Pittsburg Man Strenuously Denies He Offered Million for Senatorship but Admits He "Goldbricked" M. S. Quay.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1 .- William Flinn, of Pittsburg, Roosevelt Progressive National committeeman in Pensylvania, and Elon H. Hooker, of New York, treasurer of the Roosevelt Progressive National committee, gave the Senate campaign expenditures com mittee some inside facts today about the primary expenses of the Roosevelt campaign for the Republican nomination at Chicago.

Mr. Flinn answered the charges Sen ator Penrose had made last August that Mr. Flinn offered $1,000,000 to him and Israel W. Durham in 1904 for the Pennsylvania Senatorial appointment to succeed M. S. Quay and that in the same fight Mr. Flinn exchanged telegrams with John D. Archbold, of the

NATIVE AMERICAN GATHERING SUGGESTED FOR 1913.

Idea Is to Bring Five Delegates From Every Tribe on Continent to Interstate Fair.

SPOKANE, Wash, Oct. L-(Spe cial.)-An Indian congress may be one of the leading features of the Interstate Fair of 1913, for which plans are already being made. Tentative plans discussed by Lewis Hurtig, originator of the suggestion, and Manager Robert H. Cosgrove, if carried out, will mean that from 3000 to 4000 Indians, repre-senting every tribe on the North American Continent, will be represented with delegates.

"I have taken the matter of a gigan tic Indian congress up with the fair management," stated Lewis Hurtig, superintendent of concessions, today. "They look with favor on the sugges-tion and I believe it can be made a feature of world-wide importance as the last gathering of the Indian clans. "We will ask every tribe in America to send flye delegates at the expense of the management and at a conserva tive estimate I believe that almost every Indian for a radius of 500 miles will make the Spokane Interstate Fair his Mecca. There should be 3000 or 4000 Indians on the grounds. We will
