BIG WATER MAIN BRING LAID.—Foreman Edward Gray, of the water department, is superintending the laying of a 15-inch water main. It will be extended to and through Lauraburst on north through Rose City Park across the Sandy boulevard into Albina. This is an important main as it will relieve considerable a district which is suffering rapidly. Another large water main is projected for North Portland on the Peninsula to supplement the water supply of that territory, and the plans are being figured out by the water engineer. This main will probably be laid in the early part of next year. This is one of the largest water mains projected on the East Side for the ensuing year. Mr. Gray wishes that the mains ordered for the present year will soon be all completed as far as the East Side is concerned, there being but about two weeks more of work on hand to complete the mains.

HYNDMAN EXILED FROM OREGON.—On promise that he will remain beyond the borders of Oregon for the term of his natural life, S. D. Hyndman, several times caught in money shortages, was freed in Municipal Court yesterday and will be out of the state before noon today. The action was taken upon a sentence suspended by the court two years ago. Hyndman's latest escapade was the embezzlement of a large sum, placed as high as $10,000, from Barde & Sons, who employed him as sales manager. He has been indicted on this charge. He was arrested twice for like offenses in 1910. The prisoner is a man of excellent parts and ability in his work, but a victim of drink and expensive habits. He has a wife and three children who will accompany him in his exile.

BIG DEAL CLOSED ON ELECTION DAY.—One of the incidents of the election, Tuesday, that is considered significant among investors was the completion of the details of the purchase of the quarter block at the southwest corner of Seventh and Yamhill streets. The property was bought by Otto M. Goldsmith, a New York capitalist, from the Unitarian Church for $250,000. Mr. Goldsmith had been negotiating for the purchase of the property for several weeks and when he had satisfied himself that single tax would be adopted, he decided to close the deal on election day. Early next year Mr. Goldsmith will improve the quarter block with a modern building. The sale of the property was negotiated by Slauson & Craig Company.

DEACONESSES AID SOCIETY MEETS.—The annual meeting of the Oregon conference Deaconesses' Aid Society will be held today at the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church. There will be two sessions, a morning and an afternoon one, the former beginning at 10 o'clock. At this time the main business, outside of routine and the reading of reports, will be the election of officers. Luncheon will be served at noon and will be followed by a social hour. In the afternoon a programme of interest will be given.

PORTLAND MINISTERS TO MEET.—To consider ways and means of furthering the campaign to oust saloons from all the residence districts of the city and confine them strictly to the fire limits, a special session of the members of the Portland general presbytery meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium at 7:30 o'clock tonight. All members of the association have been urged to be present and to bring lay friends from their respective churches to participate in the discussion and formulation of plans.

MCINTYRE FORMS GUILTY.—After a trial of nearly two days in the case of the United States against Frank McIntyre, charged with having introduced liquor on the Siletz Indian reservation, a jury returned a verdict of guilty within a few minutes and he will be sentenced by Judge Bean today. There is another charge against McIntyre for an assault with a dangerous weapon on Scott Lane, but it is probable that this charge will be dismissed if the sentence on the verdict is a severe one.

A COURSE OF THREE LECTURES BY Rt. Rev. Charles Scadding, illustrated by moving pictures and stereopticon, in Grace Memorial parish house, Weidner and East Memorial streets North, November 8, 15 and 22, at 8 P. M. (course tickets three lectures), $1; single admission, 50c. First, "Scotland With Memories of Her Rulers, Queens and Immortal words"; second, "Some Cathedrals and Churches of France"; third, "The Church in America From Jamestown to Alaska, Va. Oregon."

WOMAN FOURSOME GUilty.—Ethel Julliane, under indictment on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of Mary Hill, aged 15, was found guilty by a jury in Circuit Judge Kavanagh's court yesterday. L. J. Willis, her co-defendant, pleaded guilty and testified against her. Under the law the woman may be sentenced up to a year in the County Jail and fined $1000. Judge Kavanagh has not fixed the time for passing sentence yet.

BETH ISRAEL SERVICES ANNOUNCED.—"Democratic" services by Rabbi Wise's topic at Beth Israel tonight at 8 o'clock. Services tomorrow at 10:30 A. M. The evening Bible class will meet Tuesday instead of Wednesday at 8 o'clock. All women are welcome. The music will be in charge of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEMBERS MEET TODAY.—Owing to the fact that business of an important character is to be brought up at the meeting, members of the Portland Woman's Club are requested especially to attend this afternoon. Above all a large attendance is desired. After the meeting an interesting programme will go on.

PORTLAND BRANCH TO BE ORGANIZED.—Mrs. W. B. Swape, state corresponding secretary of the W. C. T. U., will be the speaker at a meeting to be held this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eliza Boddy, 1429 East Flanders street, to complete the organization of a Portland branch of the Union.

