After a conference with Governor Dix and Attorney-General Carmody, Con-troller Solumer on November 21, notified General Sickles that "under no circum-stances will an extension of time for this settlement be granted beyond De-cember 4." Not having heard from General Sickles by December 6 the Controller wrote Attorney-General Carmody that a shortage of $25,246 existed, and referred that matter "for such action as you may deem necessary." On December 7 the Controller re-ceived a letter from General Sickles asking a further brief extension of time. "I beg your kind indulgence until December 26." he wrote, "when I am confident I shall be able to obtain a loan on my three houses and lots on Fifth avenue and Ninth street." Attorney-General Carmody advised Controller Sohmer to grant the exten-sion. The commission held a meeting in

Ross Accused of Being Spy.

Ross and that after Wachtmeister had "talked too much," he (Ross) was called to a meeting of union officials. including Frank J. Murphy and Clar-ence E. Dowd, and asked whether he was not a spy for non-union contrac-tors.

He said later he dictated to William

He said later he dictated to winnam P. Quigley a letter to Hiram Cline. Muncie, Ind., organizer for the Carpen-ters' Union, calling the explosions off. Quigley denied today he ever had written the letter and when the Gov-ernment produced what purported to be the letter, Quigley said it was not in his handwriting.

Ross' Testimony Denied.

Several other witnesses, who said Several other witnesses, who said they were present at the meeting re-ferred to by Ross, denied Ross' testi-mony that the union officials met be-cause they were "frightened." "Ross came to that meeting and we asked him why he had been circulating reports that we were going to be ar-rested." Quigley said. "He apologized. He said he was a sheet metal worker, and we asked him how he was making a living. He de-clared a Congressman was paying him to do political work." Wachtmeister testified he never had received $75 as a part of a fund to pay a body three months ago because of the tangled affairs of the commission, but he had refused to accept their resignations. The Governor expressed the belief that the matter would be straightened out to the satisfaction of all concerned. He said he had been advised that the other members of the commission were responsible with Gen-eral Sickles for the proper expenditure of its funds. received $75 as a part of a fund to pay for explosions, and he never had a "black eye" as it was said he received for "talking too much." He said he and Hockin had visited a non-union job in an effort to have it unionized, but he knew nothing of explosions. "Did you ever hear of Hockin being concerned in an explosion in Detroit in June, 1997?" asked District Attorney Miller.

"I never heard of it," Wachtmeister replied. 'BRIDGIE' CANNOT SLEEP
