POMONA GRANGE HAS BUSY SESSION.—Pomona Grange, of this county, held a busy session Wednesday, with Multnomah Grange, in Orient Hall, and under the charge of Mrs. S. E. Windle, lecturer, an interesting programme was rendered. Resolutions, introduced by Mrs. W. E. Slater, of Portland, favoring granting a pension to widows left with children, was adopted. H. G. Starkweather, of Clackamas County, delivered a strong argument against single tax, pointing out the fallacies of the movement. His talk called out much applause. J. J. Johnson, T. J. Kreuder and others spoke in favor of a flat salary for State Printer. Robert Miller, of Portland, spoke for equal suffrage in Oregon. Ray Gill told how to grow dahlias successfully. Fruit Inspector J. E. Stansbery explained methods of spraying fruit trees. About 75 attended. Many came from Portland and Clackamas County in automobiles. A fine dinner was given by Multnomah Camp. Pomona will meet in Gresham next time.

SOCIAL HYGIENE SOCIETY MEETS.—Members of the Social Hygiene Society of Portland met in the Y. M. C. A. building at noon yesterday and elected executive and state committees as follows: Executive for one year, L. R. Alderman, W. A. Carter, C. C. Colt, Edward Cookingham, W. G. Eliot, Jr., J. C. English, A. F. Flegel; for two years, W. T. Foster, William House, L. W. Hyde, B. S. Josselyn, J. F. Carroll, G. N. Pease, Boudinet Seeley; for three years, A. C. Smith, A. W. Lawrence, C. S. White, W. T. Williamson, J. B. Wise, Adolph Wolfe; ex-officio members, H. W. Stone and A. M. Grilley; state committee, J. R. Ackerman, P. L. Campbell, W. J. Kerr and E. O. Sisson. These committeemen will meet next Friday to elect officers to serve during the coming year. The regular annual meeting of the society will be held Monday, October 4, at noon, when the reports of the officers and committees will be submitted and the work of the future mapped out.

MULTNOMAH CAMP STARTS MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN.—Multnomah Camp No. 77, Woodmen of the World, East Sixth and East Alder streets, has just started a membership campaign, which will end Thanksgiving day with a banquet. Multnomah is now the second largest camp in the world, San Francisco being the largest, and it aspires to be the largest. The camp plans to give away a lot of turkeys as prizes for those who get candidates, and only these can attend the turkey banquet. It is hoped to add at least 500 new members to the camp by Thanksgiving. This will place it at the head in point of membership. F. J. Meindl, T. J. Kreuder, James Ruddiman, R. M. Bodley and Earl W. Minar are the campaign committee.

UMPQUA APPLES SELLING FOR HOOD RIVER PRODUCT.—J. E. Stansbery, County Fruit Inspector, yesterday morning found an expressman selling Umpqua apples, as coming from Hood River, on Grand avenue. Inspector Stansbery came along in his automobile as the express wagon drove by loaded with apples in boxes. He asked the expressman to see the apples and was given the privilege, assuring the Inspector that the apples were Hood River apples, although packed in Umpqua boxes. Mr. Stansbery saw at once that the apples were not from Hood River and advised the expressman that it was not safe to sell apples as coming from Hood River if they were grown somewhere else.

PENDLETON TRAFFIC BEING ARRANGED FOR.—The Hill lines will do their part toward handling the large crowds that will attend the Pendleton Round-Up this year. E. C. Robbins, chief clerk in the passenger department of the Northern Pacific, said yesterday that three special trains from Portland had been chartered over the North Bank via Pasco and the Northern Pacific. Special trains will also be run over the Northern Pacific from Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, while special car parties have been arranged over the same line from Aberdeen, North Yakima, Kennewick and Lewiston.

REV. JOHN H. BOYD, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, corner 12th and Alder sts., will occupy his pulpit tomorrow both morning and evening. At the 10:30 service the topic will be "The Christian Enterprise and Human Good." The evening subject will be "Three Types of 'Lostness.'" To these services the public is cordially invited.

