

TAFT WOULD CARE FOR BUREAUX

President Assails House for Attempting to Limit Tenure of Federal Employes.

PENSION PLAN ADVOCATED

Appointments Irksome, Says Taft, Who Also Says He Has Urged Congress Three Times to Put All Under Civil Service.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—President Taft tonight contrasted conditions that confronted a President in the days of the spoils system with the system of appointment under the civil service...

The President spoke in Faneuil Hall to several hundred postoffice employes now in convention here.

Wide Civil Service Urged. More than anything else he encountered in the White House, Mr. Taft said, the filling of vacancies that are not under the civil service had proved irksome and distasteful to him...

Mr. Taft motored in from Beverly three hours before his train left for Washington tonight to speak to the clerks. He limped into Faneuil Hall with his right foot in bandages and in a loose felt slipper.

At 8 o'clock the President left for Washington to keep an engagement tomorrow with the International Association of Applied Chemistry.

President Taft was widely cheered when he entered Faneuil Hall tonight. Representative Green of Massachusetts, had preceded him and had praised the President for his veto of the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill when Congress had a provision to limit to seven years the tenure of civil service employes.

The President began by praising the "faithful, skillful, intelligent" employes of the Government who have built up the machine of Government in 12 1/2 years so that no matter what President or cabinet officer or bureau chief leaves Washington for a vacation the public business goes on and the Government wheels still turn.

Men Underpaid, He Says. "The charge has been made," he declared, with a bang of his fist, "that Government employes are overpaid. That is not true. I know hundreds of men in Washington who are not compensated within five times or even ten times of what they would have received under modern conditions in other lines. I do not mean to say that I favor an advance in salaries of five or ten times what they get now, but the Government should assure these men of permanence of tenure and that they will be taken care of in their old age."

The speaker explained that once he favored a system of straight out pensions for Government employes. After observation of the working of this system abroad, however, he had come to the conclusion that it was not best and that it made for smaller salaries and less rapid advancement for the worthy.

Enforced Pensions Liked. "And now," he continued, "I believe in a system that might be called an enforced system of pensions, where the Government pays part and the employes contribute as well."

Mr. Taft gave his reason for the veto of the legislative bill. He said that he had not opposed it because it was unfair, but because it would have accomplished nothing but make the life of Congressmen and Presidents concerned in reappointments unbearable.

POSTAL RECEIPTS ADVANCE

Portland Office Reflects Marked Growth by Big Gains.

Midsummer weather and its irresistible mountain and seaside attractions to thousands of Portland residents have insufficient power to arrest the city's continued growth and prosperity.

This is reflected irrefutably by the record of the Portland postoffice in the matter of receipts, exclusive of the money order department. For the month of August the aggregate of stamp sales was $85,941.27, as compared to $78,341.95 for the corresponding week last year. This increase in receipts of $6,599.34 represents a percentage gain of 8.2, which is regarded as phenomenal at this season of the year.

TAFT'S TITLE IS DISPUTED

Cummins to Vote for Roosevelt, but Opposes Third Party.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Sept. 3.—Senator Cummins of Iowa, declared today to be expected to vote for Colonel Roosevelt for President, but is opposed to the formation of a third party. He does not believe President Taft was the choice of the Republicans of the Nation.

The renomination of President Taft, said Cummins, "was opposed by the overwhelming majority of the Republicans through the country simply because in his administration the office of President had not done or said the things which the great body of the people believed he should have done and said."

"The man who could not see there would be a rebellion whenever over-represented states forced a nomination against the strong opposition of the states in which there is a real Republican party was blind as a bat, and the man who could not hear the rumbling of the rising storm was deaf as an adder."

"If the convention which nominated Mr. Taft had changed the system in obedience to the popular demand, we might have had patience to wait, but as though wanting to furnish every reason for revolt, it attempted, to fasten it still more firmly upon us. The will of a tremendous majority was defeated by the power of a bad system and the machinations of a committee. There is but one way to make sure that the system of the Chicago convention will be abolished and its scenes never repeated, and that is to make it certain that the candidate who is the product of the system and the beneficiary of the methods, cannot reach the office to which he aspires. Therefore I cannot support Mr. Taft.

