

TRIP TO WYOMING

Southeastern Part of State Responsible for Change.

HAINES' ELECTION CERTAIN

Republicans Sweep All but One County for Legislature—Hawley to Make Recess Senatorial Appointment by Sunday.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The Southeastern Idaho Mormon counties have given John M. Haines, Republican gubernatorial candidate, a majority ranging from 6500 to 7000 votes. This has beyond question elected him Governor.

Governor James H. Hawley, Democrat, ran a poor second in those counties and while he appears to have a majority of 6000 piled up from other Idaho counties, he is beaten by from 1500 to 2000 majority. Returns are still incomplete, but practically all the large precincts in all counties have been heard from.

President Taft failed to secure the vote that Haines did in the southeast, but Southern Idaho returns up to tonight indicated he will have the state by a small majority. It is claimed here it will take an official count to determine this.

Republicans Get Legislature. The returns from the Mormon counties are gradually increasing Haines' majority. These majorities were so large in many instances that those received by both Hawley and Martin in the southern, western and northern counties could not materially cut into them.

The Republicans, who swept the state for the Legislature, lost one Representative in Lewis County, the Democrats gaining him and increasing their total legislative strength to seven. Governor Hawley is being showered with petitions and telegrams favoring candidates for recess Senatorial appointment and among the most urgent ones are those in support of ex-United States Senator Fred T. Dubois. It is considered here the Governor is seriously considering Dubois' appointment in punishment of the Mormons, who voted almost solidly against him, accomplishing his defeat. When interviewed tonight the Governor would not verify or deny this report. He authorized the following statement:

Appointment Comes Sunday. "I will announce my appointment Sunday. I now have the matter under serious consideration and will be guided entirely on my own judgment. I have received many telegrams and petitions from all parts of the state. Some of them favor the appointment of Mr. Dubois. I have not made a selection."

That Governor Hawley feels there was an understanding between the Mormons to defeat him is evident from a congratulatory letter sent by him today to Woodrow Wilson, in which he said:

"All Idaho Democrats labored for your success at the paramount issue of the campaign. We probably will lose the state by a small plurality on account of sinister influences in certain counties, which could not be guarded against."

BONDSMEN HELD FOR FINES

Suits Instituted in Circuit Court Cases by City Attorney.

Deputy City Attorney Sullivan yesterday started in Circuit Court suits against the bondsmen of persons convicted in Circuit Court after appeal from Municipal Court and who failed to pay their fines. The defendants are J. Baker and J. Baker, bondsmen for Hazel Williams, fined $250 for vagrancy; M. Pallas, bondsman for Ivo Miller, fined $100 for selling liquor without a license; Herman Love and J. Kaplan, bondsmen for Meyer Kaplan, fined $50 for violation of the gambling ordinance. All the bonds have been officially dissolved.

Last week Mr. Sullivan started suit for $250 against John Parker and Henry Harris, who went on Meyer Kaplan's bond when he appeared from a conviction for vagrancy in Municipal Court. Kaplan was again convicted before Judge Gantenbein, but had "skipped" from the city.

The county has already collected about $1600 in fines from those convicted after appeal from Municipal Court and suit to force payment on bonds totaling $2000 have been or will be instituted. Mr. Sullivan will file several additional complaints today.

CROUNSE SEEKS OVERCOAT

Warrant for John Doe Reposes in His Pocket for Wearer.

The miscreant who has the overcoat of Neil Crouse, Deputy Clerk of the Municipal Court, had better look out for the loser is close on his trail. Nestling in the inside pocket of Crouse's long coat (he has no outside one), is a warrant for John Doe, accusing him of larceny in a dwelling, and as Crouse passes the streets he has an eagle eye to right and left, looking for his prey. When he sees his coat he will tap the wearer on the shoulder and read the warrant to him. Then, unless the felon is a much larger man than Crouse, the pair will go to the police station.

From right under the nose of the owner, the missing overcoat was lifted from a rack in the clerk's office Wednesday. As numerous vagrants, leaving the court with "floaters" over their heads, passed within a few feet of it, its recovery is extremely dubious.

SEALS AFTER WOLVERTON

Sacramento Also Mentioned as Possible Field for ex-Yankee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—Harry Wolverton, manager for the Sacramento or San Francisco club in 1912, is the gossip in Coast League circles since the news was flashed over the wires that the former successful leader of the Oaks lost out with New York in the American League. Nothing definite has been ascertained to verify these rumors, but it would not be surprising to learn that both managers, Jack Atkins and J. Cal Ewing, are in the field seeking the services of Wolverton.

Hear Mothers

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother.

BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Probably a victim of hard luck all season. Practically throughout the season he had six or seven of his regular players out of the game with injuries and sickness. It was a big handicap for any man to overcome and especially for a new manager in the big bush. Still these things were not taken into consideration. The fans wanted a winner and when one failed to appear the clamor began against the manager.

If one of the Coast League clubs secures Wolverton, it will be hailed as a ten-strike. Sacramento could use the ex-New York manager to good advantage. The Seals are well fortified with Bill Reid, already signed up, but the connection of Wolverton with the Seals arises through Cal Ewing's admiration of Wolverton.

STATE WOULD INTERVENE

Suit in Question Involves Title for Land on Willamette River.

On application of W. C. Benbow, acting for Fred W. Mulkey, special attorney for the state, Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday signed an order to show cause why the state should not be allowed to intervene in the suits brought by the Pacific Milling & Elevator Company and William Reid, against the City of Portland and the Dock Commission.

These suits are to quiet title and involve the ownership of the strips of land between high and low water marks along the Willamette River in Portland harbor. Copies of the order have been served on the plaintiffs and the defendants and the question will come on for argument on Tuesday, November 13.

WILSON HUNTS FOR WIFE

Portland Man Says He Has Quit Drinking and Wants to Prove It.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 7.—(Special.)—John Wilson, who says his home is in Portland, has stood for seven days in the Sacramento Postoffice looking for his wife, who, he says, deserted him last August. Wilson was a drunkard up to that time, but he says his wife's desertion has caused him to refrain from drink since and he wants to see her to prove he intends to remain on the water wagon.

Wilson has found trace of his wife in two or three cities of Northern California, but has missed her in each town. He says their two children—George, aged 11, and Eva, aged 9—cry daily for their mother, and he intends to keep up his search until he has had a talk with his wife and made an effort to persuade her to return to him.

In making our plans for these new stores, we decided to make our boys' clothing an exceptionally strong feature. We selected cloths with an eye to their durability; we insisted on the best of tailoring, and we made up a stock so large and varied that every possible requirement would be met.
