VACATION BEING PLANNED

Period Between Election and Inauguration Regarded as Time for Listening Carefully to Ideas of Others.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 7.—President-select Wilson has not decided upon the personnel of his future Cabinet and he intends to keep his mind open on the subject for a long time. To put an end, if possible, to all gossip about Labinet appointments he issued the following statement today:

"Such appealations are perfectly fruitless. I mean to keep my mind entirely open with regard to appointments of the first consequence until a final announcement is possible. It will perfectly be useless to resort to me for corroboration of any report because I shall have absolutely nothing to announce. No announcement will have the least authority that is not made over my own corroboration. The selected.

ST PAUL Nov. 7.—Returns at 6 o'clock showed that Theodore Roose-evit was still leading Woodrow Wilson in the contest for Presidential electors. Twenty-two hundred precincts out of 3963 counted show Roose-cincts have the least authority that is not made over my own signature. These are matters which must be determined by very deliberate counsel and not by gossip." Subject Not Discussed,

Subject Not Discussed.

There is every reason to believe that Mr. Wilson has not discussed the framing of a Cabinet with anybody.

The President-elect said tonight that he considered the time between his election and his inauguration a period in which he should listen carefully to the ideas of men informed on National questions and that it was "a public duty" for him to do so.

Concerning reports about his proposed vacation he said any definite announcement that he was going to the Bermudas was not authorized.

For the very reason that I am going away to rest," he added. "I will have no announcement of my plans to make until the day before I start."

He said that if he did take a seatriphe certainly would not go on a private yacht, but would go on a regular steamer. It is likely he will get away within a fortnight.

Governor Wilson had a busy time with his correspondence and telegrams today. Callers came in a steady procession in spite of the rain and muddy roads.
