Colonel Approves Senator's Work as Intermediary for Standard Oil.

ARCHBOLD IS DISTRUSTED

In Telegram to Oregon Man, Roose velt Says Oil Official's Sincerity Doubted, but Senator's Action Is Sanctioned.

Backing up his indorsement of Senator Bourns, delivered at the Multnomah Hotel, in this city, on his recent visit to Portland, Colonel Receiveth has sent Senator Bourne a telegram in which he undertakes to excuse the senior Senator from this state for his extraordinary activity as intermediary for the Standard Oil Company when that corporation was threatened in 1908 with presecution by the Federal Government for violating the Sherman anti-trust law.

trust law.

Last Saturday, two days before he was shot at Milwaukee, Mr. Roosevelt sent Senator Bourne the following telegram:

"Your efforts toward the settlement of the Standard Oil litigation referred to in my letter published before the Senatorial investigating committee in no shape or way justifies the impression that you are an employe or agent of the Standard Oil Company.

Actions Held Proper. You asked for an interview and arranged it as you had an absolute right to do and exactly in the same fashion as other Congressmen of high character as other Congressmen of high character were continually and properly making requests for or arranging interviews between me and the heads of big corporations or the heads of labor unions or labor leaders or leaders in the industrial world. After these interviews had continued a sufficient length of time I grew to feel from Mr. Archbold's ettitude that it was advisable that further interviews should be held directly and without intermediaries between me or the Standard Oli counsel and the Attorney-General.

"But all your actions at the inter-forts were entirely along the line of serving the general welfare of the country as a National public servant who desired to help bring about the termination of the suit in the interests of the country and to do this as an incident of securing the co-operation of the large financial interests of the country in getting legislation which would make all the big financial interests responsible and accountable to the police force of the Government.

"I do not believe that at that time and under the then existing conditions it was possible to secure a better settlement from the Standard Oil sq far as the Government was concerned than was actually obtained because I do not trust Mr. Archbold's sincerity, but your trust Mr. Archbold's sincerity, but your shallows the large were Southern Oregon, Mrs. Grace Holmes, Ashland; Eastern Oregon, Mrs. Almira

You and I agreed then upon a policy to which all sensible men have since come, the policy of con-trolling the trusts by administrative action in the exercise of the police tivities as intermediary for the Rocke-feller corporations. The text of those letters follows:

Sagamore Hill, Feb. 23, 1905.—My Dear Senator: I am sorry I could not see you today, but I do not like to see anyone on Sunday on business if it can be avoided.

As to what you told me the other evening about the Standard Oil people, do remember that, while any proposals they make will be considered in an entirely frank and honorable spirit, yet these proposals they make will be considered in an entirely frank and honorable spirit, yet these proposals they make the conditioned upon absolute obedience to the law and must be laid in detail before the atterney-General and Frank B. Keilogs before it would be possible for me to express any opinion on them. I know you understand this, but I want you to be sure that the Standard Oil people do not minunderstand it and do not get the impression that it was my desire or by my initiative that negotiations have been entered into with thhem by you or by anyone, or that there will be any failures to lay the matter in full dotail before Mr. Bonaparts and Mr. Keilogg. With regards, believe me, sincerely yours. THEODORE ROOSEVELLT.

Oyster Eay, N. Y. July S, 1905.—My Dear Senator, let me repeat in writing what I have said again and again to Mr. Archived and to you and what I stated at much lensth in our interview of last Monday. In my judgment, it is not only a waste of time, but imdivinable to try to carry on negotiations through you as intermediary.

Let the Standard Oil lawyers, any or all of them as Mr. Archivid or Mr. Rockefeller or anyone else may choose, decide as to the course they wish to follow, and then communicate direct to Mr. Kellogs, and I furnished you with a copy of it. You now inform Mr. Loeb that this is not specific nough. It was not meant to be specific. It was not meant to be specific. tian Temperance Union committee, much the same being true of the executive committee. One interesting plan discussed favorably was the proposed erection, in memory of Frances Wil-lard, of a drinking fountain in one of the most important and most central points of the capital. It was proposed that the idea be made a National one, the fountain to cost about $25,000. This proposal will be further discussed. Questions and discussions concerning the rules and by-laws constituted the nain business.
The evangelistic conference throughout the day was well attended. After a meeting of the evangelistic board, a service of prayer and praise was fol-lowed by addresses from state repre-sentatives and preachers, state-evan-gelists and by the pastors of local churches. The pastors spoke on personal evangelism for the overthrow of the liquor traffic.
