

ARMY REPUDIATES MEDIATION PLANS

Situation at Constantinople Grave.

TURKISH PRESS IS VEHEMENT

Government Forced to Yield to Soldiers' Demands.

COMPLICATIONS MAY ARISE

Porte's Position Compromised by Having to Withdraw Request to Powers to Intervene—Cry of "No Surrender" Grows.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 9 (Unconfirmed).—The situation has taken a change for the worse. A grave international crisis seems pending. On the one hand the position of the government is seriously compromised because the army repudiates the mediation proposition. On the other hand the committee of Union and Progress is giving evidence of renewed activity, while Turkish feeling, both national and religious, is being worked to fever pitch by the preaching in the mosques and by the impassioned language of the press.

The most serious feature of the situation is the weakness of the government in having first to apply for mediation to secure an armistice, later requesting mediation, pure and simple, and then virtually being obliged to yield to the army which repudiates mediation. Probably only the fact that the powers have not replied to the request for mediation prevented a ministerial crisis and extricated the government, as it will not now be called upon to take any action.

MANY WANT EUROPEAN WAR

Turkish Opinion Is Conflict Will Arise With Profit to Turkey.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Daily Telegraph's correspondent says: "The decision has been reached that the Sultan and government shall remain in the capital, even if the troops of the allies enter. The heir apparent and the other princes have expressed strong opinions that it would be shameful and exceedingly dangerous to abandon Constantinople and retreat to Bressau."

"The opinion is gaining ground that the difference of the powers may bring about a European war by which Turkey might profit and might re-establish her position if she resists long enough to muster into line new levies from Asia, numbering 500,000 men, when the general conflagration breaks out. Several high officials at Tchatalja demand that the new troops from the Black Sea and also the former army of Thrace be given a chance to fight."

CHOLERA THINS TURKS' RANKS

Wounded Soldiers Menace Constantinople—Austria With Sultan.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 10.—The outbreak of cholera is assuming proportions. Twenty-three cases had occurred among the troops along the Tchatalja lines up to Wednesday. There are many more suspected cases among the wounded. A trainload of wounded has just reached here, eight of the soldiers having died on the way, presumably from cholera.

The disease is getting a hold because of a lack of proper food and the complete absence of sanitary arrangements. There is danger to Constantinople because of the influx of refugees. Several suspected cases among the latter have been reported. The authorities are preparing a special quarantine hospital with 400 beds at Sirkeci.

The frequent visits of the Austrian Ambassador, Marquis de Pallavicini, to the Porte are attracting attention. Yesterday he visited the Foreign Minister. According to the Turkish newspaper, Ikdam, he declared that the interests of Austria and Turkey have become identical.

The authorities permit only three newspapers to be published. One of these says that differences have arisen

RENO DIVORCES TO BE HARD TO OBTAIN

NEVADA ELECTS LEGISLATURE FAVORING NEW LAW.

Father of Famous "Time-Lock" Measure Defeated—Year's Residence Will Be Required.

RENO, Nev., Nov. 10.—(Special).—Nevada has elected an anti-divorce legislature, and when the session opens in January an amendment to the present divorce measure will be presented fixing the period of residence at one year.

The divorce advocates suffered their greatest defeat in Reno, when W. D. Jones, father of the celebrated time-lock law, was overwhelmingly defeated for State Senator. Jones received the nomination on the Democratic ticket without opposition, and no Republican opponent appeared.

Jones had the field to himself until a bewhiskered farmer from outside Reno announced himself as an independent.

ANTHRACITE PRICE HELD

Operators Say Dealers Are Paying No More for Coal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Because of the uneasiness regarding the supply of anthracite and the fact that some consumers are complaining that an abnormally high price is asked, the committee of operators issued a statement to day in which they say:

"The larger mining companies are holding absolutely to their circular prices. They have not advanced these to dealers to whom they sell and have no intention of doing so. By far the greater part of the total anthracite output is being sold by the original producers at the circular prices."

Two Candidates for Governor Firm in Belief in Election.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 10.—No one yet pretends to know who was elected Governor of Kansas, except the two leading candidates. Arthur Capper, Republican, had figures tonight to show that he received 26 more votes than George H. Hodges, the Democratic candidate, while Hodges produces figures to prove that he is leading by 352. Each has the figures sent in by county committees, and each candidate has confidence in the correctness of the reports.

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 10.—(Special).—The textbook board has ordered the publishers of the geography adopted for use in the public schools of Texas to remove from that book the picture of President Taft and substitute therefor a picture of Woodrow Wilson.

The members of the board also urged the removal of the picture of Abraham Lincoln from the school history, but the proposition was so vigorously opposed by Governor Colquitt that it was abandoned.

The Governor informed the textbook board, of which he is chairman, that rather than permit Lincoln's picture to be eliminated from the history he would resign from the Governorship.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—General Geronimo Trevino, who was recently retired from the army at his own request, is suggested as provisional president of Mexico in a new revolutionary manifesto which has just reached the capital.

The manifesto is dated Puebla, the day after the capture of General Felix Diaz. The newspapers of Mexico City have refrained from mentioning the manifesto, and it is believed General Trevino is not interested.

