EUGENE IS HOST TONIGHT

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL GIVE DINNER TO R. E. STRAHORN.

Announcement Expected From Railroad Chief Regarding Future Extensions in Valley.

Robert E. Strahorn, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway Company, is to be tendered a banquet and complimentary reception at Eugene tonight. Mr. Strahorn went to Eugene last night and was accompanied by a number of heads of departments, among them being Ralph E. Moody, chief counsel, and R. T. Guppy, chief engineer. The dinner will be tendered by the Commercial Club of Eugene, and was the inspiration of John McGladry, president of the organization. It is intended as a welcome to the new electrical railroad which will take over all the West Side lines heretofore operated by the Southern Pacific Company and which is expected to prove of the utmost importance in the development of the upper end of the Willamette Valley. The Portland, Eugene and Eastern is now engaged in electrifying the tracks and in building grades for its new roads in the vicinity of Eugene and through the Molalla Valley. The former will make an entirely new district available to Eugene and Corvallis merchants, while the Molalla district will

FIGHT FOR CHILD IS ON

FATHER AND GRANDMOTHER ENGAGE IN SUIT.

Agreement Said to Have Been Entered Into, Prior to Mother's Death, for Infant's Care. In answer to the habeas corpus proceeding by which Lee Vredenburg hopes to secure possession of Eunice May Vredenburg, his year-old daughter, Mrs. L. M. Hiatt, grandmother of the baby, asserted at a hearing before County Judge Cleeton yesterday that the father had agreed verbally at the time his wife was Mrs. Hiatt's daughter, child a year ago, to let her keep the child as long as it lived. Vredenburg denied this. C. M. Idlemann, attorney for Mrs. Hiatt, urged that this promise constituted a contract which the father should not be allowed to break at will. Mrs. Hiatt said she had provided for the baby for 13 months without assistance from Vredenburg. Attorney Rondeau, for Vredenburg, asserted that if this is true, Mrs. Hiatt can recover from the father by civil suit, but contended that even if the contract testified to by the grandmother was entered into it would not be binding on the father. Mr. Idlemann said that he had not time to ascertain if there are authorities in support of his position. Judge

MANY INDICTMENTS FOUND

Mayhem, Embezzlement and Immoralities Among Crimes Charged.

Charles Frederick is accused in an indictment returned by the grand jury yesterday of mayhem. He is alleged to have torn off a portion of an ear and mutilated the nose of Ethel Frederick, his wife. M. A. Blomhard was indicted on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses, the allegation being that he represented to George H. Lewis that there were no labor and material liens against a lot in Beaumont which he transferred to Lewis for $600. It afterwards developed, the indictment sets forth, that there were liens against the property to the extent of $1286. Other true bills were found as follows: H. R. Butler, larceny by embezzlement of $675 from Margaret Camelle; Fred Hinkle, placing his wife, Stella Hinkle, in a disorderly house; and William Dasey, contributing to the delinquency of a 13-year-old girl. Not true bills were returned with respect to the following: Wilfred Adams and Esther Delmore,

SURE WAY TO REGAIN ROBUST BLOOM OF YOUTH

(From Woman's Tribune.)

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, are rarely seen. How to preserve them, that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary mercurized wax works wonders in this direction. It actually gives a new surface to the skin, restoring that marvelous girlish color and softness in a remarkable manner. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any druggist, will convert a faded, worn-out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. No special skill is necessary in applying the wax; it being smeared on at night like cold cream and washed off in the morning. To remove wrinkles, or delay their formation, a face bath made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered saxolite in 1/2 pt. witch hazel will be found wonderfully efficacious. This tones up relaxed skin, causing it to remain firm and unstrained. Adv.
