FEDERAL GRAND JURY SWORN IN.—For the September term a grand jury was sworn in at the United States District Court yesterday afternoon, and after receiving a formal charge from Judge Bean, entered upon its duties. There are three cases to be submitted for investigation, but unless the jury makes investigations other than those already known, its deliberations will only cover matters not of general interest. The grand jury comprises the following: Rufus O. McCroskey, foreman; J. L. Barnard, Richard Wilson, W. P. Snider, C. McCort, Lyman Smith, Albert Shoen, P. H. Schulderman, Joseph J. Weber, J. H. Pike, Beaverton; and E. M. Howell, Oregon City. CHERRYVILLE MAY KEEP POSTOFFICE.—Senator Bourne yesterday received a telegram from the First Assistant Postmaster General regarding the threatened discontinuance of the Post office at Cherryville. He was informed in reply to his remonstrance against closing the office that the removal of the postmaster at Cherryville had been recommended by the inspector, and there seemed to be no suitable candidate for the position. The telegram stated that if a satisfactory candidate were presented, the discontinuance of the office would be rescinded. The Portland Commercial Club asked Senator Bourne to take the matter up upon being requested to do so by the Cherryville Commercial Club, and the matter was brought to the attention of Senator Bourne as chairman of the committee on postal affairs.

FREE PERMIT RECOMMENDED.—The license committee of the City Council decided yesterday to recommend that the newly organized women's employment bureau, a semi-philanthropic organization for the protection of servants, be granted a permit to operate free of charge. H. M. Esterly appeared on behalf of the society, representing that the employment bureau would be nothing more than self-supporting, with the moral welfare of the employe the chief aim of the promoters. Investigations are to be made into the character of employe and employer.

The attendants will be addressed by Dr. Rachel Benn, for many years a medical missionary in China.

JUDGE'S SUCCESSOR MUCH IN DOUBT.—The contest for election of a successor to Circuit Judge Gantenbein is taking on interesting proportions. E. S. J. McAllister is the order of the day for this office, but he has changed his mind and withdrawn. It is understood in the interest of Oglesby Young, the Democratic nominee. Judge Gantenbein has not decided finally that he will not seek a re-election in response to the urgent request of friends.

DEMOCRATS DESERT RANKS.—We have another convert to the cause to announce, said George Arthur Brown, chairman of the Roosevelt Progressive party state central committee, when Bull Moose headquarters yesterday. WORK RESUMED ON EAST SIDE DEPOT.—Work has been resumed on the freight depot which is being built by the O.-W. R. & N. Company on East Oak street, between East First and East Second streets. Shortly after the concrete work on the two-story building and the single story structure were finished, the freight-house settling began and work was suspended. The building settled to a considerable extent, but it seems to have stopped and the foundation seems to have reached solid footing. It becomes necessary to raise the entire structure and make it level. This is being done with jackscrews. In the steel frame, sections are being bolted in to raise the building to the proper level, and the concrete building is being raised in the same way. The freight-house will now be completed, as it may be used soon by the wholesalers on the East Side. Some additional trackage has been laid on the filled grounds, but numerous other tracks will be laid to connect the freight depot with the East Side street lines. Lewis A. Hicks is the contractor.

MARYLAND STREET EXTENSION DESIRED.—Extension of Maryland street, which is part of the Willamette boulevard between Fremont and Delay streets, in Lower Albina, is wanted in order to connect with the new Broadway street, which is being laid out about using the steep hill on Mississippi avenue. Considerable property will be required to secure a light grade. J. M. Gilbert, P. S. Bates and J. M. Miller are the owners of the property. They have not completed their report. The new street will be 50 feet wide to correspond with the rest of Maryland street, and it will form a part of the Peninsula boulevard system. The proposed extension skirts the bluff for some distance. The North Portland Commercial Club has taken steps to have the Portland and Willamette boulevard placed under the control of the Park Board, so they may be improved according to the plans of Superintendent Mische.

ROSE CITY PARK WANTS FIRE APPARATUS.—The Rose City Park fire station is nearly finished, but no apparatus has been ordered. The city after the appropriations for the ensuing year, which will not be for several months. Meanwhile the entire station is without fire protection. O. G. Hughson, of the Rose City Park League, said yesterday some fire protection should be afforded, even if it is a hose cart with non-pump hoses. "Fires and losses are occurring constantly in the Rose City Park district," said Mr. Hughson, "and we can't help ourselves. We have plenty of water, and with some hose we can have some fire protection until the city installs a fire company. It may be several months before we can get a company here."

CLUB TO HAVE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY.—The North Portland Commercial Club will take up the matter of organizing a women's auxiliary at the meeting of the club next Tuesday at Kenton. It is the plan of J. H. Nolte, the president, that an auxiliary should take up the matter of local improvements on the Peninsula, improvement of home surroundings, planting of roses about the homes and beautifying the boulevards. He holds that these things are the work of women, and he will urge that a committee be appointed to organize the auxiliary at once. An invitation will be sent to Samuel Hill, good roads promoter, to lecture before the club in the near future.

Mayor Says Investigation Shows That 39,000 Pounds of Lead Disappeared in Last Year—New System Is Promised.

"But suppose we get called up on the carpet. We'll be in trouble then," I said to Johnson. "No, they can't get you into trouble," he said. "But how about them putting you on oath," I asked. "No, that's all right. I can swear to anything I want to on a stack of Bibles four feet high," Johnson said to me. "The foregoing is a bit of testimony introduced at the hearing of C. G. Murphy, seeking for reinstatement as head meterman of the city water department, before the Civil Service Commission yesterday afternoon. The conversation was related by J. Myers, laborer under Murphy, showing that at least two men in the department knew that the custom of selling 'junk' was legitimate, and it ended yesterday, to be taken under advisement for several days, hinged upon the custom of selling old lead and brass fittings picked up from water department repairs."

Mayor Is Attacked. He attacked Mayor Rushlight, declaring that he maliciously kept him from a mechanic's job in 1906, and tried to make out a case of personal animosity in the matter, but the defense rested chiefly upon the precedence established in years gone by that the sale of defective and old water pipe fixtures was legitimate.
