Or., to Organize Stock Company.

FLORENCE, Or., Oct. 27 .- (Special.) Steps are being taken toward the for-mation of a stock company to operate a fruit and vegetable cannery here. George Melvin Miller, of Eugene, who owns large interests here, has offered to put up a water-front building and give a five-year lease, rent free, if the company will put in the necessary ma-chinery and operate the cannery for this length of time.

The soil and climate here are well suited to the growing of berries and small fruits, as well as apples, prunes, etc. Huckleberries and evergreen blackberries abound here in a wild state, and, with the large amount of vegetables which can be easily grown here, this bids fair to be a very profit-able enterprise.
