LOS ANGELES, Oct. 2.—(Special.)—The Beavers took the long end of the series with the Angels by walking away with both games of a doubleheader from Captain Dillon's men today at Washington Park. Scores: Morning game 7-4, afternoon slugfest 8-4.

Dillon's white uniformed boys who, by the way, still believe they are in the running for the pennant, were determined to land both games and put up a battle royal in each contest. But the efforts went for naught against the heavy slugging of the lads from the North coupled with the well-nigh superb pitching of the two stars of the Beavers' staff, Gregg and Harkness.

Though replete with errors and heavy hitting, the afternoon game was by far the prettier of the two contests, and 2500 fans were out to bask in the sunshine and whoop it up.

Early Lead Is Taken.

Harkness and Howley were selected as the batteries for Portland, while Tozer was picked for mound duty and Boles behind the plate for the Angels.

Early in the game the Beavers piled up a lead that was not overcome until the seventh, when Dillon's men started a rally and got to Harkness for three hits and two runs, errors being partially responsible for the two diamond circuits. The threatened slaughter, however, was stopped by the entire team touching earth again and the Angels were cut off without another run, despite their encouraging prospects.

The seventh was the only moment that the Beaver pitcher was in danger, Tozer, however, was in bad several times, the visitors getting to him for 15 hits. Harkness was hit freely, but at only the one critical point.

Victory was within reach of either team throughout the seventh and eighth innings, but Portland snatched the laurels by chasing four men across the plate in the ninth.

Portland Starts Slugfest.

Zero was the score board marking until the third, when the Northerners started something. Four bunched hits, an error and remarkable base running netted three runs. In the same inning the Angels came back with two.

In the fifth another blue uniform crossed the plate and a second one was cut off by Daley's remarkable throw to plate, putting his man out on a close decision.

Portland's half of the ninth, the period that marked the complete blowup of Dillon's hurler and cinched the game for the Beavers after a bad start, became a real old-fashioned slugfest.

With Chadbourne down on a short fly, Krueger, who had been shifted to center field in the seventh when Doane was placed at short, batting for Klawitter, hit to second. Page muffing the ball and then juggling with it as a sort of a pastime until the batter reached first safely. Fitzgerald was safe when another Angel took his eye off the ball. Norton singled, filling the bases.

Mighty little Baker then walked unconcernedly up to the plate and even more unostentatiously nearly knocked the cover off an easy one peddled to him, bringing in three runs and giving himself a little joy sprint to second. On Doane's fly to left field Lober threw low in trying to catch Baker. The ball passed by the Angel backstop and Baker trotted in. Scores:

San Francisco Takes Long End of Series From Commuters.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—San Francisco broke even with Oakland in today's two games, winning the series four to three. The morning game was won by San Francisco, 3 to 1, and the afternoon by Oakland, 7 to 1.

Errors by Gregory and Cook gave San Francisco two of its runs in the opening game. Each side was held to three hits.

Pernoll pitched a good game for Oakland in the afternoon match, allowing San Francisco only four hits. Henley was wild, and allowed six runs and nine hits in six innings. He was replaced by Fanning in the seventh. Scores:

ARELLANES PUZZLES TIGERS

Vernon Makes Only 2 Hits; Senators Win 2 to 1 on Kane's Error.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 20.—Arellanes held Vernon to two hits and would have won a shutout had his team played errorless ball. Heister's error on Kane's slow grounder allowed Brown to score from third in the sixth after he had registered Vernon's first hit and advanced to third on a passed ball and an infield out. Cheek's home run in the third gave the Senators their first score. In the seventh, Swain drew a walk and went to third when Baum threw the ball into the bleachers in an attempt to catch the runner off first. Swain was run down when Heister hit a grounder to Letschi, Heister going to second on the play. Orr's single to center scored Heister from second when Kane fell in throwing to the plate, the ball going three feet wide, enough to let Heister slide in safely with the run which gave Sacramento a 2 to 1 victory.

