MEIER & FRANK'S—as ever, the Fashion Center of the Northwest! It's an acknowledged fact, everywhere—and all the more emphatically has it been brought to the minds of Portland people during our preliminary showing of beautiful Fall and Winter merchandise. Apparel for women—for children—for men, and the smartest and best the land affords is here for your choice.

Come to The Big Store again today and enjoy the displays of Paris Gowns Street Dresses New Tailored Waists Suits Paris and American Millinery Street, Afternoon and Evening Coats And it's worth a trip to the city if for no other reason than to view the windows with their beautiful displays of new apparel and home needs.

Unequaled Line of Blue Tailored Suits at $20 and $25

THEY'RE worthy of special mention—these smart, perfectly tailored Blue Serge Suits. Of better quality twilled serges—of more careful tailoring, of smarter, more distinctive cut than is ordinarily found in Suits at $20 and $25!

All have the new 34 or 36-inch jackets—with straight or round cut fronts—skirts plain and narrow, though some with the new side plaits.

Note the graceful lines of the $25 model as sketched in the Garment Salons. For the woman who wants the early Fall suit to be one of moderate price, she couldn't do better than to choose one of these splendid models at $20.00 and $25.00. And a mannish tailored Blue Serge Suit is always in vogue. The woman who wears one has the satisfaction of knowing that she is correctly, smartly and fashionably attired.

Needless to say, we've Suits of every style, the more dressy types with draped skirts, with Robespierre collars, but we want Thursday shoppers to note the remarkable quality of these Blue Tailored Suits.

Fashionable Lines Supreme

Madame Irene Corsets

NO need for women to pay the high price of French Corsets when the same degree of figure-building is attained in these superb Madame Irene models. And there's no greater authority on matters of style and fashionability of line than Madame Irene—the New York designer who's constantly in touch with fashion creators of that city and of Paris.

And the unequalled Wahnlon bones every pair of the high-grade "Irenes." The model 1589, as illustrated, at $6.50 is but one of the many new Fall styles that promise for madame the fashionable, flexible lines demanded for present styles. And for the special benefit of many of our patrons who invariably ask for The Irene and yet who have wished for a front-lace Corset—we introduce a new Madame Irene model—a beautiful Corset with the front-lace feature. It's a superb model designed for the average figure.

Prices including all styles of Madame Irene Corsets range from $6.50 to $25.

HOMICIDE IS CHARGED

AUTOIST WHO RAN DOWN DORA WEINSAFT FACES TRIAL.

"Involuntary" Killing of Tot by Chauffeur Albert C. Alford Alleged by Information.

Involuntary homicide is charged against Albert C. Alford, a chauffeur, in an information signed yesterday by M. Weinsaft, a tailor, whose daughter, Dora, aged 6 years, was run down and killed by Alford's automobile, July 13, at Twenty-third and Thurman streets. The information charges that Alford was operating the automobile in a careless and negligent manner at the rate of 25 miles an hour.

Explanation offered for the long delay in bringing the proceedings is that Attorney Max G. Cohen, who acted for the parents of the child at the coroner's inquest, has been out of the city in the interim. It is positively denied

FRIEND ROAD NEARS END

GRADING FINISHED AND RAILS LAID MOST OF WAY.

Great Southern Railway Considering Purchase of Motor Car to Add to Equipment.

DUFUR, Or., Sept. 4.—(Special).—The work of extending the Great Southern Railroad from this city to Friend, about ten miles distant, is nearing completion and it is expected that regular trains will be in operation to Friend within a month.

Rails are being laid on the last two miles of the work, the grading being all finished and the rails laid up to within about two miles and half of the proposed terminus, and worktrains are now being operated over the new road for this distance.

Sixty-pound rails are being used and the roadbed and bridges are being constructed in the best possible manner so that the heaviest kind of traffic can be run over the road when completed.

MISSION WORKERS MEET

Oregon Conference of Methodist Church, South, in Session.

The annual conference of the Women's Missionary Society for Oregon of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, held a short session yesterday afternoon in the First Church, Union avenue and Multnomah street, with Mrs. J. H. Bennett, the president, in the chair.

Last night Dr. C. P. Reed, representing the missionary work on the Pacific Coast, delivered the principal address on "The Place of Women in the Church." Dr. Reed spoke for the Women's Missionary Society and welcomed the ministers and delegates.

The Oregon conference will open this morning at 9 o'clock in the auditorium of the First Church, with Bishop R. G. Waterhouse, of Los Angeles, presiding. He will speak briefly the opening words of conference. Committees will then be appointed and work for the week will be outlined.

Germany has 60,000 men in her navy.

Tonight there will be a missionary rally, with addresses by Dr. Reed and Bishop Waterhouse.