PENINSULA BALL GAME SEPTEMBER 29.—The baseball game between members of the North Portland Commercial Club, teams being from Kenton and Killingsworth avenue, will be held Sunday, September 29, in Peninsula Park, and not next Sunday, as announced.

PAVING OF EAST SIXTH STREET AGITATED.—A movement has been started to pave East Sixth street, between Hawthorne avenue and East Burnside street, with fair prospects of success. A number of important buildings have been erected on East Sixth, and it is urged that it should be paved. The ravine between East Washington and East Stark streets has been filled and has settled sufficiently to permit of a pavement being laid over it. East Sixth street parallels Grand avenue, and it is thought if it were paved it would become a business street. It is planned that in case East Sixth street is paved, all the alternate streets between Grand avenue and East Sixth street be paved also. The object is to increase the business district of Central East Portland. Petitions have not been prepared yet, but the matter is being agitated, and it is possible the street may be paved between Sullivan's Gulch and Woodward avenue.

BURNSIDE STREET WIDENING IN DOUBT.—While no action has been taken on the East Side to widen East Burnside street, yet some of the property-owners say that they are opposed to making it 100 feet wide, but favor making it 80 feet wide between the Burnside-bridge approach and East Twenty-eighth street. It is urged that to take 40 feet off one side of the street would confiscate too much property, but that to take 20 feet will leave enough of lots for business purposes. There also has been some talk of converging East Ankeny and East Couch into East Burnside at East Sixth street by cutting off portions of two blocks and turning the two streets into East Burnside. An effort will be made in the near future to get the East Burnside property-owners together and have the widening question settled as soon as possible, as several buildings will be erected as soon as the question has been settled.

EAST SIDE CLUBHOUSE CONSIDERED.—The new, modern clubhouse will be the subject considered at the luncheon of the directors and members of the East Side Business Men's Club today at noon at the grill of the Clifford Hotel, East Morrison and East Sixth streets. A plan has been suggested that the clubhouse be built at some point between East Morrison and East Burnside streets, on East Sixth, where an offer of a quarter block has been made on what is considered exceedingly reasonable terms. The owner of the property offers to take $1000 in stock in the building. The plan for financing and erecting the building will be considered at the luncheon today.

BAR ASSOCIATION TO HOLD MEMORIAL.—Memorial services and adoption of resolutions upon the death of W. Cary Johnson and Maurice W. Seitz, members of the bar, will take place in Judge Gantenbein's department of the Circuit Court today at 2 P. M. Addresses will be made by C. M. Idleman, C. A. Dolph, C. W. Fulton, A. H. Tanner, Charles H. Carey, James L. Conley, H. K. Sargent and E. R. Ringo. Members of the bar are requested to attend.

RECEPTION FOR REV. C. J. LARSEN.—Rev. C. J. Larsen will be tendered a reception by the members and friends of the Norwegian Danish Methodist Episcopal Church, Vancouver avenue and Skidmore street, tonight. Rev. Mr. Larsen has been appointed by Bishop Cooke as pastor for the sixth year. Five years ago he organized the church with 14 members and has during that time built a handsome church and parsonage.

ELECTORS' CERTIFICATES FILED.—Certificates of the nomination of John L. Rand, of Baker, and Philip Metschan, Jr., of Multnomah, by Thursday night's massmeeting of electors were filed yesterday, together with the acceptances of the nominees, with the Secretary of State at Salem. The necessary credentials were carried to Salem by a special messenger and had to be filed before 5 P. M. yesterday.

BILTMORE STUDENTS GUESTS.—Members of the Biltmore Forest School to the number of 40, who arrived in the city last evening from Marshfield in charge of Dr. C. A. Schenck, chief instructor, were guests of George M. Cornwall, editor of the Lumberman, who entertained Dr. Schenck and his class at a smoker at the Multnomah Hotel.

