

GLASSING IN SIGHT

"Slate" to Be Fought at Bull Moose Meeting Today.

CONVENTION OPENS AT 2

Charles W. Ackerson to Lead Fight Against Cut-and-Dried County Ticket "Cooked-Up" at Recent Nocturnal Sessions.

Any attempt to slip through a "slate" of candidates at the Multnomah County Bull Moose convention this afternoon will be fought by friends of Charles W. Ackerson, who yesterday announced that he would be a candidate for county nomination for County Commissioner.

The supporters of Ackerson are apprehensive that the "leaders" in the third party, as a result of several nocturnal conferences that have been held in the last week, will go into the convention prepared to give a fair exhibition of "steam-roller" tactics.

"Even Break" is Asked. "I am against anything that looks like a 'slate,' and will be opposed to any nominating committee or prearranged list of candidates from any source," said Mr. Ackerson yesterday. "All nominations should be made from the floor of the convention and every aspirant for a nomination given an even break. It is up to the younger element within the party to attend the convention and insist upon such a course."

Although the names of several men have been suggested in connection with the different places on the ticket, it is more than likely that when the ticket is finally made up there will be almost entirely of nominees on the Republican and Democratic tickets who will be given the endorsement of the Bull Moose organization. This county will be the only one at all acceptable to that faction within the party that is opposed to naming any county ticket.

Gavel Falls at 2 P. M. The convention will be a mass meeting of citizens and will be called to order in the Washington High School building at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Levi W. Myers, member of the state committee from this county, will convene the assembly and preside until a temporary organization is effected.

Any legal voter who is in sympathy with the Roosevelt Progressive party movement is eligible to attend the convention as a delegate and participate in the proceedings. Prominent Bull Moose supporters predicted that the attendance at the convention would reach 500.

HARRY HARDIN IS SOUGHT Police Would Run Down Alleged Clew—$1000 Reward Issued.

To set at rest a suspicion in relation to the murder of Harry G. Barr, a clew in which they have at no time placed any reliance, Detectives Vaughn and Retherland, of the police department, made an automobile trip yesterday to Canby, south of Oregon City, in search of Harry Hardin, who was reported to have been seen there. Hardin, a chauffeur, was at one time in Barr's employ and he was the owner of a sweater similar to the blood-stained one found on the day following the crime, in a lodging-house at First and Salmon streets.

The search for the man was fruitless. A similar report had been received previously from Salem, but the suspect was found to be another man. So far as the police are concerned, the desire to find Hardin is merely that he may be eliminated from the case, as they believe that he had nothing to do with the crime.

George Barr posted yesterday an offer of a reward of $1000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer or murderers. This action was taken following a refusal of the County Court to act, on the ground that it was useless to pursue criminals when their conviction and punishment are no longer in the power of the present in Oregon. The offer of the reward is looked to bring forward much evidence which hitherto has been withheld.

KIDNAPING SUIT HOVERING

Des Moines, Iowa, Woman Says ex-Husband Stole Their Daughter.

In an effort to regain possession of Eva Summers, her 12-year-old daughter, who was given into her custody by an Iowa court, Mrs. R. H. Hughes, of Des Moines, Ia., has been seeking William Summers, her former husband, since April, 1911, when he was reported to have fled to this country. Mrs. Hughes is here to take whatever legal steps may be necessary to force him to let her have the child.

Deputy Juvenile Officer Walter C. Perkins, searching the city for Summers with the intention of citing him to bring the girl into juvenile court.

When Summers and his wife were divorced in Des Moines, two years ago, the mother was given the custody of two daughters and Summers was given the boy, now 14 years old. Eva, the younger of the two girls, was sent to the Iowa Children's Home in Des Moines. She had, according to Mrs. Hughes, Summers kidnaped her.

After some time Summers was located in another part of Iowa and papers were served upon him, requiring that he appear in court with the girl. Instead of doing so he left and came to Portland, it is said. Mrs. Hughes was unaware of his whereabouts until a short time ago.

THIRD PARTY NOT COURTED

Benjamin Brick, Democrat, Says He Did Not Ask Moose Indorsement.

Benjamin Brick, Democratic nominee for the State Legislature, yesterday entered a denial to the report that he had solicited the indorsement of the Bull Moose convention today. It is known, however, that if any of the Democratic nominees on the legislative ticket are indorsed by the third party at today's convention Mr. Brick will be one of them.

At the same time Mr. Brick yesterday furnished the Oregonian with a copy of the letter he sent the Bull Moose "smoke 'em out" committee in answer to their letter asking an indorsement of the third party principles.

"I am most honored to receive your letter of recent date and beg to say that I am in hearty accord with all parties who desire good government. I, for one, am a candidate for State Legislature on the Democratic ticket. I cannot see wherein I am in discord with your party or any other party desiring good common sense legislation. I assure you that if you choose to indorse my candidacy I will be most pleased to accept with the understanding that, if elected, I will support any measure brought in assembly which, in my opinion, will prove meritorious, not considering the politics of the man introducing the bill."

"Believing that this is all you can desire of a candidate and hoping this answers your letter fully," etc.

CITY GARAGE IS PLANNED

Large Saving Possible in Purchase of Supplies is Belief.

The abandoned city reservoir at Sixth and Grant streets is soon to be converted into a horseshoeing and automobile repair shop and garage for the city if the plans of Mayor Ruhlsholt and Councilman Burgard are not balked. The Mayor has asked the City Engineer and Building Inspector to make an estimate on the cost of a roof and floor for the structure.

"We are going to see if we cannot cut down the expense of keeping city automobiles," declared the Mayor, after making an investigation trip to the site of the proposed municipal automobile establishment. "By buying oil and gasoline in large quantities we can save about $5 a barrel on oil and from 2 to 4 cents a gallon on gasoline."

"In one year we can save the cost of fixing up the city's garage and repair shop," predicts Councilman Burgard.
