Higginbotham, Gregg and Suter were led in succession to the slaughter. They were pounded for 17 safe swats, many of them being of the two-base variety. Opposing them was Munsell, who had only one bad inning. Munsell has been noted for wildness, but he was tight today and only one walk was charged against him. Back of Munsell there was a bunch of slugging fiends, excepting Tommy Sheehan, who has been slowing up in his work greatly of late. Tommy was the only Senator to stay out of the hit column. Higginbotham was knocked out early, with three runs in the first as a result of two doubles, a single and a triple. The Solons added another in the fourth on two hits and a wild pitch.

In the sixth inning all nine Senators were at the bat and the game was cinched. Two two-baggers, three singles and a wiid pitch by Gregs counted for five runs. Two more runs were added in the seventh.

Butcher and Doane opened the Portland half of the seventh with two-baggers and Rapps singled, Rapps going to second in the effort to catch Doane at the plate. Rapps went to third on Fisher's out and scored when Kreitz let the bail go by him, making three runs for the inning and a total of four for the game. Score:

By JAMES H. CASSELLA
An erratic heave which felled Backstop Lewis, a sacrifice hit, followed by a stolen base and a sacrifice fly to deep center, gave Vancouver a 4-5, 10-inning victory over the Portland Colts yesterday afternoon.

The Colts outhit the Champions 2 1-2 to one, the hit count standing four for the Canadians against 10 for the Equines, but Bill Bloomfeld and "Toots" Agnew presented Brown's men with three runs in the fifth inning, and the combination mentioned in the opening paragraph resulted in the secspening paragraph resulted in the second defeat of the series for the Fort-

While Pat Callahan's indifferent perwhile Pat Callanan's indifferent per-forming enabled the Canucks to pull the game out of the fire in the extra inning his sensational relief work in the fifth period compelled his op-ponents to fight every inch of the way for victory. He broke into the game with the bases full and not a man out, and retired the side without a run.

Colts Take Early Lead.

The Colts broke into the run column for the first time on their final home trip in the third inning, scoring two runs for a lead of that denomination. Williams opened with a single to right, and was sacrificed to second by Bloomfield. Mahoney dropped a Texas Leaguer over first and Williams scored. Fries beat out a grounder to Scharney and sent Mahoney to third. A double steal was successfully executed, Mahoney aliding under Lewis at the plate. Colts Take Early Lead.

Only one hit had been secured of "Parson" Bloomfield's efficient curves until the fifth inning, but in the section of the game the Antioch man col lapsed. Kippert, the first man up, walked. Brinker sent a short single over third. Scharnweber was hit by a pitched bail, filling the bases. Lewis scored Kippert with a single to center and Bloomfield was sent to the "Toots" Agnew, the former Vancouver heaver, then made a brief and in-glorious debut in a Colt suit. He walked Schmutz and James, forcing in two runs, and then gave way to South-paw Callahan.

Callahan Stops Side.

Arrangements were concluded for two double-headers, starting Saturday at 2 o'clock, and Sunday at 1:20. It will bring the series to eight games, instead of the six called for by the schedule.

Doty will pitch for Portland in to-day's game, opposed by either Willis or Byram.

Notes of the Game.

Bob Brown and his men made so much noise on the bench that Umpire Van Haltron threatened them with removal from the park. When Bloomfield was chased they chanted "We Want Bill."

Callahan is one of the coolest roung pitching propositions ever seen on the Portland lot. However, he is too slow, and paid for it with the loss of the game in the tenth inning.

Fielder Jones declares that he is an advocate of the National League system of scoring, and would have charged the game to Bloomfield had Portland not the the score in the eighth. "Parson" left the tustle with the score 3-1 in favor of Portland, but with three men on the bases and no outs.

Tom Daly, the British Columbia pitching recruit who was with the Coirs this Spring, reported yesterday. He has been ill practically all season.

Bill Speas made two spectacular tosses, fils heave of the ball following Kippert's slow grounder in the sixth inning, together with Williams' one-hand catch, was the fielding feature of the game.

Two double plays were executed, each club chaiking up one.

One hit in six innings was Callahan's pitching record, yet he lost the game.
