

MORE ALASKA COAL CLAIMS CANCELLED

Seattle Capitalists in Body Affected by Commissioner Dennett.

LAND NEAR CUNNINGHAMS

Vast Wealth of Property Advertised Through Oil Company in Which Claimants Also Were Interested—Irregularities Alleged.

JUNEAU, Alaska, Sept. 23.—Commissioner of the General Land Office Fred Dennett has ordered cancellation of the 13 Lippy-Davis coal claims in the Berling River district.

The claims were located by Mayor George P. Cotterill, of Seattle. Thompson, Lippy, the Seattle millionaire, known all over the United States because of his participation in golf tournaments; Clark Davis, a former clergyman; John Schram, Adolph Beehring, John L. Mossley, Otto E. Sauter, Henry R. Harriman, Charles W. Davis, A. B. Hunt, all of Seattle, and Cleo Davis and R. J. Mahoney, deceased.

The charges that were filed against the claims in June, 1911, and which Commissioner Dennett found were sustained, were that the locations and subsequent coal land declaratory statement filings therefore were not made respectively by the original locators in their own interest and for their own use and benefit, but under an agreement or understanding that, after patent was obtained, consolidation of the various interests and locations would be effected for the general use and benefit of the locators and for the use and benefit of a corporation or association, by the locators with others, formed or to be formed, and further, that no mine or mines were opened on any of the several tracts located.

The Lippy-Davis claims are situated 27 miles northeast of Katalla, adjoining the Cunningham claims on the east, and are declared in the prospectus and advertising matter of the Alaska Petroleum & Coal Company to be of enormous value, containing coal as good as that of the Pocahontas field.

The locators are all stockholders in the Alaska Petroleum & Coal Company, which was organized for the stated purpose of prospecting for oil in the Katalla country, and to which all the locators transferred their coal claims. The Controller Bay & Berling River Coal Railway Company was organized by stockholders in the Alaska Petroleum & Coal Company for the purpose of developing the Lippy-Davis coal claims.

Stock in this railroad was sold in many cities in the United States, and it was said that French capitalists had agreed to buy the bonds of the railway when the Government filed charges against the coal claims and thus put an end to the negotiations. The railway company owns 1320 acres of waterfront on Controller Bay and has filed on a right of way from Controller Bay to the coal field.

LOST RIVER DAM COMPLETE

Waters to Be Diverted Into Klamath for Irrigation.

KLAMATH FALLS, Sept. 23.—(Special.)—The dam built by the Reclamation Service across Lost River, to divert the waters of that river into the Klamath River, was completed this week by the placing of the flash boards on top of the dam. These flash boards will force a larger amount of water through the diversion channel in high water, but are not to be used in low stages of the river.

The buildings for the caretaker and for storing and housing machinery have been completed, and the slopes of the banks prepared for seeding. The grass on these slopes will be irrigated with water pumped by a small gas engine.

The effect of the diversion this season on the level of Tule Lake has not been so great as was anticipated, because the diversion channel was not ready for the spring floods and because the rainfall this year has been excessive. This has brought a heavy runoff into the lake aside from the water carried through Lost River. There has been a considerable recession of the waters of the lake, notwithstanding these facts.

SHERIFF CATCHES HIS MAN

Chehalis Official Arrests Man on Life-Threatening Charge.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Sheriff Urquhart has returned from Morton with Barney Clowers, whom he arrested for threatening the life of his employer with a rifle. Clowers was employed by C. C. Thompson in a sawmill at Morton as an engineer. Thursday trouble arose between the men, Clowers declaring Thompson had defrauded him of some money. On Friday Clowers and Thompson met on the street, when the former began abusing his employer, according to the officers. Thompson knocked him down, whereupon Clowers went home and, after securing his gun, began searching for his enemy. Sheriff Urquhart was sent for and after a search found his man heading for Elbe. Clowers had been given a tip that Sheriff Urquhart was after him and was attempting to get out of Lewis County, thinking the Sheriff's jurisdiction did not go beyond its limits.