Vernon won the first four games of the series and lost the last two. Score:

HOLLADAY CLUB WINS

M'LOUGHLIN ELEVEN IS DEFEATED, 12 TO 7.

Stiles Is Star of Game and Turns Loss Into Victory by Touchdown Just at Close.

The Holladay Club, an East Side organization, made good its claim to the independent football championship of the city yesterday on Columbus club field, when Ted Stiles, star fullback, broke through the McLoughlin Club right tackle just before the final whistle and turned a 7 to 6 defeat into a 12 to 7 victory over the West Side rivals.

Stiles was easily the star of the game. He made most of the Holladay yardage, and also negotiated the initial touchdown in the second quarter, when the McLoughlins also scored. Toomey made the McLoughlin score.

McLoughlin showed itself to be adept in recovering fumbles and punts, making its only score in this manner and keeping Holladay from scoring the winning touchdown earlier in the game. Toomey scored after recovering a blocked punt, while three times in the third quarter McLoughlin picked up fumbles which Holladay made when but a few yards from the McLoughlin goal.

The game was evenly contested during the first half. The third period was distinctly Holladay's, but on account of the fumbles McLoughlin began to get the upper hand toward the end. The fourth period was McLoughlin's for the most part, until Holladay recovered its own punt on McLoughlin's 20-yard line. Here Humphreys, Flaherty and Stiles brought the ball within 15 yards of the coveted line with less than a minute to play. Stiles made the touchdown, despite a blow on the head which left him half dazed.

Troy, the Holladay center, showed his class by picking up several stray fumbles and punts. Irwin, the Multnomah Club end, also played a fine game. Dueber and O'Hanlon showed prowess for McLoughlin.

The lineups:

SPORTING SPARKS

Captain Spee Hurlburt, of the Multnomah Club football squad, is hobbling around with a knee swathed in bandages. He sustained the injury early in Saturday's game against the Oregon Aggies, but gamely stuck at the job. Quarterback Rinehart tore the tendon on his little finger badly, but, outside of those two injuries, the squad came through pretty well for the first scrimmage.

* * *

The lightweight championship of England may change hands November 11, but the event is not attracting much attention here. Freddie Welsh and Matt Wells are booked to meet before the National Sporting Club of London for the Lord Lonsdale belt and a purse of $5000. Wells holds the title by virtue of a defeat of Welsh, but he showed very little last trip across, and it is thought Welsh will regain his old title.

Mrs. A. J. Snodgrass, mother of Fred Snodgrass, the New York outfielder, says she did not faint in a Los Angeles theater when the returns of the final game with Boston were flashed. 'I don't want my friends or anybody else to think I am a poor loser," said she. A statistician has figured it out that Snodgrass' muff in that game cost $29,514.32. The error made a difference of $1283 to each member of the Giants.

There will be no league games played in Havana this Winter, as American teams have invaded the Cuban metropolis. The New Orleans team of the Southern League is there now and others to go south are the Torontos of the International League, Cincinnati of the National League, the New York Giants and the Philadelphia Americans.

* * *

Litschi, the Vernon shortstop, is making a great bid for two-base-hit honors in the Coast League. Ivan Howard has supplanted Gus Hetling in the leadership, but his record of 44 is only one swat ahead of Hetling's and Litschi's. Coy of Oakland is third, with 40, then Kane 38 and Krueger 37. Kane is the leading three-base hitter with 13, and Ivan Howard is second with 11. Doane, Rodgers and Bancroft are tied with nine each.

* * *

Berry, the big Multnomah halfback who played a guard position last year, got into Saturday's game for only a few minutes, but he showed good ground-gaining ability. He runs strong and hits the line with a terrific impact. Berry played backfield at college.

QUARTET OF WHITMAN COLLEGE FOOTBALL STARS WHO WERE PROMINENT IN DEFEAT OF UNIVERSITY OF OREGON.

WHITMAN IS STRONG

Oregon Players Say Sons of Marcus to Be Feared.

