FINEST OF CATTLE ARE ON EXHIBITION

The exhibitors are agreed that Portland, by reason of its central location to the stock and dairying industry of the Pacific Northwest, is the one place to establish a permanent dairy and fat stock show. A fat stock show will be held at the Union Stockyards in December, according to present plans, but it is proposed in future to unite the two shows and make this the greatest stock show for all classes in the country. Inasmuch as Western eattle have been taking the lion's share of the honors at Eastern shows, Western that the place to the total state of the transfer of the tr or the honors at gastern shows, western stockmen argue that the place to hold the greatest show of all is in the West, preferably at Portland.

"A building that will accommodate 1600 cattle should be built here," said John L. Smith, of Spokane, who brought his famous Hazelwood terd of Mostates direct to Portland from Chi-Holsteins direct to Portland from Chl-cago, where they took nearly all the honors in their class at the National Dairy Show. "Chicago people will tell bonors in their class at the National Dairy Show. "Chicago people will tell you that the greatest event of the year is their stock show. An investment of $20,000 here would mean a permanent institution for Portland, something that will be of increasing benefit to the city. If the people of Portland feelized what a great thing it would be, they would lose no time in 'cinching' it. As it is, Spokane, not nearly so advantageous a point as to location, but already having the necessary buildings and grounds, is a strong bidder for the show."

Site for Building Offered.

The Union Stockyards Company has offered the use of a sufficient tract of land adjoining its plant for the erection of an exhibit building, and the fact that there is barely enough room with present accommodations for the stock entered at this first show is making the offer' a leading topic among exhibitors who are all in favor of the plan which would make Portland one of the greatest stock show places in the country.

So numerous are the Jersey entries that they have been given a separate building, where their grooms were in the country.

Then on technical points, a new trial was granted and the case was dismissed.
