Polish Lassie Stolen From Sweetheart Recovered.

ABDUCTOR IS NOW IN JAIL

Tragedy Follows Courtship by Mail When Young Man's Acquaintance Secure's Girl's Picture and Meets Her at Train.

cottage, armed with two revolvers, when the officers knocked, but he was not allowed to make any use of them, being overpowered before he could shoot. The girl, frightened and weep-ing, was placed in the care of the police matron.

Through a correspondence courtship,
Joseph Alzberg, a laborer in Seattle,
and the girl, who lived at his home town, Rosleny, near Kovna, Poland, were engaged to be married. Alzberg sent a ticket to her to come to Seattle.
Mereckes, hearing of the arrangement,
stole a picture of the girl and awaited her coming. She was to recognize Alzher coming. She was to recognize Alz-berg by a photo which he had sent her. When she arrived Mereckes approached her, but when she said that he was not the man in the photograph, he told her he had been working in a mine, and had changed in appearance. Half be-lieving, she went with him.

He kept her out of the reach of Pollsh people in Seattle and in Bremer-ton, where they went in two days, and in a week hurried her on a train for Portland, where they have been for more than three months.

Mereckes was formerly a watchma the Navy-Yard at Bremerton. He is held in the County Jail without bail. The Seattle authorities were notified.

Breakwater Keeps Inside Bay.

Almost for the first time in the history of the sailing of the steamer Breakwater between Portland and Coo-Bay, she is barbound at Coos Bay and did not arrive here yesterday on sched-ule. With the prevalent southeast gale it must have made the Coos Bay unisually rough or Captain Macgenn would have brought the Breakwater through on schedule time. No report was re-ceived from Coos Bay last night, so it is possible that the vessel may be de-tained from other causes, possibly as-sisting another vessel in distress.
