

WILSON SAYS . R. COUNCILS TRUSTS

Democratic Nominee Criticizes Colonel for His Commission Plan.

GRIDIRON METAPHOR USED

"Third Term Team Does Not Even Know Signals," is Declaration in Speech in Michigan—Bosses Are Called Stupid.

DETROIT, Sept. 20.—Trusts flourished more under President Roosevelt's administration than under any other in the history of the country. This is the message Governor Wilson spelled out in his speech here last night to assertions by Colonel Roosevelt at Trinidad, Colo., taking exception to the Democratic nominee's declaration that in the recent investigation by the House, Messrs. Gary and Perkins suggested the plank in the Roosevelt Progressive Republican platform proposing a Federal commission to regulate the trusts.

Speaker Draws Inference. "I understand that the leader of the third party," said the Governor, "has recently said he did not suggest this change just the other day, that he had suggested it while he was President in one of his messages to Congress, during that same term of the Presidency in which the trusts grew faster and more numerously than in any other administration we have had and that his conclusion was—does not say this, but this must be the inference—that his conclusion was that it was not possible to put them out of business, it was not possible to check their supremacy, that all you could do was to accept them as necessary evils and appoint an industrial commission which would tell them how they were to do their business, not an industrial commission which should tell you how other men should be admitted into the field of competition, but an industrial commission which should take care of the people of the United States by saying to these trusts, 'Now go easy. Don't hurt anybody. We believe that when you are reminded of your moral duties you are not malevolent; you are beneficent. You are big, but you are not cruel.'"

Bi-partisan bosses were another object of attack by the Governor in his speech before a crowd that filled Light-guard Army. "The trouble in this country," said the nominee, "is the boss and one party has an arrangement with the boss of the other party, so that if it's heads or tails he wins. What I am amazed at in the political boss is not his subtlety, but his stupidity. Some of them don't know the people now are posted about them."

The Governor's speech here tonight was his principal speech of the day. At many places the nominee stepped down from the train and stood in the rain to shake hands with those who pressed forward to meet him. Several Wellesley College girls were on the same train with Governor Wilson and they went back to the special car to meet him.

At Kalamazoo, Mich., a crowd of college boys gave the Governor a cheer. It was there that he made his longest speech of the afternoon.

Rear Platform Not "Democratic"

"I have found the subjects to be discussed in this campaign are so momentous, that they hardly be handled in speeches from the rear end of the train," said the Governor. "Moreover, the rear platform is not the Democratic platform. We are at the front and the rear platform must say that since I have got into Michigan I have felt a singular stimulation, because we have stopped at several other cities and wherever there is the same spirit of hope and confidence."

"I can explain it only this way, that we are genuinely interested in the subject that lies nearest my own heart, namely, setting the Government free. Because, whether it was done intentionally or not, there is no doubt about it that our Government in recent years has been seriously entangled with special interests of various kinds and the men who get it entangled cannot get it disentangled. That is the whole point of the matter."

"There is no time to discuss here how we got into it, or how we are to get out of it. But the point is that the people of the United States have made up their minds to get out of it and there is only one team ready to do the business and that is the Democratic team. I am speaking in the terms of a man who has been bred in a football college. I know the third team is not organized, it does not even know the signals, and the regular Republican team is very much weakened. It has lost some of its principal players."

"But there have been no losses on the Democratic side. On the contrary there have been a great many gains and the same is true of the Democratic team that we have to play now."

The Governor and his party left at 10:18 o'clock for the Michigan Central for Columbus, O. The nominee is scheduled to speak from his car at Toledo at 7:20 A. M.

SISTER ALOYSIUS TESTIFIES

Catholic Woman Explains Embraces Given Alleged Kidnaped Girl.

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 20.—"I treated Mariejean as a mother would treat her sick child," testified Sister Aloysius today in the $48,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Magnusson against the Sisters of the Visitation and officials of the Roman Catholic Church for the alleged kidnaping and alienating of the affections of the daughter while a pupil at the academy of the Visitation. She denied that there was any impropriety in the embraces she bestowed on Mariejean and said that she treated her in the same affectionate way in which she treated every pupil in her care.

A mass of depositions was read in the morning from mining men, freighters and prospectors who had known Mrs. Magnusson in Alaska, many of them having stayed at the Wortman roadhouse which was operated by her. While the burden of their testimony was that Mrs. Magnusson did not bear the best reputation, they were unable to state any definite charge on which the gossip was founded.

FRESHMEN DUCKED IN LAKE

Whitman Sophomores Throw 21 of Underclassmen Into Water.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 20.—(Special).—Sophomores and freshmen of Whitman College, disregarding the carefully planned denatured class scrap scheduled by the faculty for tomorrow, have been clashing all week. The rivalry culminated last night in a wholesale tugging and ducking party. Tuesday night the sophomores seized six freshmen and threw them into the lake at Whitman. Last night a gang of freshmen at the fair saw two sophomores with their "best girls" in one of the side shows. They rushed the gatekeeper.

