--Pat Kennedy was arrested here to-day on a charge of furnishing beer to minors and was arreigned before Re-corder Stangel, who assessed a fine of $40 and costs, after a plea of guilty had been entered. Some time ago the City Marshal caught Robert Evans, Jr., a boy of about 15 years of age, with a bottle of beer in his possession and secured the information which lead to Kennedy's arrest. It is said that a number of hoys of tender age have been securing beer from time to time and that others besides Kennedy have been implicated, but the boys refuse to divuige further information. The beer is supposed to have been purchased in near-by towns and not handled for profit, as is the case of cordinary boolesging violations.
