REV. MR. CORBY DELIVERS NOVEL SERMONS.—Much interest is being displayed in the novel sermons which Dr. James D. Corby is giving Sunday mornings at the First Universalist Church, Broadway and East Twenty-fourth street. Dr. Corby is presenting the "Philosophy of Christian Science," "New Thought," "Divine Science," and the related groups, not in a controversial way, but in a sympathetic study for their best and most practical contribution to modern thought, and is showbution to modern thought, and is show-ing the relation of the "Broad Church" to these ideas. Large audiences have heard the early addresses and are fol-lowing with keen interest the friendly and instructive presentation at the Irvington Church.

There's a love story that threads right along in the main story and naturally the important roles in its unraveling fall to Mr. Conness and the at a concert yesterday afternoon at the Y. M. C. walter Kelly also a newcomer, steps right in and makes a fine appearance as Gabby Gallagher, foreman of the rival ranch. Bernard Savage is the crooked racer, who agrees to fall down so that Speed can win. William Bernard comes in for a moment and forgets his dignity as superintendent of the Flying Heart ranch, A. C. Perkins as the real racer and Claude Archer as a Chinese cook round out the list of men in the cast. Of the women the author and playwright have not thought to great extent, because their roles are subordinated. Bestder Alice roles are subordinated. Besides Alice Fleming as the heroine, Helen Blake, there is Mary Edgett, who gives one of her characteristically delightful porterday morning for interment, his former home. He was 67 years of age and an old resident. The funeral will be held at Hood River this morning at 10 o'clock.

Ten East Side Clergymen Discuss Auditorium.

CENTRAL POINT FAVORED

Dr. Corby Comments on Ease With Which Land Products Show Could Be Reached and Conments on Advantage.

Erection of the auditorium at once o it may be ready for the Christian Citizenship convention, which will be held in Portland next Summer, on a site where it may be within reach of the majority of the people, was urged from the pulpits of ten churches yester-day on the East Side. Several of the ministers urged that a site be selected at some central point on the East Side, giving as a reason that a majority of the people now live in that portion of the city.

Rev. Delmaer H. Trimble spoke briefly at the morning service in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church concerning the auditorium and declared that its the deleved longer. erection ought not to be delayed longer. He considered that a site near Holla-He considered that a site near Holla-day and Grand avenues would be most desirable. Rev. J. H. Bennett, of the Methodist Church South, spoke of the auditorium at both services and advo-cated its erection on the East Side of

As the prelude for his morning sermon at the Universalist Church of the Good Tidings, at Broadway and East Twenty-fourth streets, Rev. James D. Corby spoke of the urgent need of a public auditorium for the city. In the course of his remarks, he said:

"In visiting the Land Show, I was struck with the ease and convenience of reaching the building, in strong contrast with going over to the Gipsy Smith auditorium or other remote locations.

"We need an adequate public auditor-said: "I am asked to say a few words about the erection and location of the proposed public auditorium. After careful study of the situation, I have become convinced that the auditorium should be built at once on a site secured on the East Side of the Williamette River. Already more than two-thirds of the population is here and more coming. The car facilities are here and the immediate need of the auditorium is here. It seems to me that the auditorium might as well be built in the Tualatin Valley as at Nineteenth and Washington streets. It should be built where the majority of the people now live, on the East Side. I think that we can only hope to get the auditorium in time for the great Christian Citizenship convention by building it on the East Side, where a site may be purchased and the building erected with the funds which the taxpayers have already provided without calling on them for more money."

Working Classes to Be Considered. "If we are to build the auditorium where it can be reached by the masses," said Rev. J. J. Staub last night, at the Sunnyside Congregational Church, "it should be built where the people live, said kev. J. J. Sangatanai Church, "It should be built where the people live, where men and women may walk to it and that place is on the East Side. It is a fact that the Gipsy Smith Tabernacle is largely a failure because it is too remote from the center of population and the meetings held there were largely a failure because it is too remote. The working classes cannot travel so far to reach the auditorium. It should be as near the center of population as possible. The main portion of the population of Portland is on the East Side and there are places where sites may be purchased at once and the building erected without waiting for another bond issue."

Remarks on the adultorium were another bond issue."

Remarks on the adultorium were made by Rev. C. L. Hamilton, at Mount Tabor Methodist Episcopal Church: Rev. J. K. Hawkins, Sellwood Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. W. H. Fry, Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal Church; Rev. W. G. Moore, Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church, and others.

EX-SCHOOL SITE ADVOCATED

Mrs. John F. Logan Proposes Old

Lincoln High Location.

Feminine ingenuity has worked out a method practically to "get around" the cost of a site for the proposed municipal auditorium and has made suggestion for the use of the old Lincoln High School block as a site. Mrs. John F. Logan has advanced the idea. "The high school already belongs to us and will furnish a site not only large enough, but situated nearly in accordance with the recommendations of the Bennett Plans and in a section of the city where the surroundings are excellent and the car service from all parts of the city is good," says Mrs. Logan.

There is nothing to prevent school district No. 1 from leasing this property to the city—and it can be leased for a term of 39 years, if so desired, at $1 a year. Thus the cost of a site is practically eliminated and the commission will have available all of the $600,000 will have available all of the $600,000 voted by the people to expend on the

"I do not favor the Market block for an auditorium site for I do not think it is in as convenient a part of the city where it will be easy of access from all other sections of the city.
