

TOWNSEND MAKES BRIBERY CHARGE

Special Prosecutor in Alaska Coal - Fraud Cases Springs Sensation.

JURORS MAKE AFFIDAVIT

John Bogart and Samuel Millison Declare They Voted for Conviction and Against Own Convictions in Trial.

TACOMA, Nov. 12.—To back up in court tomorrow the sensational charge he made today that two members of the Bullock-Houston jury had been bribed to make affidavits upon which was based a motion for new trial, B. D. Townsend, special government prosecutor in the Alaska coal fraud cases, worked until a late hour tonight preparing affidavits.

These, he said, would be signed by seven members of the jury that found Charles Houston and John H. Bullock guilty of conspiracy in connection with Alaska contracts.

It would be shown, he said, not only that the two jurors swore falsely when they made affidavits to the effect that the verdict was based on a misconception of the evidence, but that one of them had, in one instance, told another juror that he had been offered a bribe and had later declared his intention of accepting it.

The special prosecutor charged in court today during the course of a scathing denunciation of the Pacific Coast Coal Company, of which Houston is an officer, that detectives had followed jurors throughout the trial in an attempt to "get at" them.

Court continued the hearing to give Townsend time to prepare counter affidavits.

"After the jury had found its verdict and was discharged agents accosted the jurymen at every turn and tried to bribe them to make false affidavits, H. M. Button, one of the jurymen, has told me that Juror Millison told him of the offers of money made to him," said Special Prosecutor Townsend.

"Mr. Button advised Millison not to have anything to do with the agent who made the offer. Millison later came to Button and said he had made up his mind to accept the money. I told him that if he did so he would be committing a crime, but he said he would do it. There was no great debate about the supplemental bid for Government coal as was stated in the affidavit."

DIVORCE SUIT IS HALTED

La Grande District Attorney Calls Off Case Against Wife.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—F. S. Ivanhoe, District Attorney at La Grande, Or., who filed suit for a divorce here last week against his wife, alleging cruelty, has had the suit dismissed. The plaintiff averred originally that his wife frequently accused him of infidelity and since charged that she witnessed an attempt by him to commit murder. Several days after the complaint was filed, the plaintiff filed a motion asking that he be dismissed.

The Ivanhoses were married in Boise City, May 16, 1887, and have two grown children, Forest, 24 years of age, and Lynton, 22 years of age. The plaintiff alleged that his wife continually found fault with him and that finally, April 20, 1907, he was forced to leave her. He says that he owns block 1 in Cogan's Addition to La Grande, and that the defendant has an equity of $2000 including a house she has erected on it. He asked that he be declared the owner of the property, with exception of the equity of the defendant.

The divorce action of Ellen Changran against Nicholas Changran also has been dismissed. Judge Campbell granted decrees in the following suits Tuesday:

Ada Quimby against George B. Quimby; Bertha Manos against Samuel Manos; Anna L. Richardson against Wyley Richardson, plaintiff being awarded the custody of their two children; Sadie Austin against Joseph Austin and Alice Darnell against J. A. Darnell.

ALBANY WOMAN ATTACKED

While In Bathroom Mrs. Darwin Wood Is Victim of Violent Man.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Mrs. Darwin Wood, pianist and piano player at the Empire Theater here, was originally attacked in her rooms at the Blount rooming-house tonight while she was taking her bath. An unknown man entered the apartment shortly after she had come from the downtown section. She was slugged, bound and gagged and thrown unconscious on the bed.

Jack Davis, a bootblack at the Star Baths, has been arrested and is being held on circumstantial evidence. It is alleged that Davis has been trading the woman for some time, and as there was blood on the door of his room and also on the door of Mrs. Davis' room, the officers made the arrest. Davis answers to the description of a man seen coming from the apartments as the little daughter came home and found her mother unconscious.

Mrs. Wood had dined with her husband and daughter down town and came home alone to re-dress for the evening. Davis refuses to make a statement, but is apparently indignant at his arrest.

While Mrs. Wood did not recover consciousness for several hours, she is not in a dangerous condition. She is only bruised and is suffering from the shock. She is less than 30 years old.

TRUSTING BRIDE IS LOSER

Cash to Amount of $9000 and Rich Genu Go With Husband.

