Car Line Permit Recommended to Heusner With Seventh Eliminated.

HEILIG-DICKINSON FAVORED

Plan to Give All Access Over Broadway Bridge and Protect Business Is Outlined and Blanket Proposed to Josselyn.

At an all-day session of the street committee of the City Council yesterday all street franchises now pending were rearranged, amended and changed and sent up to the Council for action at the first meeting in December.

George F. Heusner will receive an interurban franchise over the Broadway bridge from Broadway street to Tenth street.

The seventh-street question involved a general discussion lasting for about three hours, with representatives of the Seventh Street Improvement Association on one side and representatives of the city on the other.

Among those speaking against the interurban service on Seventh street were J. H. Haack, D. J. Malarkey and M. C. Dickinson.

Mr. Dickinson asserted that interurban cars would ruin the interests he has on the street.

EXHIBITORS LUNCH AT CLUB

Unanimous Vote Declares for Annual Show at Portland.

Members of the Portland Commercial

Club and other business and professional men of the city were here at luncheon yesterday at the exhibitors, officials, judges and others connected with the land products show and the dairy show, both of which exhibitions progress here.

While the function was an informal one, it afforded an opportunity for the people of Portland to express their appreciation of the efforts and expenses of those who have made the two exhibitions possible.

Edgar B. Piper, president of the Commercial Club, presided. P. Bateham, president of the Horticultural Society, spoke on behalf of the Land Show.

Mr. Bateham declined any credit for the success of the Land Show. He said that he and Manager Bond have been instrumental in planning the show, but declared that nothing could have been possible without the aid and co-operation of the farmers, the fruit-growers and the various commercial organizations in various parts of the Northwest.

Mr. Clise was introduced by Mr. Piper as one of the most successful dairymen in the country. Formerly a banker, he has devoted recent years to the development of the dairy industry, which has been a "hobby" of his for some time.

He added that the commercial bodies deserve much credit for promoting and financing exhibits at the present Land Show and criticized the officials of those counties that failed to provide funds for county exhibits.

Upon this motion, seconded by J. F. Batchelder, of Hood River, the following resolution was unanimously passed: Resolved by the exhibitors now in attendance at the Pacific Northwest Land Products Show representing the commercial bodies and counties of the Northwest, that the exhibition of the land products be made an annual event at the City of Portland to advertise the wonderful resources of the Northwest.

THE GRIP OF DRUG HABIT

Cocaine Is Most Deadly and Quickly Ruins Its Victims.

The drug habit is no respecter of persons. I have had under my care exemplary mothers and wives who became indifferent to their families; clergymen of known sanctity and fervor who became shoplifters and forgers; shrewd, successful business men who became paupers, because the habit left them at the mercy of sharper after mental deterioration had set in.

For the immediate action of morphine by no means paralyzes the mental faculties. Though when once a man becomes addicted to the drug he is incapacitated to deal with himself, yet while he is under its brief influence his mind is sharpened and alert.

Under the sway of opium a man does venturesome or immoderate things that he would never think of doing otherwise, simply because he has lost the sense of responsibility. I have had patients who took as much as 60 grains of opium a day, a single dose, an overdose for about 150 persons, and about 50 grains more than the takers could possibly assimilate or needed to produce the result—an excellent illustration of how the habit destroys all judgment and all sense of proportion.

Against this appalling habit, which can be acquired easily and naturally and the result of which is always complete demoralization, there is at present no effective remedy except that provided by nature itself, and this is effective only in certain cases.

It happens that in many people opium produces nausea, and the habit, for this type of addict never experiences any of the temporarily soothing sensations commonly attributed to the drug. Yet this natural safeguard, while rarely operative, is more efficacious than any other that up to the present time has been provided by man in his heedlessness, indifference and greed.

The important habit-forming drugs are opium, cocaine and the small but dangerous group of "hypnotics." These are—opium, cocaine, sulphonal, medical, etc.—are chiefly coal tar products, and are not always classified as habit-forming drugs, but they are such, and there are many reasons why the sale of them should be scrupulously regulated.

