PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 16.—One American was killed another was fatally wounded, the Chief of Police and another patrolman seriously injured when Mexican factions fought today over the management of the celebration here of Mexico's independence day and the police sought to arrest the brawlers. RELI OF MAINE TO STAY Exhibit Is Presented to City Hall's Permanent Stock.

An air port frame and case about four feet square stand from the side entrance of the City Hall, when the famous skeleton was raised from Havana harbor by the Government is now one of the relics on exhibit in the museum at the City Hall. The souvenir was received yesterday by City Curator Wiegand from the Navy Department at Washington, D. C., along with a letter presenting the relic to the city museum. It now graces a stand on the lowest floor of the City Hall.

The relic is one of the largest saved from the famous battleship before the hull was buried by the Government after it had been thoroughly examined. A port hole with the thick glass and brass rim still intact grates in the center of the skeleton. It rests in a piece of the steel armor of the ship, which is rusted and eaten until it is less than half an inch thick. Covering the relic are seaweed, shells, moss and slime from the bottom of the ocean, where the sunken ship rested for about 11 years.

The glass in the port hole is unbroken. The brass frame is, however, so badly corroded that the window cannot be opened. It is held down by two heavy brass clamps which cannot be lifted. Curator Wiegand secured the relic by writing to the Navy Department and working through the Oregon delegation in Washington. Yesterday the souvenir was one of the principal attractions at the City Hall.

SWEETHEART GETS $1000

LEBONAN MAN REMEMBERS VIRGINIA FRIEND.

Romance Lasted Over 60 Years and Marriage Was Nearly Consummated Recently.

ALBANY, Or., Sept. 16.—(Special.) As the result of a love affair of almost a quarter of a century ago, revived in recent years through correspondence, Mrs. Louis Yancey, of Wilmington, Va., will receive $1000. F. M. Gatts, of Lebanon, who was Mrs. Yancey's admirer, died last week. His will, which was admitted to probate today, bequeathed the sum to his sweetheart, who had not seen him for more than 20 years. $1000 out of an estate valued at $2200.

The remainder of Gatts' estate is bequeathed to his only living heir, Grover H. Gatts, his son, who resides in Lebanon.

Gatts was married twice, and narrowly missed a third matrimonial venture, an experience with a marriage bureau, but the romance with the Virginian widow appears to have been his guiding thought when he made his will.

Gatts met Mrs. Yancey when he was living in Virginia more than 20 years ago. He was then living with his first wife and Mrs. Yancey was also married.

Gatts and his wife later moved to Oregon and located at Lebanon, where Mrs. Yancey died several years ago.

Christian Day, 1902, Gatts married to Sophia E. Frank, of Lebanon. They lived together about five years and divorced.

After this divorce, Gatts learned that Mrs. Yancey's husband was dead, and a correspondence soon sprung up between them.

Gatts wanted to marry Mrs. Yancey, but friends persuaded him not to do so, so the reason that in recent years the old man, who was 89 when he died, was in poor health. He died Thursday, and it is said that his death was largely due to disappointment because the people of Lebanon refused to take seriously a lecture which he had planned to give.

Students of the Y. M. C. A. have established a booth on the train where they meet all new arrivals and escort them to lodging places.

LONDON IS ATTACKED

MOCK INVADERS COME FROM DIRECTION OF GERMANY.

British Maneuvers Are Being Conducted Upon Most Elaborate Scale Held for Some Time.

CAMBRIE, England, Sept. 16.—Having received word that the Blue army under command of Lieutenant-General Sir Douglas Haig, which in the grand army maneuvers begun today, represents the invading force from the North Sea, had started to march toward London, the defending army set out at daylight this morning to intercept it.

The maneuvers are being conducted on the most elaborate scale held in England for some time. The general scheme provides for the repulse of an invading army which spent last week in carrying out divisional maneuvers, is composed of 22,500 men, 300 horses, 56 guns, 68 machine guns and 1200 cyclists. The invading forces had 2500 more men. Each army has the use of one airship and eight aeroplanes, the latter fleet having been considerably reduced by an order prohibiting the use of monoplanes on account of the accidents resulting in the death of four lieutenants of the army flying corps. It is expected that the Red and Blue armies will clash tomorrow. By that time King George will have reached the scene of operations, and all the military attaches, including the American officers, will have taken the field.