A trusting bride of 50, minus $9000 in cash and jewels valued at $500, and a dashing, "very attractive" bridegroom of about 40, ahead of the game to a like amount and now mysteriously missing, are the parties to a little domestic drama which is being unfolded by Detectives Royle and Trice. Robert H. Marsh, attractive bridegroom, after exercising his attractive powers on Mrs. Marsh's competence, is in the broad beyond, while Mrs. Marsh is desolate and alone at the Rainier Hotel.

The marriage ceremony was performed in Searsville three weeks ago, after a brief acquaintance. Marsh

POSED AS A TRAVELING SALESMAN, BUT WHEN HIS PROSPECTIVE BRIDE ANNOUNCED THAT SHE NEVER COULD MARRY A MAN THAT CALLING, HE ACCOMMODATINGLY AGREED TO GIVE UP HIS WORK. HE THOUGHT THE AUTOMOBILE BUSINESS IN AUSTRALIA WOULD SUIT HIM FINE, AND TO THAT END THE NEWLY WEDS WENDED THEIR WAY TOWARD TO TAKE A STEAMER FOR THE ANTPODES.

Marsh elected himself treasurer for the family menage, Mrs. Marsh making no objection. They arrived here Sunday. Yesterday Marsh was gone, leaving a note in which he promised to rejoin his bride at Vancouver, B. C., November 27.

Details of the story are hard to get owing to the reticence of Mrs. Marsh. Dreading publicity, she even told reporters yesterday that the missing husband had returned and that there was "nothing to it," but Detectives Price and Royle have not been called away from the search.

Further than to say that she was Mrs. Genevieve Dawden and that her great-grandfather was the last man to be beheaded in the Tower of London, Mrs. Marsh would give no account of

PIONEER OF 1850 DIES AT WOODBURN.

John Johnston.

Notice has been received here of the death, November 2, at Woodburn, of John Johnston, one of the best known of Marion County farmers. He was an Oregon pioneer of 1850, having come here from Missouri. Since that time he has been active in the development of the country about Woodburn, where he acquired wealth on a farm of 400 acres.

He was born in Ireland, July 4, 1825, and came to this country when 12 years of age. For a long time he was employed in grist mills. At the time of his death, he was 85 years of age. He is survived by a widow and ten children. Among the children are Mrs. C. H. Hurd and Mrs. J. Manning, of Portland. Other children reside in Spokane and in California.

himself. That she has traveled extensively, is apparent from the foreign labels on her baggage.

DAVIS' BONDS AT $2000

MAN ACCUSED OF ATTACKING ALBANY WOMAN HELD.

Police Believe They Have Strong Net of Circumstantial Evidence Around "Honor" ex-Convict.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—W. E. Davis, who is arrested charged with the sensational attack on Mrs. Darwin Wood in this city last night, received examination when arraigned before Justice of the Peace Swan on a statutory charge today.

He was held for the grand jury under $2000 bonds, which he is unable to furnish, and was placed in the Linn County Jail.

Davis denies any connection whatsoever with the affair. The evidence against him is circumstantial, but officers regard it as very strong and Chief of Police Daugherty believes he has arrested the right man.

Davis is one of Governor West's "honor" men, released from the Oregon Penitentiary on parole last April after serving five months of an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years for horsestealing. He was sent to the penitentiary from Jackson County. He says he is 27 years of age.

Davis has been in Albany the past three weeks and has been employed as a shoemaker at Viereck's barber shop. He had been in Albany for a few days at a time previously the past summer and has worked recently in Eugene and Lebanon. He was generally known by the name of "Jack" Davis.

Mrs. Wood did not see the face of her assailant before his blows rendered her unconscious and cannot identify him. She caught one fleeting glance of him through a mirror as he sprang toward her from behind and says he was a large, heavy-set man. This is the only description she can give of him. The prisoner is 5 feet-1 inch in height and weighs about 205 pounds. Mrs. Wood's daughter, who is the only one who saw the man, gives a description of him which tallies very closely with that of Davis.

When the officers went to the barber shop, where Davis has been employed and found rope exactly like that with which Mrs. Wood was bound and they also found where the rope at the shop had been cut freshly.