The reason the Republicans were so largely against the renomination of Mr. Taft was their profound conviction that he is not a Progressive and does his believe in a proper sense that the people should rule the country. The fact that this was the attitude of the vast majority of the Republicans proves to me conclusively that a new party is unnecessary, untimely and unfortunate. I fear that it will retard rather than hasten reform. The Theodore Roosevelt was the manifest choice of the greater number of Republicans who expressed a choice for President. He is appealing to the moral and progressive forces of the people and I expect to vote for him, but it must be understood that I will do so protesting against the organization of a new party and assenting from some of the doctrines of his platform.

"My vote will indicate that I believe he desires to promote the common welfare, but will not indicate that I look upon the new party as a wise or enduring movement in public affairs."

Senator Cummins in conclusion does his attention to the Republican State nominee, saying his chief interest in this campaign is to see they are elected.

RECORD WILL BE SHOWN

HILLES TO PUBLISH CONTRIBUTIONS ABOUT OCTOBER 15.

Republican Chairman Makes No Claim to Exceptional Virtue, as He Complies With Law.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Charles D. Hilles, chairman of the Republican National Committee, announced today that a complete record of all contributions to the campaign fund of the Republican party would be made public shortly after October 15.

Mr. Hilles said that in making this announcement the Republican National Committee is not actuated by a desire to be regarded as virtuous, but took this course because the Congressional campaign fund publicity act, signed by President Taft on August 19, 1911, contained specific provision that all national committees must make public their campaign contributions not more than 15 days and not less than ten days prior to the elections.

"The acting chairman of the Democratic National Committee made a statement recently that the committee would publish campaign contributions prior to the election," Hilles continued. "He was patting himself on the back because he was voluntarily virtuous. As a matter of fact, the law which provides for publicity of contributions in Congressional elections is so general and sweeping in its character that it compels publicity of all contributions for the purpose of influencing elections at which Representatives in Congress are elected."

Acting Chairman McAdoo, of the Democratic National Committee, made this reply to Hilles' statement:

"In the present temper of the American people it is better to be over-virtuous than under-virtuous in the publication of campaign contributions. The decision of the Democratic National Committee to begin publishing the sources of all campaign contributions made for the purpose of being virtuous but for the purpose of responding to the overwhelming public sentiment which demands that there shall be no concealment at any time during the campaign of the sources of political contributions."

W. L. MOONEY FACES TRIAL

Man Known as George Gray in Elopement Indicted for Larceny.

ROSEBURG, Or., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The trial of W. L. Mooney, alias George Gray, who a few weeks ago left Oakland with Ethel Metcalf after obtaining a divorce from Mrs. Carrie Metcalf through alleged fraudulent representations, will be called late this week.

Although wanted in Washington and other states Mooney says he will fight the local charge to the end. He is accused by the indictment of larceny.

Marine is Badly Scalded.

Ignorance of the fact that a scalded man was a marine, led to his being taken by ambulance to the Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday. On his arrival his burns were dressed, and then he was sent over to St. Vincent's Hospital, which takes charge of all marine men. T. Houghton, the injured man, was scalded by the blowing out of steam from a defective valve on the S. S. Hoanoke. His face, arms, chest and back were all scalded, but not so badly as to cause any real apprehension of danger.

Boy Makes Heroic Rescue.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Sept. 3.—Charles I. Richardson, 17 years old, proved himself a hero here yesterday when, fully dressed, he jumped into the ocean from the end of a pier and rescued Charles Sandof, 8 years old, who had upset his rowboat and was drowning.

One-Year-Old Babe Drowns.

WALDFORD, Or., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The 1-year-old Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas was drowned in the Alsea River late last night. The body will be taken to Eastern Oregon for burial.

COLONEL FAVORS MISSOURI TICKET

Course Advised, Except in States Where Old Parties Can Be "Taken Over."