Though the general impression is otherwise, the users of these two drugs acquire the habit as quickly and as easily as they take morphine. From time to time, however, cases of heroin taking, in which the victims had thought to satisfy their need for an opiate without forming a habit. In the cases where it is given by prescription, it was so given by the physician in the sincere belief that it would not create a habit.

All this despite the fact that heroin is three times stronger than morphine, and despite the fact that physicians know that anything which will do the work of an opiate is an opiate. Cocaine, notwithstanding the fact that it is weaker than morphine, is likewise habit-forming; yet doctors prescribe it on account of its relative mildness, though they know that it is the cumulative effect of continued doses, and not to the quantity of morphine in the dose, which results in the habit. As with morphine, the use of either of these drugs effectively means in the long run the necessary increase of the dose up to the limit of physical tolerance.

The most common physical disorder which results in cocaine is a tremor, which is cocaine. Nothing so quickly deteriorates its victim or provides so short a cut to the asylum for the insane as cocaine. A man does not acquire a habit from cocaine in the sense that it is virtually impossible for him to leave it without physical disaster. He can do so, although he rarely does. On withdrawal, he experiences only an intense and horrible depression, together with a physical languor which results in a sleepiness that cannot be shaken off.

Opium withdrawal, on the other hand, results in sleeplessness and extreme nervousness and physical disorder. In action, too, cocaine is an extreme stimulant. Its stimulus wears off quickly and leaves a corresponding depression, but it confers half an hour of capability of intense effort. That is why bicycle riders, prizefighters and race horses are often doctored, or "amped" up, with cocaine. When it is given out, its victim invariably resorts to alcohol for stimulus; alcohol, Thin and straggly lashes and brows should be drawn massaged daily with pyroxin. This encourages their growth and they soon will be long and lovely.

Aches and pains destroy beauty. Mother's Salve is penetrating and enters the pores at once, giving almost instant relief. Just rub on briskly and it will have a comforting, soothing effect on pains and aches in rheumatism, cold in the chest, rheumatism or neuralgia.

A complexion beautifier that will not rub off is made by dissolving a package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Gently massage face once or twice a day with this lotion daily, and the skin will be soft, lovely, smooth and satiny. Mayatone prevents the growth of hair.

FRAIL, SICKLY CHILD

Restored to Health by Vinol—A Letter to Mothers.

Anxious mothers often wonder why their children are so pale, thin and nervous and have so little appetite. For the benefit of such mothers in this vicinity we publish the following letter:

J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn., says: "My little daughter was born frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago we commenced to give her Vinol. I immediately noted an improvement in her health and appearance, and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."

"This child's recovery was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements extracted from cods' livers—strengthening and tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol. Vinol will build up and strengthen delicate children, old people, and the weak, run-down and debilitated. We return the money in every case where it fails."

LOYALTY IS AFFIRMED

WORKINGMAN DEPLORES ATTACK ON Y. M. C. A.

In Letter to Secretary Stone of Association L. Preston Scores Course of News.

In addition to the numerous organizations that are giving formal expressions of their confidence in the Young Men's Christian Association, in view of the attack made upon it, hundreds of citizens are writing and telephoning to General Secretary Stone, assuring him that the malicious campaign against the Y. M. C. A. has only increased their loyalty to the association.

These messages are coming from men in every walk of life. Many are or have been members of the Y. M. C. A., or have actively supported its work, while scores of others have had no connection with the association, but are resentful of the injustice that has been done in the attack upon it.

With unanimous voice those speaking to Mr. Stone have expressed their opinion that the type of journalism that is represented in the attack upon the Y. M. C. A. should be eradicated from Portland. A typical letter was received yesterday from L. Preston, part of which follows:

"I am a working man, a member of a local union, I, as well as a number of fellow-workers have been readers of the Daily News, but owing to the injustice of the association by that paper, stamping it as unreliable, untruthful, sensational and a vehicle in the newspaper world, I as well as all other shopmates have discontinued buying or reading the News."