EAST SIDERS WILL BOOST

Business Men to Attend Opening of Dairy and Land Shows.

The East Side Business Men's Club and friends will attend the dairy show at the Union Stockyards on the Peninsula Monday, November 18, and the same evening will attend the Land Products Show, in the building at the corner of 23rd Street and East Morrison street, it being the East Side Business Men's Club night. For the trip to the dairy show at the Union Stockyards a special train will have been chartered by the club, which will leave the intersection of Union avenue and East Burnside street at 10:30 A. M. and these cars will arrive at the Stockyards at about 11:30. Luncheon will be served by the Union Stockyards and the return trip will be made in the afternoon, after opportunity has been afforded the visitors to see the dairy show.

The club is making a special effort to work up a big crowd for both shows by opening and to this end has extended special invitations to all the improvement clubs on the East Side to take the special cars for the Union Stockyards in the forenoon and to attend the Land Products Show in the evening. The committee having the opening night arrangements in hand ordered 40,000 First-class tickets printed yesterday, which will be placed in many homes by Friday night.

The best recorded speed for a runner is 10 feet a second.

OFFICE OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY Oregon City Democrats Would Pluck Plums.

EYES ARE ON MARSHALSHIP Judge Beattie Seeks Federal Position and George Harding Is Out for Postmaster—John Cook and Gilbert Beattie Mentioned.

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—R. B. Beattie, County Judge, and George A. Harding, one of the prominent pioneers of this county, have announced that they would be applicants for the offices of United States Marshal and postmaster of Oregon City respectively. John Cook, a hardware merchant, also has been mentioned for postmaster. Friends of Gilbert L. Hedges, recent Democratic nominee for District Attorney, are being urged by his friends to make application for the United States District Attorneyship, and probably will make a decision in a few days.

No Democrat in Clackamas County has more friends than Judge Beattie. He has been regarded as the leading member of his party for more than 20 years and his friends declare that he is the logical man for the United States Marshalship under the Wilson Administration. He was born and reared in this county, moving to Pendleton in 1887. From there he went to Alaska, returning to Oregon City in 1898. He was the Democratic nominee for Sheriff in 1906 winning $2 votes. He was one of the first Democrats ever elected to an important office in the county. Judge Beattie was re-elected Sheriff in 1904 by a majority of 112 and in 1910 was elected County Judge by a majority of 1132. He was an ardent supporter of W. J. Bryan in all the Congressional races of the Presidency and contributed liberally to the campaign. He also was a contributor to the Wilson campaign.

Mr. Harding has always been a staunch Democrat but never held a political office. He came to Oregon City several years before the Civil War and when President Lincoln made a call for troops Mr. Harding was one of the first to offer his services. He is a member of Meade Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and has held about 25 men and turning out 150,000 shingles every 10 hours. J. E. Archer will manage the new plant.

his sons, Frank and John, both prominent business men of this city; C. H. Lupton, of Benton City, Wash., and two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Nelson, of Tacoma, and Mrs. Dora Daniels, a resident of Eastern Washington. Interment was made here this afternoon.

Lewis Coal to Be Mined.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Articles of incorporation were filed with the Lewis County auditor yesterday by the Washington Coal Mining Company, a Seattle corporation. The capital stock of the new company is $20,000. A. H. McCombs and B. A. Brown, of Seattle, and J. E. Bennight, of Centralia, are the incorporators.

ALBANY CALLS PHILADELPHIAN.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Rev. H. Page Dyer, of Philadelphia, has been called to the pastorate of St. Peter's Episcopal Church of this city, and it is probable he will accept the call. He will succeed Rev. Henry H. Marsden, who left this week for his new charge at Brookline, Md.

ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—William Lupton, aged 83, and for 25 years a resident of Chehalis County, died here at the home of his son, John M. Lupton, last night, following an interesting life. Mr. Lupton fought through the hardest campaigns of the Civil War. He is survived by California to Welcome Tour of Royal Rosarians South Is Eagerly Awaited.

That a welcome befitting their rank will be given the Royal Order of Rosarians when it visits Southern California during the holidays is the news received by Crown Prince Bristol and Chairman Hofmann, of the arrangement committee, who are now perfecting plans for the tour with which this famous booster brigade will celebrate the season of gifts and good will. From San Francisco south every city is anxious to have the Portland knights of the rose help make merry at their various holiday gatherings.

