EDDIE MENSOR, the speedy little fielder of the Pittsburgh Club, who is passing the Winter in Portland, was called suddenly to San Francisco Tuesday night, by the illness of his mother. He will be absent about a fortnight.

Fred Snodgrass has been offered the position of Mr. Bones in a minor league. He is a man who insists that Fletcher and Merkel are more entitled to the bill.

Mike Gibbons says he was fouled by McGorty in their New York mill, which acts slowed him up. But those persons indigenous to the box office at the seedlings, say that something worse than that occurred to them.

The "three heats, every heat a race" system is gaining ground. By unanimous vote of the Western Association of the Training Horse Breeders, the Western Breeders' Futurity will consist of three heats, every heat a race.

For one entire week after the Chicago White Sox got into training next spring, no player is to be allowed to put on a glove or mitt. Manager Calhoun believes that this will eradicate most of the sore arms, which by throwing too swiftly at the start.

It is rumored back East that Bill Carrigan, the veteran Red Sox catcher, is to succeed Larry Schifley as manager of the Jersey City team in the International League. Schifley is the old "Burrhead" player who jumped to fame through the medium of an unassisted triple play on the local lot.

Lou Nordyke, the old Spokane and Victoria star, is passing the Winter at Tacoma. He says his injured leg is as good as ever and expects to get back into harness next season.

Jimmy Clark, the former University of Washington pitcher, who starred with Vancouver last season, is a hold-over for the Chicago Americans offered him $213 a month, and he says he'll be dimmed if he'll play for that munificent sum.

NEW YORK IS MADE PROGRESSIVES' HUB

Selection of Headquarters Is Acclaimed by Many as Victory for Perkins.

FINANCE PLAN ADOPTED

Hundred Subscriptions of $500 a Year Each to Be Asked For and Commission Will Be Sent to Europe to Study.

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—New York was selected as the permanent headquarters of the executive committee of the Progressive party tonight, after a fight in which delegates to the National Progressive conference from several states sought to have the headquarters located elsewhere. The vote on this question stood 33 to 12.

Members of the executive committee from Ohio, Wisconsin, Michigan, Illinois, New Hampshire and Montana voted against the resolution because they said the resolution was not sufficiently comprehensive.

Perkins Meets Claim Victory. By many of the delegates the selection of New York was received as a victory for George W. Perkins and his friends, against whom some opposition had developed.

It was decided to establish a permanent publicity and legislative bureau at Washington. The executive committee voted to send a commission to Europe to study legislation in England, Germany and other countries for the purpose of getting material for the Washington legislative bureau.

Senator Dixon, of Montana, chairman of the executive committee, was empowered to name this commission. He said he would appoint Medill McCormick and Dr. Walter E. Weyl as two of the members.

Adams Plan Adopted in Part. The executive committee adopted the principles contained in the Jane Adams plan for the organization and financing of the Progressive campaign. The Adams plan was not adopted in its entirety, because it was believed to be too large an undertaking at this time.

For the immediate financing of headquarters and bureaus, it was decided to ask for 100 subscriptions of $500 a year. Six of these, totaling $3000, were subscribed tonight. They came from the state organizations of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Michigan, Vermont, Delaware and Pennsylvania. It is proposed to get 42 more of these subscriptions from the remaining states or organizations and to secure the rest from individuals.

Financial Support Promised. Governor Bass, of New Hampshire; Matthew Hale, of Massachusetts; Louis D. Dixon, of Delaware; William P. H. of Pennsylvania, and Gustavus B. Pope, of Michigan, were quick in assuring financial support.