WILSON'S VIEWS ASSAILED

Issue Taken Squarely on Tariff, Trusts and Minimum Wage System—Free Trade Declared to Mean Ruin.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—Woodrow Wilson's stand upon the tariff, the trusts and the proposal for minimum wage scale was assailed by Colonel Roosevelt in a speech here today.

The Colonel joined issue squarely with Governor Wilson, taking as his text the Democratic candidate's speech yesterday at Buffalo. He delivered his address before the Missouri Roosevelt Progressive state convention. The Colonel saw nothing in the platform, which he remained at the state capital.

The Colonel was asked to advise the state convention whether it should name a full state ticket. "I feel that you ought to," he said, "I feel that except in those states in which we can take over bodily either of the old parties, we ought to run a straight Progressive ticket."

Commission System Advocated.

In his speech Colonel Roosevelt said in part: "When he comes to the tariff Mr. Wilson attempts to quote me, but he is singularly unsuccessful. He states, for instance, that I am not concerned with the interests of the general taxpayer, the general public. If he would take the trouble to read what I have said, or to read our platform, he would find that I am not concerned with the interests of the general taxpayer, the general public. If he would take the trouble to read what I have said, or to read our platform, he would find that I am not concerned with the interests of the general taxpayer, the general public. If he would take the trouble to read what I have said, or to read our platform, he would find that I am not concerned with the interests of the general taxpayer, the general public."

"We are advocating the commission system, which has been tried in Germany and which has been one of the pieces of government and industrial mechanism that have been so extraordinarily successful in building the great prosperity of the German empire."

"I believe in a free trade policy or tariff for revenue only policy is in good faith, adopted and not merely treated as a campaign cry, widespread disaster will result."

Senator Says Storm Will Clear Political Air.

Idahoan Asserts Things Are Not as They Should Be and Urge Consequent Result.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—"I am glad the storm is coming, for it will clarify the political atmosphere," declared Senator Borah before his supporters and fellow-townsmen tonight, when he referred to the political upheaval which this country is at present passing through, in responding to the spontaneous welcome tendered him on his arrival from Spokane.

"Things are not as they should be in this great country of ours, and that is the reason that today we are faced with such political unrest," continued Senator Borah. "But I have this to say—that regardless how it will be, we are going to have it, and I, for one, am willing to cast my lot with the people and abide by their good judgment."

Senator Borah was not expected to, nor did he, deliver a political address. Aside from the reference to the political upheaval and the fact, in his belief, that the time for the four men to fight the great battles of the Nation, he avoided politics and confined his remarks to the appreciation he felt over his welcome home.

His arrival in Boise was met by a drizzling rain awaiting the arrival of his train from the north, and then escorted him through the downtown business section of the city to the Pinney Theater, where Mayor Hodges delivered an address of welcome amid the greatest enthusiasm.

Synod Opens at Albany

United Presbyterians of Three States Holding Sessions.

ALBANY, Or., Sept. 3.—(Special.)—The synod of the Columbia of the United Presbyterian Church, embracing all the churches of this denomination in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, convened in annual session in the United Presbyterian Church in this city tonight. It will remain in session all day tomorrow. Representatives are present from most of the United Presbyterian Churches in the three states.

The officers presiding over this session of the synod are Rev. J. S. Colvin, of Nampa, Idaho, moderator, and Dr. R. L. Lanning, of Everett, Wash., clerk. They were chosen at the session a year ago, and new officers of the synod will be elected tomorrow.

The Presbytery of Oregon, which convened in semi-annual session here last night, concluded its work this afternoon. Rev. J. S. Cove, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church of Portland, was moderator of the presbytery and Rev. S. E. Dubois, of the Second Church of Portland, clerk.

The larger cities are urging for a strong home rule plank and advocating amendment of the Sunday law, which is not so rigidly enforced. It is not intended to eliminate entirely the so-called "old law," but only to modify it.

Woman addressing the recall, referendum direct election of Senators, tariff reform and direct Presidential primaries are other planks that are to receive consideration.

