that do? It put agricultural implements on the free list, it put lumber on the free list, and shingles on the free list, and salt on the free list, and bagging and ties for the Southern farmer. And what happened to it? It was vetoed by the President because—let me say that I have a great personal respect for Mr. Taft, but Mr. Taft has not given himself the opportunity of understanding the demands of the people of the United States—Mr. Taft vetoed that free-list bill, because, consciously or unconsciously, he represents not the people of the United States, but those who have held their power in trust for their own purpose.

Machine Politics Censured.

"You hear of corrupt politicians, gentlemen," Wilson said, "I said things of one party that I was not willing to say of the other. If it were guilty, and I am willing to admit that in certain instances, in certain places, among other places in the State of New Jersey, the leaders of a little handful—but nevertheless the leaders of the Democratic party have been guilty of these corrupt influences, and the worst machine you can get up is not a machine that is altogether Republican or altogether Democratic, but a machine that works up of both of them and that works together at every turn of public affairs. "You have got them in Pennsylvania and we have them in a great many parts of the United States, or we have had them, but what I want to call your attention to is that the men that conduct these machines are a small fraction of the party that they pretend to represent and that the men who exercise corrupt influences are a small fraction of the business men of the United States.

J. F. HOSCH IS MAYOR

REDMOND COUNCIL NAMES HIM AFTER CITY ELECTION.

Appointment of Executive Follows Contest Between League and Business Men.

REDMOND, Or., Aug. 30.—(Special.)—J. F. Hosch has been elected Mayor by the council in place of H. F. Jones, who resigned. The league members and business men agreed that each side put up a candidate and petitions be circulated for signatures for a special election, so as to get the sense of the citizens as to whom they desired for Mayor and the candidate receiving the highest number of votes should be elected. Hosch's petition carried the signatures of 92 voters, all business men of the city, while the opponent of three or four. The league members, after circulating the petition for their candidate for two days, saw they were in the minority and they demanded that the council call a special meeting and appoint a man for Mayor, whom J. M. Crenshaw, secretary of the league, would name. This was refused. Virgil H. F. Jones, R. A. Bush, 2, A. G. Ailingham, 1. The league did not put up a candidate.

Crenshaw, in the last issue of his paper, the Oregon Advance, attacked Hosch, asserting he was unfit for the position of Mayor. It is understood that Crenshaw was a member of the council and the City Recorder, but nothing so far in this direction has materialized.

ADMIRER SHOTS WOMAN

Assailant Then Kills Self, but Victim of Bullet May Survive.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 30.—Edward Finn, known here as a brother of State Senator Thomas Finn, of this city, shot and probably fatally wounded Virginia Rodriguez, a woman who committed suicide in her apartment in which the woman was living with Robert N. Harrison. Finn came to the woman's apartment late last night, having telephoned to her a week ago to obtain some Oakland pictures and papers that he had given her in the Hawaiian Islands. Harrison, who was in the bathroom, said he heard no alteration, the first intimation of Finn's presence being three shots in the kitchen. He found the body on the floor. Before Harrison could summon the police Finn was dead. The woman was taken to the Central Emergency Hospital and may not live through the night. According to Harrison's story, Finn pursued the woman from Honolulu, where she attempted to break her old association. She had, he said, apparently regarded Finn as a sinister influence.

SHOTS MISS BRAKEMAN

Alleged Assailant Is Bound Over to Grand Jury.

HEPPNER, Or., Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Leo Watkins was bound over to a dangerous weapon. He was trying to beat his way on an O.-W. R. & N. passenger train near Coyote station when a brakeman named Matthews ejected him from the train. Watkins then is alleged to have drawn a revolver and fired two shots at Matthews, neither of which took effect. The rest of the train came to the rescue and succeeded in arresting Watkins, and took him to the Marshall there, who brought him to Heppner, as the trouble occurred in this county. E. B. Woods, chief special agent, came up from the Dalles last night and obtained a confession from Watkins today. As he could not secure bonds he will have to remain in the County Jail here for two months until November.

FIRE LOSS YET UNFIXED

Damage to Wadhams & Kerr Building Now Being Estimated.

The management of the Wadhams & Kerr Bros. Company, whose warehouse at Fourth and Hoyt streets was damaged by fire Wednesday night, yet are unable to fix definitely just what the sustained loss will total. The injuries are now being adjusted in conjunction with the insurance company. The property was fully insured. Damage was done only in that portion of the warehouse in which the flour, rolled oats and soap were stored and will on no way hamper the conduct of business. The building was in full working order at 11 o'clock on the morning after the fire. The fire companies put out the fire within 20 minutes after it started. The cause of the fire in the immediate proximity of the warehouse at the time the alarm was sounded.