"A lying, unscrupulous newspaper is the worst foe to a city and to the home. It is an enemy of all that is good in life. The News caters to the patronage of the workingman, the poor man. It is the worst enemy of both."

"Such contemptible action on the part of a publication that is supposed to serve the public good deserves the censure of every decent person, rich or poor. It is a disgrace to the newspapers. Contempt for the News is growing among the working people."

NEW SYSTEM ADOPTED

MORE JURORS TO BE TAKEN FROM REALTY TAX ROLL.

One-Third to Be Drawn From Personal Roll—Improvement in Class Is Anticipated.

On recommendation of all five of the Circuit Court judges and in line with the views of its own members, the County Court has decided to adopt a new system of drawing jurors for duty in Circuit Court. Heretofore they have been drawn entirely from the personal tax roll. Hereafter two-thirds of the 1900 names picked in January of each year will be taken from the realty tax roll and one-third from the personal tax roll.

The law contemplates, in fact states, specifically, that those summoned for jury duty shall be drawn from the most permanent and stable citizens of the community. Experience has shown that the best class of jurors is not obtained by drawing jurors from the personal tax list, as often men are obtained who have only slight, at best a renter's, interest in the welfare of the community. Members of the grand jury for each month are selected automatically, the first seven names drawn from the box being those of the grand jurors. As the work of the grand jury is of the utmost importance, not only to the community, but to individuals held to answer as defendants, it is considered that the higher type of men assigned to this duty the better.

The real estate and personal tax rolls are, of course, to a certain extent duplicates of each other, as most men who own real property also pay personal taxes, but it is nevertheless felt that the new system may aid in securing better results from the courts.

G. S. Bennett Found Guilty of Improper Conduct.

G. S. Bennett, a former patrolman, was summarily discharged from the police department yesterday by the police committee of the Executive Board after being given a hearing on a charge of conduct unbecoming an officer.

The committee refused to receive the resignations of Policemen D. A. Gee and D. F. Stack, who are now facing charges before the committee. Chairman Coffey of the committee said the resignation of the two was merely a plan to escape a hearing and to get out of the service without a black record.

HOW I ENLARGED MY BUST SIX INCHES IN THIRTY DAYS.

After I had tried Pills, Massage, Wooden Cups and Various Advertised Preparations without the slightest results.

A Simple, Easy Method Which any Lady can use at home and quickly obtain a large and beautiful Bust.

BY MARGARETTE MERLAIN.

With what pity must every man look at every woman who presents to him a flat chest—a chest like his own! Can such a woman inspire in a man those feelings and emotions which can only be inspired by a real and true woman, a woman with a beautiful well-rounded bust? Most certainly not.

The very men who shunned me, and even the very women who passed me carelessly when I was so horribly flat-chested and had no bust, became my most ardent admirers shortly after I obtained such a wonderful enlargement of my bust. I therefore determined that all women who were flat-chested should profit by my accidental discovery, and have a bust like my own. I had been imposed upon by charlatans and frauds, who sold me all sorts of pills and appliances for enlarging my bust, but which did me no good whatever. I therefore determined my unfortunate sisters should no longer be robbed by these "rackets" and traders, and I wish to warn all women against them.

The discovery of the simple process with which I enlarged my bust six inches in thirty days was due solely to a lucky accident, which I believe was brought about by Divine Providence; and as Providence was so good to give me the means to obtain a beautiful bust, I feel I should give my secret to all my sisters who desire a beautiful well-rounded bust? Most certainly not.

I will positively guarantee that every lady who obtains a wonderful enlargement of her bust in thirty days time, and that she can easily use this process in the privacy of her own home, without the knowledge of any one. Address, Margarette Merlain (Dept. 1816), Pembroke House, Oxford Street, London, W., England.