BACKS FAST; LINE HEAVY

"Bill" Bailey, Tackle for Eugene, Is of Opinion That Coach Hahn's Men Will Defeat Both Pullman and Idaho.

That Whitman College has a football team which will be a serious contender for the University of Washington's four-year-old championship pennant, is the positive declaration made by members of the University of Oregon squad. The Eugene boys spent Sunday in Portland recovering from the results of a 20-0 beating dealt out by the Missionaries.

"Their backfield is a corker and the line big, strong and aggressive," declared "Bill" Bailey, the 230-pound Oregon tackle who opposed Clemen.

"We beat them last Fall by an 8-5 score, but they are 25 per cent stronger now. I think they will defeat both Idaho and Washington State College, whom they play Thanksgiving day and November 9, respectively."

Whitman Schedule Heavy.

Whitman also meets the Oregon Agricultural College, and this and the Multnomah and Washington games will give the fans a good line on the comparative strength of the two Oregon institutions. The Whitman-Corvallis game is scheduled for November 16 at Corvallis, the same day Oregon meets Washington at Seattle.

Whitman finished last in the conference in 1911, but the defeats were all close. Coach Hahn's scores were: Oregon 8, Whitman 5; Corvallis 5, Whitman 3; Idaho 5, Whitman 0; Washington State 11, Whitman 0. Whitman and Washington did not meet last year and no game is scheduled for this Fall.

Graduate Manager Geary, of Oregon, is another who rates Whitman highly. "Their line surprised us," said Manager Geary. "Of course, we were crippled by not having Parsons and Hall and by Fenton's injury in the first half, but we expected to have an edge on the scrimmage line. Their backfield is made up of sprinters, and they certainly ripped through us sadly.

Crowd Is Not Large.

"We had the best of the second quarter, but they held us twice within the 10-yard line and kicked out of danger. Fine feeling prevailed; the crowd was not large; the ground dry, but a high wind bothered passes."

Coach Bender, of the Washington State College, walked up and down the sidelines taking notes for next Saturday's game at Eugene. Both he and Assistant Coach Moores, of Oregon, who took in the Pullman-Idaho game, believe the Eugene game Saturday should prove a battle royal, with honors a standoff.

* * *

When the Multnomah Club meets the Seattle All-Stars in the annual games in Portland and Seattle during the holidays, they will likely find stacked against them E. J. Hart, captain of the championship Princeton team last year, one of the greatest players that ever lived. Hart was on the Tiger eleven four years, last year being chosen by Walter Camp for the All-American, besides getting 34 out of 36 choices from Eastern experts. He formerly was a backfield man. Hart is living in Seattle learning the fish business.

* * *

In the Frenchman, Jacquot, the University of Washington appears to have discovered a second Muckleatone. In Saturday's 55 to 0 game with Bremerton the stocky right halfback proved a "bear" on the offense. On two plays he made close to 50 yards. Shiel and Gallagher, two Spokane high stars, played fullback, and Shiel, especially, gained much ground. Washington scored only one touchdown in the first quarter, so the Navy men must have put up a good battle until winded.

With the exception of left end, Grimm's old place, the Washington line was the same as last year. Clark, of Everett, and Hunt, filled the gap. In the entirely new backfield, Smith and Young alternated at quarter; Dorman and Shively at left half; Jacquot and Chapman at right half, and Shuel and Gallagher at full.

The University of Montana has called off its Western trip, and games with Gonzaga College, Washington State, Idaho and the Thanksgiving game with Willamette University, have been cancelled.

* * *

The Multnomah Club eleven may get a trip to San Francisco. Captain Hurlburt is in receipt of a letter from Harry Flatley, manager of the "Brooklyns," who says his organization is making a strenuous effort to revive the American game in California. He expects to be able to bring the "Winged M's" to San Francisco. Buck Anderson, the old Williams star, is coaching them.

* * *

Because the school boys refused to play unless each player was allowed two passes to the games, the Everett High football eleven has been disbanded for the season. The team claimed the state championship in 1911.

COLUMBIA CHANGES ITS LINE

Portland Academy Will Meet University Wednesday.