POLLING BOOTHS PURCHASED.—The city and county have jointly purchased 100 portable and collapsible voting booths at a cost of $2000 for use in municipal and general elections. These booths will be used for setting up in the interior of some of the downtown buildings designated as polling places. Each has room for four voters.

MAZAMAS TO SEE THE CLACKAMAS.—The Mazamas' Sunday trip will be to Cazadero, from where they will take an eight-mile hike across the hills and along both the main Clackamas and the north fork. They will travel in a special car, leaving at 7:45 A. M. and returning at 6:40 P. M.

ITALIANS WILL CELEBRATE.—Members of the local Italian colony will gather at User Hall tomorrow to celebrate the anniversary of the unification of Italy. Yesterday was the anniversary date. A concert, speeches and general entertainment will mark the celebration.

DANCE GIVEN BY ROSE CITY PARK CLUB to members of club and friends Friday evening, September 27, at 8:30, at Ringler's Hall, 231½ Morrison st. Funds to be used for furnishing clubhouse, now being completed. *

DR. WITHYCOMBE TO SPEAK.—Dr. James Withycombe, of the Oregon Agricultural College, will lecture tonight in Orient Hall, under the auspices of the Pleasant Home Commercial Club, on dairying.

MILLERS ARE ENTERTAINED

T. B. Wilcox Is Host at Banquet to Northwest Flour Men.

T. B. Wilcox, president of the Portland Flouring Mills Company, last night entertained a number of Oregon and Washington millers with a dinner at the Imperial Hotel. It has been Mr. Wilcox' custom to invite the millers of the two states to a dinner in Portland every year. They were brought together in a purely social way and not to discuss market conditions or fix prices. Thirty-four persons attended the dinner last night, including a number of the officials of the Portland Flouring Mills Company.

BAGGAGE-MAIL CAR BURNS

Express Packages Also Damaged on Shaniko Branch Train Fire.

MORO, Or., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—A combination baggage-express and mail car on the Shaniko branch train No. 22 caught fire between Biggs and Wasco today after leaving Biggs. The cause is unknown. All express bills were burned and the packages destroyed. The mail was saved by the Wasco Fire Department. A number of sample trunks were destroyed.

The crew took the car through to Shaniko without unloading.

FLOUR DOWN 20 CENTS

WITH SURPLUS OF GRAIN PRICE LOWEST IN YEARS.

Wholesalers Reduce Tariff on Best Grades to $4.20—Retail Charge Will Be $1.30 by the Sack.

A reduction of 20 cents a barrel in the price of flour will be made today. The wholesale price on the best grade will be $4.20 a barrel and the retail price $1.30 a sack. The cut in flour prices is due to the lower prices current in the wheat market at the present time.

There is an immense crop of wheat in the Pacific Northwest this year and ships and steamers to move the surplus are scarce. Those that are available are demanding unusually high freight rates. The consequence is that wheat prices have declined and flour is, therefore, cheaper.

At the present wholesale price, $4.20 a barrel, flour is lower than it has been in the Portland market for years. At this time last year the price was $4.50 a barrel. Two years ago this commodity was selling for $5.35 and three years ago for $5.10. On this date in 1908 the market was $4.80. The highest price in recent years was $6.35 a barrel, which prevailed from January 4 to January 25, 1910.

ASSESSMENTS ARE FOUGHT

Owners in Brazee-Street Addition Think Sums Excessive.

A large number of remonstrators, the majority of whom declare that B. M. Lombard, realty owner, "slipped one over on them," appeared before the street committee of the City Council yesterday afternoon to object to the assessments levied on their property to open East Twenty-fifth, East Twenty-sixth and East Twenty-seventh streets, near Thompson street, in Brazee-Street Addition. The viewers will be asked to go over the property again. The streets are now blocked by strips 52 by 60 feet and the assessment totaled $4110 on nearby property owners for the indemnity to Lombard. The people north of Thompson street declare that Lombard promised that they would be free of assessments for the opening of the three streets, signing no papers in the matter, but asserting that his "word was as good as a bond." The property owners south of Thompson street say the assessment is excessive and that Lombard is the man to dedicate the "plugs" to the city, as his property will derive the most benefit from the opening.

