

EUROPE MAY AVOID GENERAL OUTBREAK

Evidence That Germany and Great Britain Are Unit for Peace Reassures.

GREECE CAUSES MISGIVING

Reluctance to Sign Armistice Is Due to Jealousy Against Bulgaria. Protocol May Be Completed Today.

LONDON, Dec. 2.—The Imperial Chancellor's statement on the European situation together with that of Herr von Kiderling-Wachter, the German Foreign Secretary, confirming that Great Britain and Germany are co-operating amicably in favor of peace, is regarded in European capitals as reassuring and likely to have an effect when the peace delegates begin to discuss terms.

Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg's declaration of the solidarity of the triple alliance, which it is reported has just been renewed for another term of years, and his announcement of Germany's determination to uphold Turkey in an economic sense, is likely to influence the delegates of all countries concerned to discuss peace conditions in the spirit of moderation already shown in the armistice negotiations.

Attitude of Greece Disquieting. Although there is no change tonight in the actual situation, some misgiving is beginning to be expressed with regard to the attitude of Greece.

Various reasons are assigned for Greek reluctance to sign the armistice. According to the Greek Minister at Paris, Greece opposes the proposal that the beleaguered garrisons shall be provisioned during the armistice and thinks that the allies ought to have insisted upon their surrender.

Jealousy Known to Exist

There is no doubt that jealousy exists between Greece and Bulgaria. Greece asserts that the Greek fleet played an important role in the armistice and in preventing Turkey from moving her troops by sea and that without her naval assistance the allies could not have achieved such a brilliant success. The race between the Greeks and the Bulgarians for the occupation of Saloniki and the incidents which followed this increased the ill-feeling and the Greeks now consider their interests as being sacrificed in the peace negotiations.

It is expected the armistice protocol will be signed some time tomorrow but it is possible this may be further delayed.

Roumania May Enter Conflict

The Daily Telegraph prints the following dispatch from Bucharest: "Roumania is working diplomatically and also is making military preparations to support her claims for some part in the partition of Turkey as a reward for her neutrality. If these wishes are not satisfied Roumania will proceed with military intervention."

In a dispatch from Constantinople the correspondent of the Daily Mail says the delay in effecting an armistice seems to be due to the Greeks desiring the surrender of Janina to themselves and Scutari to the Montenegrins, and to their objection to raising the blockade on the Aegean coast.

BAKER HOST TO FARMERS

Convention, Holding First Session Today, Notable One.

BAKER, Or., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—The third annual convention of the Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union was opened today in this city with the meeting of the executive board of the association.

The convention, which actually has its first session tomorrow, will be the most notable in many ways of any yet held. None of the preceding conventions have ever been attended by as many notable farmers as there is in Baker this year. President Barrett, of the National Association, will be the most important personage of the group and his address tomorrow night is looked forward to with a great deal of interest on the part of the Baker farmers.

VANCOUVER IS DRY TODAY

Electors Will Vote on Special Bond Issue for Parks.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 2.—(Special.)—Vancouver will be a dry town tomorrow while the city election is being held, and the electors vote on the special bond issue for $30,000 for proposed park purposes. The election will be unique in that the Citizens' ticket, placed in the field the day after the general election, November 5, will not be in existence, the candidates one by one dropping off until but Dr. H. W. Arnold, candidate for Mayor, remained, and he withdrew Saturday. Mayor Irwin will be re-elected without opposition.

Sulzer, New York; Cox, Ohio; Robinson, Arkansas; and Hanna, North Dakota.

No business was transacted by the Senate, but a number of bills and resolutions were introduced in the House. A joint committee was named by two houses to notify President Taft that Congress was ready to receive his communications.

Senator Bacon, presiding officer of the Senate, appointed Senators Cullom and Martin, and Speaker Clark named Representatives Underwood of Alabama, Mann of Illinois and Johnson of Kentucky.

Senate Republicans held an informal conference in an effort to solve the tangle that has prevented the selection of a permanent presiding officer of the Senate.

Gallinger May Be Elected.

It is expected that a Republican caucus will be held before the end of the week, and that an effort will be made to obtain enough support from Progressives and insurgent Republican Senators to bring about the election of Senator Gallinger.

The House will convene at noon tomorrow. Roll call in the two houses today showed 84 Senators present out of a membership of 98, and 375 representatives out of a membership of 551. There are three vacancies in each branch.

The first bill offered in the House today was to pension former Presidents of the United States and their widows. It was by Representative De Forest of New York, and would provide for a former President $2000 a month. A widow of a former President would receive $1000 a month during her widowhood. A minor child or children of a former President under the age of 31 years, with parents both dead, would get $200 a month.

CONVICT Baffles JUDGE

MAN WITH 20-YEAR SENTENCE REFUSES TO TESTIFY.

When Court Threatens Contempt Proceedings Prisoner Calls Attention to Long Term.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 2.—What is a court to do when a convict who is serving a 20-year term says he neither will swear nor affirm to tell the truth in a case where another convict's life hangs in the balance?

This question was presented today to Judge Hughes, after the trial of Convict Samuel E. Swearingin, charged with having assaulted Convict William Robinson with a knife, was begun. Convict Jordan had been brought from Folsom Prison to testify for the people in the case. He declined to tell what his Christian name was, to take an oath or affirmation or to discuss the case.

Judge Hughes mentioned contempt of court, and Jordan wanted to know, "What are you going to do about it?" "I'm serving a 20 years' sentence in that prison. What more can you do to me by giving me a sentence for contempt of your court?" he asked.

Jordan won his point and stepped from the witness stand without answering any questions that referred to the assault.

FEDERAL OWNERSHIP AIM

Postal Tube System Owners Want Government to Buy Property.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Representatives of the American Pneumatic Service Company appeared today before a special Senate committee of which Senator Guggenheim, of Colorado, is chairman, to urge that the Government purchase the postal pneumatic tube systems in New York, Chicago, Boston and St. Louis. The commission was told that this company, through subsidiaries, had invested about $2,500,000 in the four cities, and would be willing to sell at a fair valuation to be agreed upon after investigation by Government experts.

Charles Hayden, representing the company, said the postal tube service was essentially a Government enterprise, and that his company desired to sell out because, unless its contracts were renewed for long periods, the property would revert to the cities, depriving them of the rights of way and other benefits. The Government pays $17,000 a mile for the use of the tubes under contracts entered into by the Post-office Department.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

The Best Made

"We have been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past month and consider it an indispensable. Its effect is almost instantaneous, and there is no use talking, it is a dead shot on a cough or cold. We do not say this for pay but because we consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best made, and want the people to know it and use it." —Columbus Safeguard, Columbus Junction, Iowa.

The above is the first written testimonial as to the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It was published as an editorial almost forty years ago. At that time the sale and use of this remedy was confined to a few counties in Iowa. It now enjoys a world-wide reputation, and many thousands have testified to its excellence and agree with the editor of the Safeguard that "it is the best made" for coughs and colds.