Portland Rowing Club Event Not Postponed, Says Captain.

The Salem to Portland canoe trip announced several weeks ago by the Portland Rowing Club, will be under way Sunday morning by about 40 canoeists, despite the reports chronicling a postponement. The canoes will be loaded into a car at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. "There was some talk of abandoning the trip because of the incident in the weather," said Captain A. A. Allen last night. "However, the boys have sent up a vigorous protest, so we will go ahead with the original plans."

STRANDBORG HOME ABLAZE

Owner Overcome by Smoke in Fire Which Damages Dwelling.

In an attempt to remove furniture and personal belongings from the second story of his residence at East Fifty-ninth street and Sandy Road, which was partially destroyed by fire early Thursday night, W. P. Strandborg, of the Evening Telegram, was overcome by smoke and when rescued and carried out of the house by Captains of Police killed he was still unconscious. He recovered in a short time, however, and now feels no ill effects from his experience. He was shortly after the dinner hour when Mr. Strandborg was engaged in mowing his lawn, with Mrs. Strandborg standing near, that their attention was attracted by the smoke which neighbors said that the house was on fire. The roof was completely ablaze, the fire evidently having started from a defective furnace. The fire started in the open grate and furnace during the afternoon to dry the house out after the recent damp weather. Neighbors, who had hurried to the scene and a greater portion of the furniture was removed in safety, but before the fire was extinguished the roof was completely gutted and the floor gutted and much damage done by water. The house was valued at $2000, on which there was $1500 insurance, but this will not cover the loss. The furniture was insured for $1000, and the amount will probably be sufficient to cover that which was burned.

Baltimore American. Its surface temperature is something like 10,000 degrees centigrade, so hot that the most untractable substance on earth would be fused and the clouds of carbon that are formed at one time were supposed to form its photosphere could no more exist in the solid form at the solar surface than could ice remain solid in a kitchen fire.

France as Wine Producer.

London Times. France alone pays taxes in a good year on more than a thousand millions of gallons of wine—and there are six bottles to a gallon—while Algeria, planted with vines of the days of the phylloxera, supplies no less than 200,000,000. A tonneau of 200 gallons is a pretty large vessel; a thousand such would fill a good-sized ship, and have to multiply that by a thousand before we reach the production of this one French colony—one-fifth of all the wine consumed in France, or re-exported.

FOR THE WOMAN WHO THINKS AND FEELS.

Some women complain that they periodically suffer from dull and heavy feelings, or dizziness in the head, nervousness, pain and bearing-down feelings which should not occur to the normal healthy woman. But most every woman is subject to these pains at some time in her life, due to abnormal conditions in life, such as corsets, over-taxed strength, bad air, poor or improper food, wet feet, sluggish liver, etc. A regulator and female tonic made from native medicinal roots with pure glycerin, and without the use of alcohol, called has proven its value in thousands of cases, like the following:

Mrs. DONA M. MARTIN, of Auburn, Me., Route 1, Box 52, says: "I thought I would write you in regard to your medicine because I have done so much for me. I have used them for thirty years for female trouble and general weakness with the very best result. I buy the Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery and take them together. I never was disappointed in your remedies and take pleasure in recommending them to any suffering lady. I am now almost fifty years old; at forty-five I took your medicine, and I passed that period very easily and left me fat and healthy. I feel like a young girl. If any lady cares to write me, I will gladly tell her more about the good work of your medicine."

DR. PIERCE'S GREAT FAMILY DOCTOR BOOK, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, newly revised up-to-date edition—of 1008 pages, answers hosts of delicate questions which every woman, single or married, ought to know. Sent free in cloth binding to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of wrapping and mailing only.

They begin on September 11 and last eight days. Ninety thousand men will take the field under the supreme command of General Joffre. Generals Gallieni and Marlon will respectively command the opposing forces, which will be approximately equal numerically. At least 50 aeroplanes and several dirigibles will be engaged.

Democracy of Royalty.

London Daily News. "A few days ago," writes an American woman from St. Moritz, "we saw the 'pomp and circumstance' of royalty in England and today we had a peep at royal simplicity and democracy which was truly refreshing. On the snow-covered path leading to the bobbed course we met a group of three young people. The two women tramped along arm in arm, their dress in no respect different from that of the middle class guests. The man of the party wore knickerbockers, no head covering and a muffler hung over one arm. Boys with steds and others with skis paid no attention to the group, although every one knew that they were the Crown Prince of Germany, the Crown Princess and the Princess Victoria Louise."

and from the results and experience we have had and produced for the suffering, we are prepared to give a case in your home for a ten days' trial FREE and if it does not give you better results than any remedy you ever used, return the three empty bottles and the nine full ones and there will be no charge for the water used.