Klickitat Republicans Refuse to Indorse Third Party Candidate.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—A meeting of the Klickitat

County Republican central committee was held at the Courthouse in Goldendale, Charles F. Kayser, ex-member of the State Legislature from Klickitat, being elected chairman, and M. McNelis, of Lytle, acting as temporary secretary. A vote of thanks was tendered Dr. Frank H. Collins, Goldendale; Peter Ahola, Centerville; William Warner, Alderdale; and Amos E. Coley, Goldendale. No attempt will be made to oust candidates who have Bull Moose tendencies from the regular Republican ticket, but they will not receive the endorsement of the committee. Any funds coming into the hands of the committee for campaign purposes will be used in furthering the interests of the National Republican ticket headed by William Howard Taft. The present plan of the committee is to bring speakers from the outside into Klickitat to stump the county for President Taft.

AGED SISTERS HONORED

CHARITY WORKERS OBSERVE 50TH ANNIVERSARY.

Friends Join in Jubilee Ceremonies at House of Providence in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—Fifty years ago today two Sisters of Charity of Providence, Mary Raphael and Mary Hyacinth, took the vows of the order. Today this anniversary was celebrated at the House of Providence.

September 23, 1862, Sister Mary Raphael, now 73 years old, and Sister Mary Hyacinth, now 69, took their vows in Montreal and came at once to Vancouver, where they have made their headquarters for the past half century. Sister Hyacinth founded the missions at De Smet, Idaho; the Sisters of Providence Hospital at Colville, Wash.; the Cowitz Providence Mission and the Tualupa Indian Mission. Many times she took long stage rides and in many other ways endured the hardships of the pioneer days in the Pacific Northwest.

Sister Raphael has been ill a great deal of the time and for the past 30 years she has never set foot on soil, being confined to her room in Providence Academy, where she has met and made a large number of friends.

This anniversary at the House of Providence the St. Joseph's Sewing Society called on Sister Hyacinth, and Sister Superior served refreshments.

In St. James' Catholic Church this morning at 9 o'clock, solemn high mass was celebrated, Rev. Father Chapeton, of Piedmont parish preaching the sermon. At 10 o'clock a banquet was served in Providence Academy, the children being given a feast in commemoration of the golden jubilee of the two venerable Sisters of Charity. The banquet was held in the chapel, which was filled to overflowing by admiring friends of the two aged Sisters. The two Sisters were deeply touched at the reverence shown them.

THE ABOVE STATEMENT IS AN ACTUAL FACT. I PROVE IT

This remark would not be worth the time it takes to write it, if it were not TRUE.

IT IS TRUE. Read the balance of this advertisement and YOU WILL KNOW THAT IT IS TRUE.

Three of the best-known real estate men of this city, a year ago, were called upon to APPRAISE THE VALUE OF WESTOVER TERRACES.

In their report they gave the values there as follows—MINIMUM, $1.00 PER SQUARE FOOT; MAXIMUM, $1.25 PER SQUARE FOOT.

Placing the minimum of $1.00 per square foot on every lot, none having less than 5000 square feet, the MINIMUM PRICE OF EVERY LOT WOULD BE $5000. And, A YEAR AGO, AT THAT.

Some of these lots have SIX THOUSAND, FIVE HUNDRED SQUARE FEET AND MORE. Many, more than a majority, have over 5000 SQUARE FEET.

The REGULAR PRICES of these lots range from $5000 to $6500.

WESTOVER TERRACES can be reached on hard-surfaced pavements all the way from town.

Frank B. Kellogg, President American Bar Association and Famous Trust Prosecutor.

"The period of political agitation and industrial unrest is waning from a natural cause—that is our National prosperity. Good times, good crops and good business ought to be a panacea for the political ills that have been with us."

Such is the message of cheer and optimism that Frank B. Kellogg, of St. Paul, president of the American Bar Association and "trust buster" for the Federal Government, gave last night upon his arrival in Portland from Seattle.

Mr. Kellogg declared that the American people as a whole have ever held the judiciary in the highest esteem and that what criticisms had been of the courts have had the effect to place the judiciary on a still higher plane.

Danger Seen in Recall "Reform does not come through blare of trumpets and the greatest danger that ever threatened the integrity of our Government involves the strict independence of the judiciary, for you cannot take that independence away without ending our Government," said Mr. Kellogg in referring to the recall propaganda.

"I repeat what I said before the Seattle Bar Association last Saturday night that the judiciary is the corner stone of our American Government. If it is necessary to decide between man and man, how much more necessary is it in solving our Government disputes. In this movement, we