Another revolutionary document obtained by the police from Zapatista prisoners was made public today. It appears to reveal the intention of the Zapata brothers and the leading insurrectionary chiefs whose names are assigned to imitate the French revolution.

His Majesty is a very early riser and is always ready for his simple, cold breakfast at half past four in the morning. On Saturday the attendants found that the larder had been cleaned out.

There were marks of soot about the ice box and this started a suspicion that the chimneysweep who was employed about the palace might know something about His Majesty's breakfast. Detectives who got on the track found the sweep at his home enjoying the King's meal.

DAILY HOMICIDE AROUSES

ARKANSAS PLANS ON STRICTER ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 10.—(Special).—An average of a homicide a day in Arkansas is not the kind of record the good citizens of Arkansas like to advertise, and for that reason there is more and more determination on their part to reduce this number by a stricter enforcement of the law and the enactment of a more stringent statute if necessary.

For the first time in the history of the state reliable statistics are being collected by the judiciary, under the provisions of an act passed in 1911, requiring Prosecuting Attorneys to make biennial reports to the Attorney-General. When the reports have been received from 17 circuits and compiled it will be possible to indicate definitely the weak spots and apply the necessary remedy.

Investigation showed that the letters were mailed from Lugano and an Italian chemist known to be the associate of six other Italian anarchists has been arrested in Switzerland, including Luigi Dainosi, formerly editor of the anarchist paper, Agitation, who was taken into custody today in Geneva.

Most of these cases were among recruits who had not received the treatment, and of the deaths one was an officer and the other a recruit who had not been inoculated with the anti-typhoid prophylactic.

'J. HAM.' LEWIS HAS LEAD FOR SENATOR

Colonel Is Choice of Illinois Primary.

LONG TERM IS HIS PORTION

Lorimer Vacancy Bone of Contention for Many.

FRIEND OF BRYAN URGED

Elmore Hurst, Who Sits in Councils of Both Sullivan and Harrison-Hearst Factions, One of Those Mentioned.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—(Special).—The big contest out of the way, the Democratic leaders began their lingo today for further conquest. This is the representation in the United States Senate from Illinois. Should the Democrats be able to name two Senators, as they confidently expect to do, there will be found a sufficient number of men willing to offer their shoulders for the draping thereon of a Senatorial toga.

Colonel James Hamilton Lewis, better known as "J. Ham," is the primary choice of the Democrats of the state for the long term. He is friendly with Governor-elect Dunne and does not quarrel with either the Hearst-Harrison or Sullivan factions. The Sullivan organization probably will not go out of its way far to send Colonel Lewis toward Washington, but the fact remains he was the choice of the people at the primaries, and there is not apparently any desire to rob him of the victory they earned.

SHORT TERM SOUGHT BY MANY

However, there is also a short term, the unexpired part of the term made vacant by the elimination of William Lorimer as a member of the Nation's highest law-making body. Several prominent Democrats have been mentioned for this honor.

Charles Boeschewitz, National committee man from Illinois, is being urged by his friends as the logical man to go to Washington. He is an out-and-out Sullivan lieutenant and has the unqualified confidence of President-elect Wilson. Another fact that is being presented in his favor is that he comes from down-state. This, too, can be urged for others.

Elmore Hurst, of Rock Island, who is a personal friend of Bryan and in addition has entry to the councils of both the Sullivan and Hearst-Harrison factions, is also under consideration. Mr. Hearst directed the business men's bureau at the Western headquarters of the Democratic National committee during the campaign. At one time he was considered as a compromise candidate for Governor, because he is reckoned free of entangling factional alliances.

NEW CANDIDATES APPEARING

Samuel Alschuler, of Chicago and Aurora, is also under the political glass. He was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor last April. He took the stump for Mr. Dunne and toured the down-state counties, urging the election of his more fortunate rival.

Each day will present new candidates for this round-up. In the opinion of politicians, are the ones on whom the smile of fortune is most likely to turn.

ROUNDUP PICTURES THRILL

Pendleton's Great Event Shown in Films Pleases Crowds.

A dream of painted savages, wild bucking bronchos, plunging steers and daring riders are the motion pictures of the Pendleton Round-Up, which are being shown at the Bungalow Theater this week. There is not a feature of the big festival that has not been caught by the moving picture man at his last Round-Up. Frequently in the pictures themselves one will catch a glimpse of the operator of another machine calmly working under the very feet of the rearing horses.

Yesterday the audience that witnessed the show were divided between those who had attended the Round-Up itself and those who had not, but were choosing the moving picture show as the nearest approach to the real thing. As the pictures were flashed upon the screen one would hear whispered words of recognition of the picture men upon the screen. "That's Minor," "That's Jim Roach," "I saw that fellow take his tumble when I was there."

There are more than 5000 feet of film shown in the production, and there are thrills in every foot. One sees deft feats of roping, the cowpuncher sticking to his saddle upon the back of a veritable equine demon, rearing, plunging and rolling in savage efforts to dislodge his burden, and it is with a subdued exclamation of sympathy that the audience sees the rider hurled from his saddle by the buckler. One sees wild races on unbroken ponies, and watches the straining cowpuncher as he wrestles the steer into submission in the "bulldogging" contests.
