JOHN A. DIX.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 12.—Governor Wilson discussed the tariff here today at the State Fair, before the largest crowd that has yet gathered to hear him in his Presidential campaign.
"We have the right to look to our Government," he said, "not to support us, but to remove the obstacles to our individual self-support."
"They say prices have risen all over the world. Yes, they have, and they have risen faster and higher in high tariff countries than in low tariff countries. We do not have to have very much brains to read statistics and statistics are open to every man which show that the United States is burdened with the cost of higher living as no other country in the world is, and there must be something special in the United States which makes it true."
Price of Meat is Illustration.
"Take the price of meat for instance. It has gone up 30 to 40 per cent in ten years in this country and the price of American world is, and gone up a fraction of a cent a pound in London markets."
The Governor referred to the circular letter revealed at the trial of the meat packers in Chicago, in which appropriate prices for meat were suggested, and, he said, "with a gentility unsurpassed in the history of business etiquette, the suggestion was always accepted."
The Governor referred to the tariff as a "malignant growth that required a surgical operation."
Political Surgery Suggested.
"If I am a surgeon and you are a sufferer, will I see that your declining years are made happy? he asked.
"I will perform an operation, but I will not cut a single tissue that is wholesome. The man who does not propose to cut the deadly thing out is a quack and not a surgeon. Don't let the quacks deceive you." Governor Wilson arrived with Acting Chairman McAdoo, of the National Commissioners and Norman E. Mack. The party went to a hotel, where they met Governor Dix. The Governor has not changed his mind, he said today.
"I am a candidate," he said today.
"and expect to be renominated and re-elected."
It is known, however, that some upstate leaders oppose Governor Dix.

Veterans in Secret Session Receive Reports of Officers and Exonerate Management of National Home.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 12.—Taking up the subjects of closest interest to their organization, the delegates to the National encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, held an all-day secret session today.
They received reports of their various officers, together with suggestions for bettering of different systems in use in their organization, and among other important matters, practically exonerated the officials of the National Soldiers' Home at Dayton, O., of charges of mismanagement of that institution.
Commander-in-Chief Trimble in his annual report urged the delegates to take action for erecting a fitting memorial to "the loyal women of our country, to commemorate their great services and devotion, their willing sacrifices and unequalled fortitude during the period of the Civil War."
Gratitude is Urged.
"If we shall fail to do all in our power to accomplish this," said the commander-in-chief, "it will be written in the future across the brightest pages of our record." They left this day of gratitude unpaid.
William J. Wells, chairman of the committee on "Bull Run battlefield," asked in his annual report that consideration be given to the National Sol-
of mismanagement of that institution.
The committee report on the proposed Lincoln way along the Potomac reported circumstances were unfavorable.
It is thought that tomorrow with the election of officers of the Grand Army of the Republic, the "Women's Relief Committee," the "Daughters of Veterans and the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, the last of whom held their nominations today, will mark the official closing of the convention.
Reception Tendered Commander.
The veterans and the members of auxiliary organizations devoted themselves to pleasure tonight. The Daughters of Veterans tendered a reception to Commander-in-Chief Trimble and the United States War Veterans and the patriotic instructors held camp fires.
At the latter camp fire, the National patriotic instructor, J. B. Lewis, of Boston, presided, the platform from which he directed proceedings represented a camp scene suggestive of the days of 1861-65. Lieutenant-Governor Wallace, of California, delivered an address of welcome.
Commander-in-Chief Trimble was presented today by members of the Grand Army with a diamond badge, an insignia of a past-commander-in-chief.
It is valued at $1000. John E. Gilman, past commander-in-chief, was presented with a set of silver.

had its first direct encounter with Theodore Roosevelt's Western tour here tonight. John Maynard Harlan, of Chicago, and son of the late Associate Justice Harlan, of the United States Supreme Court and ex-Representative Bede, of Minnesota, opened fire on the Colonel before an enthusiastic audience, and started the warfare which is scheduled to continue across the Rocky

Harlan, son of ex-Chief Justice Harlan, of Chicago, and J. Adam Bede, ex-Representative in Congress from Minnesota, in behalf of President Taft.
Harlan and Bede were sent West by the Republican National committee to follow Roosevelt in his tour across the United States. The same telegram said the crowd that heard Roosevelt evinced but little enthusiasm.
Chairman Moore, of the Republican state central committee, will endeavor to have Harlan and Bede assigned by the National committee to Oregon for a number of addresses before the campaign closes. Both are brilliant orators and experienced campaigners.
When in Congress, Bede and the late Representative Cushman, of Washington, were known as the "wits" of the House.

carload of hides was part of the freight dropped from the bridge, 50 feet above, and as they became water-soaked drew all the fish from that point to the Willamette in one great swarm. In a few hours there were tens of thousands of fish within 50 feet of the water, which was half submerged in the water.

CANNIBAL SCARES INDIANS

Belief in Supernatural Power Keeps Tribesmen in Terror.

PORT WILLIAM, Ont., Sept. 12.—The Indians of the district are in a state of panic and are keeping close to their homes as the result of the report that a "windigo," or cannibal Indian is abroad in the bush. The terror is not so much of the physical harm which may result from a meeting with the man, but it is a survival of the old superstition which credits Indians with powers "windigo" with supernatural powers.
Several squaws and their children last Sunday saw a stranger coming along the Grand Trunk-Pacific tracks, near where they have an encampment.
They were alarmed at his appearance and ran to cover. No attempt was made to return to the camp that night, but the next day, accompanied by section men, the Indians returned and found the camp stripped of valuables and food. The intruder had disappeared.
An Indian went "windigo" north of Lac Seul some time ago, but later was seen near here.
