GLENN GROUT'S FUNERAL HELD.—The funeral of Glenn Grout, of North Bend, Or., a student of Washington High School, who died at St. Vincent's Hospital of typhoid fever supposed to have been contracted by drinking water at Oregon City two weeks ago, was conducted yesterday at the Third Presbyterian Church. There was a large attendance of the young man's classmates from Washington High School and many beautiful flowers were received. The pallbearers were partly from the high school and friends of the family. Rev. A. L. Hutchison conducted the services. The young man was born at Oregon City, and his parents live at North Bend. He is survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Grout, and a brother A. R. Grout, of the University of Oregon. Mrs. M. M. Benford, of Portland, is a sister

J. J. Fowler to Be Buried Today.—Funeral services for the late John J. Fowler, who died from a stroke of apoplexy in Spokane suddenly last Thursday, will be held from Skewes' undertaking parlors at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Fowler was traveling salesman for the Clarke-Woodward Drug Company, of this city, for a period of 17 years and was one of the oldest drug salesmen "on the road," being 62 years old at the time of his death. Mr. Fowler is survived by six children, four sons and two disughters, as follows: Dr. O. S. Fowler, Frank Fowler and Mrs. Charles Michael, of this city; Ward Fowler, of Enterprise; Miss Reatha Fowler and Ward Fowler, of North Yakima, Wash.

KAMM RIRAI [S TODAY]

By JOSEPH M. QUENTIN.

Original, refreshing and often light-ened with pleasant humor. These phrases describe a programme offered by David Bispham, the noted American baritone. In a concert given at the Hellig Theater yesterday afternoon under the direction of Eugene Kuester. The audience was large, and kindly disposed toward the singer. There were many encores.

Mr. Bispham is clearly a Portland favorite, who has plenty of experience, common sense and vocal talent to help him make his concerts popular and artistic successes. He was born in Philadelphia, January 5, 1857—so you see he is entitled to wear an air of experience in musical matters. He now gives what may be called a lecture-recital.

Coffee Percolators

It has been demonstrated that the best way to make a good cup of coffee is by using a percolating coffee pot. One of the advantages is economy—only one-half of the amount of coffee is necessary with the M. B. Perculator that is required by any other. Finely nickelplated, they make a good appearance on the table. They are also made for store use. We offer them for all this week at special prices, as follows: Four-cup capacity, regular $3.50, special ... $2.95 Six-cup capacity, regular $4.00, special $3.45 Nine-cup capacity, regular $4.50, special $3.90 Use our TURKISH COFFEE with these coffee pots, and you have achieved perfection. Even a novice can get good results.

TO MAKE GOOD TEA

You should remove the leaves from the liquor immediately after they have steeped six minutes. With the ordinary teapot this is diffi-cult, but by the use of the TEA BALL TEAPOT it is accomplished in an instant. Special prices this week.

Large size, regular $5.50, special$4.40 Medium size, regular $5.00, special$4.10 These articles make elegant Christmas presents that would be appreciated in any family.
