PORTLAND, TUESDAY, SEPT. 17, 1912.

THE JUST AND THE UNJUST.

Some days ago when Mr. J. W. Cullen, of Josephine County, made the sweeping statement in the Oregonian that the graduated tax measure would not increase the taxes of any moderate landowner...

Our correspondent's letter reveals that one of the pioneers of the West, one who has devoted his talents and his energies not to self-advancement, but largely to the lifting of his fellow men to higher planes of spiritual endeavor...

BIG CRIMES AND LITTLE ONES.

A group of socialists collaborate in the preparation and publication of a vile pamphlet defaming Colonel Roosevelt, and distribute it throughout the city on the day when he is a guest here...

SLIPPING ONE OVER FOR ROOSEVELT.

The office of Presidential elector in Oregon went begging for a name to put on the primary ballot ticket there...

LOVE AND MARRIAGE.

The Los Angeles young people who got married with the writer stipulation that they separate when love dies...

Work awaits 1000 men on Federal irrigation projects.

Work awaits 1000 men on Federal irrigation projects as a good part of the day's business, however, continues full handed.

suppose that he had protested that he was not a candidate. But, having been nominated, let us suppose that he had filed his acceptance of the nomination and had coolly instructed the Secretary of State to write after his name "Progressive" for Roosevelt.

Mr. Cullen does not mention the Oregon & California railroad grant which includes 150,000 acres in his own county, though the Fels writers promise that this land shall yield in graduated taxes to Josephine County $49,350 annually.

Mr. Cullen has touched but lightly on the one sound and sensible argument in his communication. He desires that the people put in office assessors who will place an honest valuation on land.

COLLEGE GRADUATES IN SCHOOLS.

It is encouraging to notice the large number of college graduates who are taking positions in the public schools this season.

THE URENIC OVERDOSE.

The Salem Capital Journal has become dismayed by the vast number of measures to go on the ballot, under the initiative and referendum.

GLASGOW'S STREETCAR SERVICE.

It is in many ways inferior to our own, says a patron. PORTLAND, Sept. 14.—(To the Editor)—I read an editorial in the Oregonian today, signed "Commuter," contrasting the streetcar of the local Glasgow company with that of Glasgow.

Willie's Pa Defuses a Lawyer.

Little Willie—Willie's lawyer, pa!—a lawyer, my son, is a man who induces two other men to strip for a fight, and then runs off with their clothes.

of incompatibility, the changing process is mild, pleasant and certain. But such harmony of soul frequently does not occur and hence the establishment is marked by tempests of greater or lesser intensity.

Great changes have taken place in our country during the last three or four decades and almost every change has been for the better.

PEACE SUGGESTED TO "FRAT" MAN.

Stand Taken That Law Be Respected and Agitation Ended. PORTLAND, Sept. 13.—(To the Editor)—Having noticed and read the letters published in the Oregonian lately speaking of the "Frat" men in Portland, I believe a little sound advice would do the writers no harm.