One sophomore, John Martin, went under the side of the tent and escaped, but the other, Grover Dunlap, was caught, taken to the dormitory and tied in bed. He escaped, organized his classmates and they rounded up 15 "freshies." Each was hurried, howling and kicking, out in "Lakum Duckum." The sophs then posted "procs" all over town. The scrap tomorrow is the annual one, and the features are a football game, in which the players will have their hands tied.

MOB SMASHES SIX CARS

THIRTY PERSONS WOUNDED IN FURIOUS STRIKE RIOTS.

Outbreak in Superior, Wis., Comes When Attempt Is Made to Cross Parade of Sympathizers.

SUPERIOR, Wis., Sept. 20.—The first serious violence in connection with the streetcar strike here broke out last night when 5000 strike sympathizers smashed six cars. The police fought desperately and finally rescued the car crews. The trouble followed a parade of union men, arranged as testimonial of sympathy for the striking carmen. Several cars manned by non-union men which attempted to pass through the procession were held up and put out of commission.

At 9 o'clock last night Sheriff McKinstry was ordered to swear in deputies to save lives. The damage done to the property of the street railway company was great as cars were shattered by the mob. Every policeman on the force was on duty and late tonight a semblance of order had been restored, although thousands of men and boys paraded the streets in wild disorder. At 10:30 the department was ordered to be ready to disperse the crowd with the hose.

NEW MYSTERIOUS WOMAN IS SOUGHT

Record of Another Client of Gibson Who Is Like Mrs. Szabo Is Found.

EXISTENCE IS DOUBTED

Former Client of Attorney Tells of Signing Notes for $24,000 Made Payable to Woman He Never Saw—Lawyer Gets Counsel.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—In delving into the past of Burton W. Gibson, the New York lawyer, now in the Orange County jail, charged with the murder of Mrs. Rosa Menschik Szabo, his client, another woman of mystery, of medium height, heavy set, with dark hair and eyes has been brought into the limelight of the sensational case. She is Rose Guerra, who figured in a suit instituted two years ago against Gibson by Hugh Trainer, an awl-maker, of No. 50 Lawton avenue, West Washington Market.

At the hearing in the case Gibson described Rose Guerra, a woman seen in court, as a woman about 35 years old, about five feet and six inches in height, plump and with a decided foreign appearance. Inasmuch as that description is said to correspond to that given of Mrs. Szabo, attorneys concerned in the case want to find Rose Guerra, she still lives.

Trainer contended in his suit charging Gibson with fraud that at the end of certain litigation which the lawyer handled for him he discovered that he had signed notes for $24,000, each made payable to the Rose Guerra, and a confession of debt to the woman, whom he alleges he has never seen. Robert H. Elder, one-time assistant District Attorney in Brooklyn, has been retained by Gibson to defend him in the fight for his life. Charles Goldzier represents Gibson in the civil suit to have him removed as executor of Mrs. Szabo's will.

DUBLIN COLLEGE CHOSEN

Mrs. Leeds Prefers Trinity to Oxford or Cambridge.

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(Special).—When the young son of Mrs. Leeds finishes his course at Eton he will not go to Oxford or Cambridge, usually regarded as the inevitable step for an Eton boy who desires to finish his education and obtain the hall mark of the "Varsity." He will "finish" at Trinity College, Dublin, which his mother regards as one of the most practical educational establishments in Europe. She thinks Oxford and Cambridge are a sort of preserve for the sons of people who have no particular interest, either in the success or failure of their children's future, and whose chief object in life is to find their offspring labelled "Blues" for some other distinguishing color indicative of athletic accomplishment.

She has been looking up the records of the famous Irish teacher and he, it has in proportion turned out more successful professional and commercial man than either of the great English institutions. This appears to be a particular tendency on the part of Americans resident in England to send their boys to Ireland just now. The temptation towards riotous living is not so great in England—a feature that strongly appeals to the American mother.

IRISH ADOPT SOCIALISM

Clergy Want Pope to Issue Propaganda to Prevent Spread.

DUBLIN, Sept. 21.—(Special).—The readiness with which the working classes in Dublin and large Irish seaports are embracing socialism is causing such uneasiness to those charged with the spiritual care of the population that the solemn pronouncement may be expected from the pulpits shortly.

A prominent Irish ecclesiastic is on his way to Rome for the purpose of explaining the gravity of the situation to the Pope. The clergy look with alarm on the industrial troubles which have been for some time agitating the Irish seaports, and the activity of the Socialists. But it was not until they came face to face with Socialist Sunday school propaganda that they realized the time to take serious action against the agitators.