Third Tickets Under Way

Dixon, Conferring in Utah, Predicts as to Idaho, Too.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 3.—United States Senator Dixon arrived here tonight for a conference with the leadership of the Progressive party in Utah and Idaho. Plans already are under way for a Roosevelt Progressive ticket in Utah, and Senator Dixon said tonight that a "third party" ticket would be placed in the field in Idaho.

'Stage is Set'—Wilson

Governor Pleased With His Buffalo Reception.

View of Third Party is That It Proposes Admirable Reforms Impossible to Execute.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Greatly pleased with his reception in Western New York, Governor Wilson returned to New York today from Buffalo and passed on to Trenton to transact state business.

The Governor said he regarded his speeches in Buffalo, especially the one at the evening mass meeting, as "setting the stage for the campaign," and as his "first political addresses."

He was also pleased, he said, with the manner in which the crowds applauded his speech analyzing the third party platform. His attitude toward the third party, he said, was "that the spontaneous welcome tendered him on his arrival from Spokane."

"I believe in a free trade policy or tariff for revenue only policy is in good faith, adopted and not merely treated as a campaign cry, widespread disaster will result."

IDAHO CROPS ARE HURT

GRAIN SUFFERS SEVERELY BY RAIN, SAY BUYERS.

Harvesting Operations Checked and Will Be Later Than for Years, Is Belief—Barley Impaired.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—Less than one-half of the grain crop of Northern Idaho has been harvested, and according to the statements of the prominent grain men and farmers of this district, the grain is suffering severely from the rains which have fallen intermittently throughout this locality for the past five days.

High grade brewing barley cannot be looked for out of this district, say the grain buyers for Coast firms, owing to the rains, which have bleached the barley, reducing the quality for both the Spring crop, which until this week had not suffered materially from the downpours, will feel the effects of the moisture.

The local Weather Bureau report says that the rainfall for August for this section has been considerably above normal.

IDAHO LEADERS CHOSEN

Staunch Taft Men to Direct Campaign of Republicans.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 3.—(Special.)—George L. Day, of Osnoda County, will direct the 1912 campaign as chairman of the Republican state central committee, and Bert Gray, present state game warden, will guide the Democrats, as the result of sessions of the state central committees of both parties in Boise tonight. Day is considered to be one of the staunchest Taft men in the state and proposes to organize the party strictly along conservative lines. Senator Borah is said to have refused to advise the committeemen in settling the chairmanship on the grounds it was clearly its own duty to do this.

The forces backing ex-State Chairman Nugent as a candidate to succeed himself lost in their fight by the narrow margin of one vote. The Democratic candidate recommended Gray as their unanimous choice, but in face of this Nugent's followers carried the fight into the committee. The selection of Gray is considered a victory for the friends of Governor Hawley, for Gray is one of his appointees.

The Democratic committee members named for Presidential electors: D. North Clark, of Coosello; Frank Martin, of Boise; Frank Moore, of Moscow, and J. D. Millsaps, of Blackfoot.

Chalmers 1913 MOTOR CARS Made in Chalmers Shops

The Chalmers Electric System is reliably Sure and surely Reliable

Electricity is easily the best form of lighting for automobiles. That is why it is used on all Chalmers cars.

All you have to do to turn on instantaneously every light—head, tail and side—is to turn a switch. You may be driving along at thirty miles an hour when it grows dusk, but you don't have to stop to light up. Neither do you have to leave your seat.

The Gray and Davis electric system used on Chalmers cars combines convenience with reliability. It is as sure to operate as the electric lights in your home. While the motor is running, a small dynamo under the hood furnishes ample current. When the car is standing, strong, powerful, reliable storage batteries do the work.

No matter how long the journey at night, if you drive a Chalmers your lights will burn Clear. Penetrating shafts of light illumine the darkest roads so that they may be traveled in perfect safety.

The Chalmers electric system has done away with all annoyances. It is simple and it is sure. Besides electric lights, Chalmers cars have many other conveniences:
