PORTLAND BUNCHES HITS

Three Runs in Third Too Much for Sharpe's Men to Overcome. Chadbourne, Rodgers, Krueger and Butcher Aid in Sluggfest.

Pacific Coast League Standings.

At San Francisco—Portland 4, Oakland 6.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—(Special.)—Of all sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest for Oakland are that the Commuters might have been leading the Coast League race today.

That Oakland isn't doing anything is due to too much Higginbotham, and altogether too much timely hitting on the part of the Beavers.

"Hit" Not Liberal. Higginbotham, the very same chap that Happy Hogan thought was to be traded to Los Angeles, wasn't at all liberal with his hits.

Chadbourne opened the inning with a grounder to Cook. He not only beat the ball to the bag, but Cook's throw was so high that the Portland left fielder went to second on the miscue.

Rodgers doubled up against the right center field fence and Chadbourne walked home. Oom Paul Krueger took a healthy swing and when the ball again rattled the fence boards, Rodgers tallied from second.

Butcher beat out an infield hit to Cook. Krueger was at third. Doane hit to Leard for Butcher, but Leard's throw to Tiedeman to complete the double was so far wide of the mark that Krueger tallied. The other run came in the ninth. The score:

TRACERY, OUTSIDER, WINS Belmont's Entry Takes St. Leger Stakes of 6000 Sovereigns.

DONCASTER, England, Sept. 11.—The St. Leger stakes of 6000 sovereigns for colts and fillies foaled in 1909 was won here today by August Belmont's Tracery. The race was run over the old St. Leger course, about one mile, six furlongs and 132 yards, and 14 horses started.

BOTTLE STRIKES UMPIRE

AMERICAN LEAGUE FAN AT DETROIT HURLS MISSILE.

Spectator Angry Because Cobb Is Called Out After Hitting—Athletes Win, 9 to 7.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 11.—After Umpire Connelly called Cobb out for stepping out of the batter's box in the third inning, a spectator in the grandstand hurled a bottle at the umpire. It struck the ground, then bounced and hit Connelly in the mouth.

Several Detroit players loudly protested and Manager Jennings was sent to the clubhouse. The hit was also directed to the clubhouse and in the seventh inning Bush was exiled.

After the trouble Lake became wild and his support went to pieces. Philadelphia batted for the rest of the game, taking 11 sacks. Collins stole six of these.

Six runs behind in the ninth, Detroit made a rally and drove Houck out of the mound, but could not tie the score.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Chicago could do nothing to Ray Collins today and Boston bunched hits off Clotzie and won. Two hits, a sacrifice and a wild throw, gave them their first run.

CHICAGO, Sept. 11.—Chicago could do nothing to Ray Collins today and Boston bunched hits off Clotzie and won. Two hits, a sacrifice and a wild throw, gave them their first run.

CLEVELAND 2, Washington 2. CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 11.—Cleveland defeated Washington. Washington fielded rather erratically at times.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 11.—New York, by mixing hits with errors and passed balls, defeated St. Louis. The locals fielded in the eighth inning, scoring four runs on four hits and an error.

HARTLEY IS BATTING STAR

Doty Succumbs to Fusillade of Drives in Eighth, Ostdek's Men Taking Game, 5-0—Pinch Hits Count.

Northwestern League Standings.

BY JAMES H. CASSELL. The Spokane Indians scored their second shutout of the week over the Portland Colts yesterday afternoon.

Doty pitched fair ball, but the Indians were not lacking in pinch hitting ability. Joe Cobb and Harry Ostdek have been departing the loss of a week, and with Noyes moving down his usual conquerors in rapid order, the victory was easily consummated.

Nick Williams juggled his batting order in an effort to place the Indians in their usual submissive position.