Upon the hearing, which would make it appear that Lombard failed to dedicate the required amount of acreage to receive a plat for the tract, the Councilmen ordered the matter back into the hands of the viewers for another investigation.

FEDERAL JURORS DRAWN

Forty-Four Citizens, Mostly From Portland, to Report October 2.

For appearance on October 2, a trial jury was ordered drawn yesterday by Judge Bean in the United States District Court for the purpose of trying the merits of a number of civil and criminal cases already on the docket and any that may be ready for trial later. The names of the jurors drawn for this purpose are as follows, all being fom Multnomah, Columbia, Hood River, Washington and Clackamas counties:

P. C. Albert, St. Johns; H. M. Bryant, Portland; Thomas Buckman, Portland; C. A. Cass, Hood River; H. F. Chapin, Portland; W. H. Connell, Hillsboro; C. S. B. Coulter, Portland; Asa B. Cutlwe, Hood River; Richard Ehlinger, Portland; J. H. Fairbrok, Chautauqua; George A. Gill, Corbett; C. Hansen, Portland; M. D. Holmes, Portland; E. J. Hohlberger, Portland; John C. Hotchkin, Portland; E. R. Jennings, Troutdale; John Johnson, Portland; J. P. Jones, Troutdale; Guy T. Ketcheson, Portland; John Klaetch, Portland; Joe Lemma, Linnton; Peter Madeson, Hillsdale; D. W. Marsh, Holbrook; Alex Meyer, Portland; Charles Minter, Portland; J. E. Nash, Portland; John Olson, Cleone; P. Olsen, Portland; C. A. Pague, Portland; George W. Ramsey, Scappoose; G. E. Rasch, Portland; W. J. Rauch, Gladstone; Josiah A. Royer, Portland; John Skocher, Portland; E. B. Smith, Portland; John Storan, Portland; E. T. Tallmedge, Portland; M. E. Tillman, Portland; Oscar Vanderbilt, Hood River; Chellis L. Walker, Troutdale; G. E. Weckland, Clackamas; J. Weiss, Portland; Abe Zahler, Holbrook; Thomas Pettijohn, Kessey.

EUGENE TO SHOW PRODUCE

M. J. Duryea Named Commissioner to Minneapolis—Town Prosperous.

That Eugene will make a splendid showing at the various land exhibits to be held this Winter, both at Portland and in the Middle West, was the news brought to Portland yesterday by M. J. Duryea, publicity manager of the Eugene Commercial Club. Mr. Duryea says he has had a man in the field collecting exhibits for the past month and a fine collection has been made. The grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables of the upper valley will be shown to good advantage.

Mr. Duryea has been named commissioner to the Minneapolis Land Show from Oregon, his appointment by T. B. Wilcox, president of the Oregon Development League, having been confirmed by Governor West.

"Eugene is growing tremendously," said Mr. Duryea. "It is the center of the activities of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern, the new electric system of the Southern Pacific Company, and this is adding greatly to its prosperity. Besides, we are doing a great deal of local improvement, a contract having recently been let for sewer work amounting to $158,000. There is construction work under way in and about Eugene amounting to $1,300,000. Eugene banks have deposits of nearly $4,000,000.

PRUNE GROWERS JOYOUS

Good Weather Aids in Harvest of Rapidly Ripened Fruit.

The present good weather is extremely gratifying to the prunegrowers of Oregon, who are just now in the midst of their harvest. Either the late Summer rains or some other unfavorable conditions caused the fruit to ripen rapidly about the 19th of September, and, as growers express it, all the fruit came down at once. Under this condition much fruit would be lost if rain should come, as the fruit would rot on the ground.

