MILLER SAYS UNION BOUGHT DYNAMITE

Federal Prosecutor Reads Extracts From Entries in "Green Checkbook."

RYAN DIRECTLY ACCUSED

Executive Board of Ironworkers De clared to Have Met Regularly to Appropriate Money for Cost of Explosives.

INDIANAPOLIS. Oct. 4. - Extracts from a little green check book in which the executive board of the Interna-tional Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers is charged with having kept an account of money paid out for dynamiting jobs were read at the trial of the defendants in the "dynamite cases" today.

District Attorney Miller told the jury that the executive board met regularly and appropriated money for the expense of explosives. The money, he said, was paid by checks signed by President Ryan. On stubs read, "ex-pended for organization purposes, $233.

It would be shown, Mr. Miller said, that Ortic E. McManigal received that sum for an explosion at Clinton and that "the whole system of explosions throughout the country was carried on with the approval and support of the officials and executive board of the union."

"We will show," said Mr. Miller, "that the finances of the Iron Workers Union were fliggled and that funds were used in buying explosives. McNamara wrote to Ryan suggesting that the constitutional provision for publishing the accounts in the union magazine be suspended, that no outsider might learn what was being done with the money. Ryan put it up to the union's executive board, which sent out a circular letter Ryan put it up to the union's executive hoard, which sent out a circular letter announcing it was considered wise to suspend payment. This shows the executive hoard members to be parties to the conspiracy. Before a strike was called there were no explosions, but as soon as it was called they began."

Mr. Miller said it would be shown that Moulton H. Davis, of Westchester, Pa., was one of the men who promoted explosions in Pennsylvania. Davis formerly was an executive board member.

Police Judge Accused. Mr. Miller read a letter in which Tom Mr. Miller read a letter in which Tom Bernhardt, secretary of a local union at Cincinnati, was alleged to have said a police judge in Cincinnati had dismissed charges against union officials so often that he said: "Don't let this bunch come before me again, or I'll-have to do something."

In the letter Mr. Miller said Bernhardt asked that a "stranger be sent to Cincinnati to blow up the Harrison-Avenue viaduct."

When McManigal hesitated about blowing up jobs in Peoria, according to

HOW BLOOD IS MADE.

The liquids and the digested foods in the alimentary canal pass through the wall of the canal into the blood. This process is called absorption and takes place chiefly from the small intestine. After absorption the blood carries the food through the body, and each cell takes from the blood the food it needs.