WILLARD TEMPERANCE WORKERS MEET TODAY.—The Willard Women's Christian Temperance Union will hold its regular meeting at 2 P. M. today, at the home of Mrs. I. H. Bramhall, 1985 Garfield avenue. All women interested in this work are invited to be present.

CLYDE LOSES FIGHT.—An attempt on the part of Councilman Clyde to kill the practice in Council committees of pigeonholing proposed ordinances was defeated by the judicial committee yesterday by the voting down of an ordinance introduced by Mr. Clyde requiring the committees to report upon matters submitted to them within 30 days. The committee recently referred the Clyde ordinance to the City Attorney who urged the committee not to adopt the ordinance because of the bad effect it would have on ordinances relating to street improvements.

COLE ASKS REHEARING.—E. W. Cole, ex-police sergeant who was dismissed several months ago from the police department for insubordination yesterday filed an application with the Civil Service Commission for a rehearing on his case. Cole was first discharged by the police committee after a hearing and later was dismissed by the Civil Service Commission on a rehearing. He bases his application for another hearing on the ground that improper testimony was allowed in the former hearings.

WOODARD WINS CASE.—Action of the board of directors of the Oregon Yacht Club, in forcibly expelling Victor Farnell, an unwelcome guest, was sustained in Municipal Court yesterday when L. V. Woodard, one of the directors, was found not guilty of assault and battery. The testimony had been taken previously. Farnell had presumed upon his probable election to membership to move into a houseboat in the reservation, and refused to go when ordered. He was then ejected.

SOUTH MOUNT TABOR PARENT-TEACHERS TO MEET.—The South Mount Tabor Parent-Teachers' Association will meet at South Mount Tabor school, Sixty-fifth and Division streets, at 3 P. M. today. A talk on "Books," relating to moral, mental and physical childhood will be given by one of the assistant librarians. The meeting will be public.

MAKAMAS TO WALK ON SUNDAY.—The Makamas on Sunday will leave First and Alder on the Mount Scott car at 1:30 P. M., going to Grays Crossing. They will climb Mount Scott on the southeasterly side and descend on the north slope to Lents, whence they return to the city. The walk is about six miles.

WEDDING RINGS.—The latest Tiffany "Jagger Bros." Diamonds, very finest at Jagger Bros.

ALICE NIELSEN COMING.

Next to the enchanting Alice Nielsen, the delicious quality of voice that belongs to Miss Jeska Swartz, the famous contralto of Miss Nielsen's Concert Company, will be enjoyed by Portland music-lovers next Wednesday night, November 13, at the Heilig. The Duluth News-Tribune of two weeks ago said: "Miss Jeska Swartz, contralto, won favor instantly in her Jeanne d'Arc aria, her attractive personality and peculiarly velvet-like voice combining with perfectness of technique. In the tender, laughing little encore, 'The Captain Cook,' she was particularly appealing. But for her beauty of tone she was at her best in the Barcarolle from Tales of Hoffman, and the Madame Butterfly selection, which she and Miss Nielsen sang as extra numbers."

Other members of this unusually strong company are equally enjoyable, and all will be heard to advantage in that captivating operetta, "The Barber of Seville." This concert is one of the Lois Steers-Wynn Coman series. The sale of seats will open Monday morning.

GEARHART-BY-THE-SEA.

The week-end at Gearhart is an excellent tonic for the nerves of politicians and defeated candidates. A hot salt bath at the Natatorium will do wonders. Try it.

Clothing Store Made Mistake.

Two new stores were to have been opened this Fall in town in Washington by the Brownsville Woolen Mill Stores, who now operate four big places in Oregon, but on account of unfavorable business conditions these stores were not opened, and the clothing, amounting to $50,000, has been diverted to the two Portland stores at Third and Morrison and Third and Stark streets. It is now on special sale and the free pick and choice of all suits or overcoats in the entire store is now being given for only $15, and all boys' suits and overcoats are being sold at $5. Men's suits and coats were made to sell up to $20 and boys' up to $10. This makes only half price on many garments, but the company figures it better to sell and lose than to carry the stocks over.

Long Duluth Trolley Strike Ends.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 7.—Issuing a lengthy statement, intended to be a scathing arraignment of the Duluth Streetcar Company, the striking carmen's union has called off the long-drawn-out struggle which started last September 9, and the men have returned to work.

PENNEY BROS. FRIDAY SPECIAL.

We offer our $2 wines at $1 a gallon; $1.50 wines at 75c a gallon; Straight Kentucky Whisky, 7 years old, regular $4.50 at $3.50 a gallon; Kentucky Whisky, regular $3.50, at $2.50 a gallon; up to $20 and boys' up to $10. This makes only half price on many garments, but the company figures it better to sell and lose than to carry the stocks over.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank Local No. 28, I. A. T. S. E., and friends for the kindness and sympathy in our sad bereavement. MRS. E. O. DOXEY AND FAMILY.
