

EX-WIFE SAYS SHE EARNED FOR HODGE

Woman Was Breadwinner for Most of 16 Years, Is Affidavit Made.

MOOSE NOMINEE ACCUSED

Gubernatorial Candidate in Washington Put Aside Early Helpmate for Another Woman, Is Charge.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.) In answer to the campaign of Robert T. Hodge, candidate for Governor on the Roosevelt Progressive ticket, in which he is telling his audience that he is a self-made man, and in which he dwells with emotional effect on his hard struggle upward from early poverty to his present prominence, the Post-Intelligencer tomorrow morning will publish an affidavit from Jennie Hodge, whom he recently divorced. This statement sets forth that during the greater part of their married life the wife was the breadwinner for the family. In part the affidavit, made October 8 in San Francisco, says: "I was married to Robert T. Hodge, June 22, 1895, in Comox, B. C., where he was at that time working in the coal mines. After three months here we moved to Kelso, a small town above Black Diamond, and from there to Black Diamond. During this time Bob worked but intermittently. When we got back to Black Diamond, my first baby, Willie, was about to be born, and we were penniless. Bob's folks sent him $50 for my benefit, and I mysteriously lost the money to Superintendent Morgan and born for a house for my child to be born in. Mr. Morgan, who knew me from the time I was a girl, gave me the house, and after a heart-to-heart talk with Bob, made him go to work. I borrowed enough furniture to make a sort of home.

Family Left Penniless, Wife Says. "We moved to the Clay Mines, where we stayed three months, then to Fire Clay. At this time Bob took it into his head to go to sea, and left me with any money and with my nursing baby. My parents supported me for a month, until he had enough seafaring, when he came back penniless.

Federal Court to Decide Chehalis Meets Obstacles in Establishing Gravity Water System.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—The Chehalis City Commission's plans to install a competing municipal gravity water system in this city have met with another setback, the serious nature of which will likely be determined in the Federal Court at Tacoma by Judge Cushman.

Immunity Is Charged. "While Bob was Deputy Sheriff, aside from failing to support me, he was generally kind to both me and the children, but once he became Sheriff his whole attitude changed, and other women attracted his attention until he had no time to be home. When he was running around town with other women he would telephone me that he had business that would compel him to sleep in the office.

Centralia Man Is Injured. CHEHALIS, Wash., Oct. 20.—(Special.)—H. W. Raught, of Centralia, was brought to Chehalis today from DuPont, where he was engaged in building a schoolhouse. On Wednesday night he walked off the depot platform at DuPont in the darkness and sustained partial paralysis of his right side, his arm being affected. Mr. Raught is also suffering internal injuries.

Settlers to See Fisher. Plea to Be Made for Irrigation of California Valley.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 20.—Walter L. Fisher, Secretary of the Interior, arrived today in Los Angeles for his first visit to Southern California. He was entertained by the Chamber of Commerce. A delegation of settlers from the Chuckawalla Valley will present tomorrow a plea to the Secretary for Government aid in irrigating the valley by means of Colorado River water. At night he will leave for the Imperial Valley to inspect the achievements of the Reclamation Service in the southernmost part of California, and will proceed from there to Yuma to inspect the Laguna dam project. Phoenix will be the next stop, and the Secretary will inspect the Roosevelt dam and confer with water users in the Salt River Valley.