Columbia University will enter its next football game against Portland Academy on Wednesday with a greatly altered line. Coach Callicrate calls it an experiment, but to the fans it looks like an improvement. The backfield for the most part will be the same. Coach Hurlburt may also make some big changes in his Portland Academy squad.

The game will be played on Multnomah Field and will start promptly at 3:15 P. M.

The probable lineups are as follows:

Columbia—		Portland Academy—
Manson-Larson	L E.	Wood
Willis O'Brien	L T.	Porter
Kurtz	L G.	Mann, Krause
Philbin	C.	Giltner
Cooke	R G.	Bulgh
Chaperon	R T.	Shournberg, Gregor
Seufert, Lake	R B.	Kingsley

Minor Football.

Through the line plunging of Nelson and Block, the Albina Juniors yesterday captured the football game from the F. E. Watkins eleven, 10 to 0. The work of the Jones brothers for the Watkins team held the score down by their numerous tackles. The F. E. Watkins team intends to file a protest at the meeting of the Archer & Wiggins League Tuesday night, on the ground that the Albina team is overweight.

* * *

Lents, of the Archer & Wiggins League, claims a forfeit game from East Portland because the latter failed to show up at the appointed place.

* * *

The Mohawk eleven, which is beginning to loom up as one of the strongest in the Archer & Wiggins League, yesterday trounced Stephens, 32 to 0. Berg, the sturdy fullback of the Mohawk team, made two of the touchdowns. Earley made one, L. Crowe another and Barton a fifth. Passes figured in this game, something which was a negligible factor in the others.

The Christian Brothers football team defeated Beaverton High School Saturday at Beaverton, 45 to 17. Williams, of the Portland school, because of his work on the line, was one of the features of the game.

COAST FINISH CLOSE

Oakland Ahead, but Vernon Is Only Two Games Behind.

WEEK MAY BRING UPSET

Final Dash Will Find Oaks Clashing With Angels, Tigers With Beavers and Senators and Seals Contesting for Cellar Title.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

With just one week to go, the Pacific Coast League championship race is teeming with possibilities and tremors of excitement. Not even the 1911 dash to the wire was so close, for the result was practically assured 10 days in advance. Teeming is a good word this Fall, for, while Oakland looks pretty safe with its two-game lead, an upset is possible.

Counting seven games to go—there may be a postponement in addition to the seven—the Oaks are pretty sure of the pennant if they win the series from Los Angeles at home. If Sharpe's men take four of the seven, their percentage will be .586, which means that Hogan must cop six games of seven from Portland to win. If the Oaks lose the series, three games in seven, Vernon can win on a one-point margin by drubbing the Beavers five games in seven.

Meanwhile, San Francisco and Sacramento hook up in six games at Sacramento for the championship of Podunk.

Playing in the form displayed the last two weeks, the Vernons appear to many as formidable aspirants for the crown. Hogan's Tigers took seven of eight from Los Angeles and doubled up to Sacramento last week for four out of six. The Seals in the interim took a series from Oakland, the first of the year, by a count of four out of seven.

For the finishing week, however, Oakland seems to have the easy team, opposing, for Los Angeles has just lost the series to Portland, four games in seven, following the rout by Vernon. Portland, too, is apt to fight harder against Hogan than the Angels will against Oakland. Not that Dillon's crew will lay down—that assertion would be silly—but McCredie is strong for the Commuters and just as assertive against Vernon.

Had Vernon won the final game at Sacramento yesterday the Tigers would have had about an even shot for the burgee. It will take an unprecedented upset now, however, to beat the Oaks.

* * *

Buddy Ryan, ex-Portland home-run swatter, is finding himself so interested in the final Coast League games that he is sticking in San Francisco a week longer than he expected. When Buddy saw Bill Leard ejected by Umpire Hildebrand the other day it reminded him of something.

