WINDICATION IS WANTED MISS CROEN SAYS MOORE'S HEART BALM NOT ENOUGH. Breach of Promise Suit Against Son of Washington's ex-Governor Promises Continuance.

Because a complete vindication was not forthcoming along with $6000 heart balm granted in a settlement of the breach of promise suit of Mary E. Croen against Walter B. Moore, son of ex-Governor Moore, of Washington, Miss Croen has asked Federal Judge Dean to set aside the settlement, which was made by stipulation.

Arguments were heard in the Federal Court yesterday and the case was taken under advisement. The case came up late in February, when a breach of promise suit was filed in the Circuit Court and later transferred to the Federal Court because the defendant resided in Walla Walla, Wash., and the plaintiff in Portland. In the Federal Court the case was settled by stipulation after the attorneys had come to an agreement which was satisfactory to both defendant and plaintiff.

In the stipulation Miss Croen was to receive $6000 and a complete vindication from the defendant, Walter Moore, and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Moore. This settlement was reached after a great deal of argument before Federal Judge Dean, in which Attorney John F. Logan, for Miss Croen, set the figure at $7000 as his "irreducible minimum" and Attorney A. E. Clark, for the defendant, set $5000 as his "unreasonable maximum."

ACCOUNTS ARE EXPOSED

Indebtedness of Oregon & California to Parent Railroad Revealed in Case Testing Title to 2,300,000 Oregon Acres.

Robert Adams, assistant auditor of the Southern Pacific, was the main witness examined yesterday in the hearing at the Federal building in the case of the Federal Government against the Oregon & California Railroad Company, the Southern Pacific Company and other smaller railroad corporations, in which the Government is attacking the right of these companies to 2,300,000 acres of land between Portland and the California line along the line of the Southern Pacific.

Mr. Adams filed statements purporting to be records of accounts kept by the companies involved in the case, purporting to be a record of the account of the Southern Pacific with the Oregon & California Company, shows a deficit of $2,328,962 charged against the latter in 1905, which the Southern Pacific maintains was expended in betterments and was over and above the operating expenses. This deficit, it is shown in the statement, had been reduced to $2,542,721 by June 30, 1912.

Another statement was said to be a record of accounts kept by the Oregon & California Company with the Union Trust Company, of New York, between 1887, when the latter company took a bond issue of the Oregon & California Company, and June 30, 1912, the statement shows that the railroad had received $1,603,250, for which they had to account to the bondholders. Of this, it was set forth, $2,497,715 had been paid the trust company and it appeared that the Oregon & California Company still owed the Trust Company $1,640,686 of the gross receipts, which had been used for taxes, expenses and work on the property.

The Government contends that the railway companies have violated the terms of the act under which the Government made grant of rights of way. The acts under which the grants were made were passed by Congress July 25, 1866; April 10, 1869, and May 4, 1870. The companies were granted odd sections of land along the rights of way upon condition that no more than 160 acres was to be sold to any one person or corporation and that no more than $250 an acre was to be charged. The Government alleges that a vast amount of the land was sold in blocks aggregating as much as 20,000 acres. For that reason an endeavor is being made to take from the companies the remainder of the land granted and not sold. There are 2,300,000 acres said to be left. The value on this is $75,000,000.

NEW BUILDING NECESSARY

Temporary Jail May Be Put Up Costing $2000 to House Short-Term Prisoners, Whose Escape Would Not Be Calamity.

Councilmen Burgard, Maguire and Wallace, prominent in business and legislative circles of the city, went to the rockpile yesterday, but it was only at the request of Mayor Rusklight, who himself accompanied them. He wanted them to say what shall be done to accommodate the ever-increasing list of prisoners there.

They left the final solution of the problem with him, however, but probably will recommend to the Council an appropriation of $2000 to construct a new house. Content of the County for this will have to be obtained first.

"I would like to have the members of this committee take a run down to the Linton rockpile and see the conditions the city is up against down there," said Mayor Rusklight, who left his office on the third floor of the City Hall to call attention to the subject. The committee was in session on the second floor.

"We have 84 prisoners at Linton, whereas there are proper accommodations for but 64," continued the Mayor. "I would like you gentlemen to go there and see for yourself."

"We may have to rig up a more aristocratic place," said Councilman Maguire, "if Governor West continues. I understand he is reaching pretty high."

"Yes," commented Chairman Wallace, "we probably will have to install a few padded cells for the insane."

"Yes," commented Chairman Wallace, "we probably will have to install a few padded cells for the insane."

"As far as going to Linton is concerned," said Councilman Burgard, "I have been there."

Amid general laughter, Mr. Burgard explained that it was only on official business that he was at Linton rockpile before.

Councilmen Menefee and Maguire thereupon admitted that they, too, had been at the rockpile.

"I have never been there, but probably I should go," said Chairman Wallace, who explained that he meant that perhaps he should go there to make a study of conditions.

Consequently, after the session of the committee was over, Councilmen Burgard, Wallace and Maguire, accompanied by the Mayor, went to the rockpile and inspected it. They found conditions bad. More room is absolutely necessary, and the members of the Council who saw the crowded situation agreed that it would be a wise plan to expend about $2000 in the construction of a new jail building. In this, if the Mayor's plan is followed, all short-term prisoners will be housed. He told the members of the committee that, in his opinion, it would matter but little should a short-term man escape occasionally.

NORTH PORTLAND TO ACT

Commercial Club Will Urge Opening of Alaska Coal Mines.

S. L. Osborne addressed the North Portland Commercial Club Monday at the North Albina fire hall, on the subject of Alaska coal, and urged the club to take some action toward getting the Federal Government to open the Alaska coal mines before the Panama Canal is completed.

Mr. Osborne showed by statistics that finest Alaska coal can be delivered to Portland consumers at from $7 to $8 a ton.

The speaker pointed out, however, that it may be many years before the Alaska coal will be made available in Portland unless some action is taken by Portland organizations. At the conclusion of Mr. Osborne's talk he was authorized to prepare a resolution for presentation at the next meeting.

Chairman J. H. Neilsen announced that C. C. Chapman, of the Portland Commercial Club, had accepted an invitation to attend the next meeting and address the members.

A resolution was adopted thanking the City Council for passing the franchise of the Kenton Traction Company for an electric railway to the Broadway bridge.

HELPFUL HINTS ON HAIR HEALTH. Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness. Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to another person. No matter how clean the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody's else's hat. Many a hatband is a resting-place for microbes. If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe is a restorative for microbes. These troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases. Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causes them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that we think that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular.
