PEOPLES SHOWING DRAMA

POPE SENDS CABLE of this exceedingly strong novel of Miss Braddon's. "A Family Mix-Up" is a Keystone comedy that tells of the troubles that overtook two flirtatious hubbles. Another Keystone, "A Midnight Elopement," is, if possible, even better. "The Three Kings of Harmony" succeed in presenting another new song programme, while "Miss Hazel George" in ballad singing, is exceedingly pleasing.

THE MORNING OREGONIAN, THURSDAY, DECEMBER

George" in ballad singing, is exceedingly pleasing.

The Star, in its 3-reel film, "Dr. Gar-el-Hama," gives a feature far better than many that have appeared before. "Gaumont's Weekly" is of unusual excellence.

Seven distinct attractions make the Arcade bill a hummer. "A Double Reward," a broncho, is a Western subject, but it is good. "The Law of God" is an American, a drama with some unusually fine scenic effects.

Sunday's attractions will he: People's, "The Elephant Sleuth," a Gaumont drama; Star, "Tracked by Wireless," another great 3-reel feature along new lines; Arcade, "Blood Will Tell."

TINA LERNER WINS AUDIENCE IN SECOND CONCERT.

Dainty Russian Musician Presents Programme From Old Masters to Delight of Large Gathering.

For a second time this week, and in this city, Tina Lerner, the Russian planist, has scored a distinguished suc-cess in plano recital, under the auspices of the Portland Musical Association, of which Mrs. Warren E. Thomas is pres-ident and Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer is vice-president.

the Portland management determined on a daring innovation—a second concert. The latter took place yesterday afternoon in Christensen's Hall, where acoustic properties are notable for their excellence, and she won out, with a new programme consisting of selections by Chopin, Rubenstein, Mozart, Gluck-Saint Saens, Dohnanyi, Hinton and Tschaikowsky-Pabst.

Miss Lerner's playing was greated

Gluck-Saint Saens, Dohnanyi, Hinton and Tschaikowsky-Pabst.

Miss Lerner's playing was greeted with marked enthusiasm. She is a quiet, finished pianist and her piano work suggests rose petals or singing birds rather than Niagara-like dynamics of the Paderewski order. Paderewski's art is so masterful, so gigantic, that he is halled with cheers. Lerner's art is so quiet and delicate that she stirs the inner soul. Her playing also resembles that of De Pachmann, without De Pachmann's eccentricities. Miss Lerner won several recalls, but she did not choose to play extra numbers. The event was an invitation one, open to subscribers of the course of concerts. The attendance tested the seating capacity of the hall, and, as one of the audience, Mrs. S. Hirsch, said. "It is the best concert of its kind ever given in Portland."