"I have come to the conclusion," said Buddy in the Bulletin, "that kicking at the umpire doesn't get you anything. I never heard a whimper out of the Philadelphia Athletics all last year, and it was a notorious fact that they got all the close ones. Mack gave strict orders to his players to let the umpire alone."

Buddy says the major league umpires will let the players kick all they want, just so they don't turn around and look at them so as to give the snap away to the crowd.

"Just as sure as you turn around, out of the game you go," explained the Cleveland gardener. "I did not see Eugene McGreevy work, but they say he got away nicely. Hildebrand will make good in the American League next season."

* * *

Carlisle and Bayless, of Vernon, and Rodgers and Howley, of Portland, are going like Kansas twisters down the home stretch. Rodgers, in 15 games, has missed only one day without a hit, having batted .404 during that period. He has banged out four doubles, one triple, one homer, and has swiped four bases. Bayless in the last 11 games has batted .395, including six doubles and one homer, and has stolen nine bases. Carlisle's batting record is .342 in the last 18 games—six doubles, one triple and four homers—and he has stolen eight bases. Howley has batted .333 in the last eight games.

* * *

Jack Wuffli will play second base for San Francisco next year if he remains with the club. According to San Francisco writers, Wuffli has picked up wonderfully in his fielding since being switched over to the keystone by Manager Reidy. The short throw suits him better than the peg from third.

* * *

Johnny Core, the 200-pound Los Angeles outfielder, wants Manager Dillon to let him pitch against Oakland this week. Core twirled in his college days and started out professionally as a flinger after leaving the University of Virginia, where he starred by beating both Yale and Princeton. His first paid job was flinging for Wheeling against New York in an exhibition game. Core drove out a triple with the bases full and the manager thereupon announced that Core would play regularly in the gardens. Driscoll and Lober, of the Angels, also broke in as pitchers.

* * *

Pittsburg and Boston showed the biggest gains over last year in the National League, Pittsburg picking up .60. The Boston Americans gained .182 over the 1911 record, and Washington .174. The finishing percentages are as follows:

New York evidently pays less salary to recruit pitchers than Cleveland. Jeff Tesreau, the Giant spitballer, received only $1800 this year, whereas Bill Steen, Krapp and Gregg signed contracts over $2100. Tesreau received a bonus of $1200 from McGraw for helping win the National League pennant, and in addition he gets his share of the world's series coin, so the season has been quite profitable.

MEN'S HATTERS, FURNISHERS AND CLOTHIERS

Straight talk to men who smoke jimmy pipes

The last two years has seen a revolution in pipe-smoking. Prince Albert came on deck with a brand new deal. Here was tobacco with wonderful flavor and fragrance, without a touch of rankness. Here was tobacco that burned long but burned free and steady, that held its fire close and never sogged but burned down to dust-fine ashes. Here was tobacco you could smoke all day and it wouldn't bite your tongue.

Prince Albert brought the first notable improvement in pipe tobacco since the days of Walter Raleigh. It has done more in two years to make the pipe popular than all other smoking tobaccos in a generation.

Now, men, we want you to know why Prince Albert is different, why it's in a class of its own. The reason is the Prince Albert process. This is what makes P. A. what it is.

This process was discovered by a well-known German scientist who dearly loved a pipe and experimented with smoking tobaccos as a side line. He knew he had hit upon a big thing in this process. So did we when this company acquired it. Experts were put on the job of perfecting it. The work took three years and cost a bunch of money. But we knew it would make a wonderful smoking tobacco and we had the faith to back it.

The United States Patent on this process was granted July 30, 1907.

Now, men, this is the showdown. If you haven't tried Prince Albert, try it now. Put it to the jimmy pipe test. Let the tobacco smoke for itself. Then you'll understand what this patent Prince Albert process means to you. You'll know why it has revolutionized pipe-smoking and started two men to smoking a pipe where one smoked before.

PRINCE ALBERT

You'll enjoy it rolled up into a cigarette as well as in a jimmy pipe. We tell you, men, here is the real cigarette—so different in freshness, fragrance and flavor that it runs the dust-brands and the chaff-brands right off the smoke map!