Pasadena will hold its annual Tournament of Roses on New Year's day, and Edward T. O'H., president of the tournament, adding that the wonderful profusion of flowers, both in that city and in Portland, should be a "bond of cemented friendship" between the two municipalities.

The Rosarians, through Crown Prince Bristol, have accepted the good will, promising to be there "with roses on." The Royal Rosarian special, one of the finest equipped trains ever to leave Portland, will arrive in Pasadena on New Year's morning, bearing pleasant greetings from Portland and Oregon for Pasadena and Southern California.

The Rosarians will join in the pageant with the enthusiasm for which they are famous. The clever uniformed drill team of the Rosarians will have a prominent place in the pageant, and Professor Robert Krohn's director will have a full roster, trained to the minute, so as to make a truly splendid showing for Portland. It is planned to give special exhibition trials in which the cities in which the special will stop.

LOGGING CAMP OPENED

Kelso Report Says Whitten & Bryant Will Log Land.

KELSO, Wash., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Another logging camp, working a crew of 25 men, is to be opened on the upper Copeeman, according to a report received here yesterday. Whitten & Bryant, owners of the tract, are being enlarged with the intention of logging the entire 36 million feet of timber in about three years.

Letters of a Slim-Made Woman to Her Fat Sister

Sixth Letter: On the Slim-Made Man Who Found a Harsh Fat Remedy.

Dear Sis:—I can hardly wait to write you the news. Who of all people do you suppose have gained 70 lbs. in weight? Remember him—how he tagged me around at the Summer last year? Well, he's here now—two "fat" figures he cut in a bathing suit. It was his purpose-like success in this regard that makes people made about his governing "beast" that kept me last night. Well, sis, dear, I met him last night. Sadie's musicals and diet know him, and he didn't know me—we had to be introduced. My, how he has changed—as much as I have—now he's well-set up and handsome. He looks since he became slim. He has the same "peachy" complexion, only more so, and I've promised to dine with him tonight and we've agreed to make "it a spread." Not like the "diet" dinners we had at the beach when I'd eat my crackers and he'd sip his tea and toast and we'd both enjoy the other dinner and grow fatter and sadder on our own diet. That was the only bond of sympathy we had then—but now we have another bond—the slim trim figure—the Marmola Prescription—well, he used that too, only he found it at the drug store in Searsville. First he tried Marmola Tablets at 75c the box—trust a man to find the easiest way. The tablet must surely be convenient—just a little disc after meals and at bedtime. It smells like druggists sell the tablets. See. They're made by the Marmola Co., Farmer Bldg., Detroit, Mich. Affectionately, BERTY.

has been closed since the wreck on the logging road two weeks ago, was reopened yesterday with a full crew. Shanghai is to have two new shingle mills. Both will be small, but will add considerably to the payroll of that section. One of the mills, built by Arthur Luther and Warren Mitchell, was started yesterday, while the other, under course of construction by Lyons & Johnson, of Elma, will be ready for operation in a few weeks.

The machinery for Kelso's new shingle mill has arrived and is being installed. The new plant is to be one of the most complete and modern in Southwest Washington, employing about 25 men and turning out 150,000 shingles every 10 hours. J. E. Archer will manage the new plant.

Buy the Flour Made From the Best Wheat—then you get your money's worth. OCCIDENT FLOUR. Costs More—Worth It. That is due to the Choice wheat we use exclusively for Occident. We select only the best North Dakota Hard Spring Wheat—the most famous bread-making wheat grown. It is the highest priced wheat in the market. And Occident goes through a more complete cleaning and purifying process than any other flour milled.

OCCIDENT FLOUR. It goes further—makes more bread. You use less flour for every batch of bread. Your bread stays fresh longer—moist and sweet. It is whiter, lighter, better tasting. And more important than anything else—every loaf has more nutriment—more of the muscle-building properties that strengthen the body.

Russell-Miller Milling Co., 474 Glisan Street, Portland. DIRECTIONS—Work dough soft as possible; use less flour and more liquid—knead thoroughly and let rise longer than with other flour.
