In the backfield Hahn has the wonderful Niles and the sprinters, Bloomquist and Kinder, and one or two others of equal merit.

If the Missionaries continue their 20-0 Meyers and Ted Easterly, catchers; start against Oregon in the coming games with Idaho, November 11; Wash-Ington State, November 18, and the Oregon Aggies, November 20, they stand a good show of being awarded the newspaper championship on a com-parative score basis. Idaho won last year, 5-0, Washington State 1-0 and the Corvallia eleven, 5-3.

Tigers to Play Dartmouth. Several semi-final games are, on tap in the East and Middle West the com-