The clear weather, however, has aided the growers, as the fruit is drying on the ground and will make a first-class product when the curing process is completed in the evaporators. Packers who have examined samples of fruit say that the quality of the crop seems to be excellent. Owing to the fact that the crop is light, it is expected that the larger sizes will be relatively plentiful. The market is said to be rather inactive at present.

Medical Experts Visit Vancouver.

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, Wash., Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Colonel George E. Bushnell and Lieutenant-Colonel Charles E. Woodruff, of the Medical Corps of the United States Army, have been here for several days making an inspection concerning the alleged prevalence of tuberculosis in this section of the Pacific Northwest, particularly at this post. Colonel Bushnell is a famous physician and is an authority on several lines, having written books and magazine articles, which have been accepted as authoritative by the medical fraternity. Both are sanitary inspectors and are on a special detail.

BRIDGE TRAFFIC AIDED

CRAFT WITH MOVABLE DERRICKS GO UNDER VIADUCTS.

Ordinance Contemplated Providing Against Renting Canoes to People Under 16 Years.

Portland's trans-river population, which has been late to work or forced to regale itself with cold meals on numerous occasions, because of the river traffic demands upon the use of the water thoroughfare, with resultant blockades at the approaches to the Willamette River bridges, is to have relief. No more will streetcars and automobiles be forced to await the pleasure of the passing movable-derrick scows, if the ordinance to be submitted to the City Council by Harbormaster Speier becomes a part of the city statutes.

The Harbormaster's ordinance provides that all river craft with movable-derrick booms be prohibited from signalling for the opening of the draw-bridges, compelling the scow pilots to lower the derrick equipment, so that the water trucks may pass beneath the bridges. A fine of from $10 to $100, or imprisonment of from 5 to 90 days, is provided for violations of the ordinance.

"In practically every instance these derrick scows can pass under all of the bridges devoted to street traffic," says Speier. "These boats are slow, consuming much valuable time in making the passage, and the ordinance will prove a big factor in relieving traffic congestion."

At the same time the derrick scow ordinance is presented the one relating to the renting of canoes to persons under 16 years old will come before the Council. This latter ordinance is to guard against drowning of children by inefficient handling of river canoes. A fine of from $10 to $200 and imprisonment of from 5 to 60 days will be the penalty for those renting this type of craft to youngsters.

GAME WILL BE EXHIBITED

Warden Finley to Display Birds and Fish at Pendleton Fair.

Game Warden Finley is preparing an extensive exhibit of game birds and fish to send to the Umatilla-Morrow County Fair, which opens in Pendleton next Monday. All the varieties of state game birds will be taken to Pendleton Sunday in the Warden's special fish car, 36 crates containing more than 100 birds constituting the bird exhibit. China pheasants, Reeves pheasants, Japanese pheasants, golden pheasants, native pheasants, native grouse, bob-whites and all other varieties of such game birds as are to be found at the State Game Farm at Corvallis are included.

Specimens of salmon and trout fry will be included and the car will take on a load of specimens from the hatchery at Bonneville. A full hatchery exhibit, showing the propogation and development of game fish in general will be in evidence.

The special fish car will leave Portland Sunday morning, for Corvallis, where Superintendent Gene M. Simpson, of the state game farm, will place the birds on board, then the car will return to Portland Sunday evening, stopping at Bonneville for the fish, and leave that night for Pendleton.

The state game farm has on hand more than 2500 birds of the game variety. There are approximately 2000 China pheasants, 100 pairs of Reeves pheasants and 75 pairs of goldens. It is not generally known that Game Warden Finley bought out the exhibit belonging to Mr. Simpson and hired him as superintendent of the farm. Mr. Simpson has one of the largest bird farms in the United States.
