Pomona Grange to Merr.—Meetling of the Multinomah County Pomona Grange today at Orlent will be the most important of the year, because of the topics to be discussed, the list including taxation and fiat saiary for the State Printer. S. C. Spence, state master, is expected to attend and speak on "Flat Salary for the State Printer." H. A. Darnall, state lecturer, will be present and speak on the same subject. Single tax and taxation will he discussed by H. B. Starkweather, A.
F. Miller and Eugene Palmer. Several resolutions on taxation have been referred to Pomona Grange. Roy Gill will speak on "The Initiative and Referendum Amendment." proposed at the November election. Equal suffrage will be presented by a prominent speaker.
Special music will be provided. Mrs. S.
E. Windle, lecturer, will be in charge.
Those attending through Portland may reach Orient by way of Montavilla and the Mount Hood railroad.

Murphy's First Is $100.—On appeal from Municipal Court, A. B. Murphy, proprietor of the Auditorium Hotel, was found guilty in Circuit Judge Gantenbein's department of the Circuit Court yesterday of selling liquor without a license and fined $100. The evidence was not so strong in a case against him charging that he maintained an oplum joint and of this he was found not guilty. In the lower court he had been fined $100 on the liquor charge and $150 on the optum.

Opening the bill is a trio of come-dians with acrobatic tendencies. Their balancing and somersaulting is eccen-tric and hilariously funny. The Gordon brothers in a bag-punching act wind up a bill that for general excellence will probably not be equalled in many weeks. In this final number a Kanga-roo "Bob" is introduced. He dons box-ing gloves and in a three-round fight puts the Gordons out of commission. puts the Gordons out of commission.
