

WOOD LAYS PLANS FOR INAUGURATION

Thousands of Troops From Various Army Posts to Be Sent to Capital.

MILITIA TO BE INVITED

Army Travel Appropriation Having Been Reduced Greatly, Special Appropriation by Congress May Be Necessary.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Major-General Leonard Wood, Chief of Staff, who has just been named as chief marshal of the approaching inauguration parade, has begun to outline his plans for a military, naval and civic demonstration.

The selection of General Wood to undertake this task is in line with precedent which, for the last several Administrations, has led to the selection of the senior Army officer on the active list in Washington regardless of political affiliations. It happened that the military features of President Taft's inauguration were in charge of Major-General Bell, while the late Lieutenant-General Corbin performed a similar function at the last inauguration of Theodore Roosevelt.

Well-Balanced Parade Desired.
General Wood's purpose is to make the Wilson inauguration parade as well balanced as possible in the representation of the Army, the bluejackets and marines of the Navy and adequate and liberal representation of the National Guard and a well-proportioned civic display.

Consultations began today between General Wood and the ranking officers of the Army and Navy now in Washington and correspondence has been begun between the chief marshal and the Governors and Adjutant-Generals of the various states and territories in regard to the participation of the militia in the inauguration.

Army Will Require Funds.
One of the features of the plan is to send troops from the various Army posts, probably as far West as Chicago and South to Atlanta, as well as the entire cadet corps and midshipmen battalion from their respective academies.

This will involve the War Department in considerable expense on account of transportation and as that particular appropriation has been greatly reduced, owing to recent extensive changes of station of officers and troops, it may be necessary to apply to Congress immediately upon its reconvening next week for a deficiency appropriation.

TOWNSMEN TO ESCORT WILSON

Members of Militia Company Getting Bright New Uniforms.

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 26.—Down Pennsylvania avenue as he rides with President Taft, President-elect Wilson probably will be escorted in the inaugural parade by 80 of his fellow townsfolk and neighbors. Members of Company L, Second regiment, of the New Jersey National Guard, already are getting new uniforms and preparing to participate in the inaugural parade as the personal escort of Mr. Wilson.

This company was founded here by Colonel William Libbey, Princeton '77, now a member of the Governor's staff. In the parade two years ago when Mr. Wilson became Governor they served as his personal escort.

Marcus Farr, Princeton '92, and a professor of geology in the University, is captain of the company and it is composed for the most part of young men of the town whom Mr. Wilson has known for the last 20 years. Though the President-elect has not yet made any announcement, the boys of Company L feel sure they will be chosen.

The Governor also has not yet decided what organization will lead in the inaugural parade. He has had many requests from crack troops of a dozen or more military schools throughout the country.

SMALLPOX UNDER CONTROL

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Rigid steps by the Public Health Service have brought under control a threatened serious outbreak of smallpox along the West Virginia-Maryland border. Dr. R. S. Warren, detailed to investigate the situation, who returned to Washington today, reported 11 cases in the vicinity of Martinsburg, W. Va. These cases, all within from three to ten miles of the city, are under proper control. All suspected persons in the region will be vaccinated and kept under observation for 15 days, if necessary.

WIRELESS SPANS COUNTRY

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—For the first time in history wireless Christmas greetings last night were flashed from the Mare Island Navy yard at San Francisco to Washington. The message was from Captain Mayo, commandant of the Mare Island Navy yard, and was received by the giant radio station at Arlington.

It conveyed the wishes of Captain Mayo and other officers at the Navy yard to the Secretary of the Navy and the officers of the Navy and Marine Corps at the White House, and a happy New Year.

since election, also talks from Staunton, from which place as a boy he ran away to sea and won a medal of honor from Congress for safely navigating an American war vessel and saving it from destruction in a hurricane off the Samoan Islands in 1889.

Mrs. Wilson will go with the President-elect. She said tonight that while his health had improved, she had thought it a bit risky for him to make the trip to Staunton, on account of the cold weather.

Dr. J. M. Carnochan, the family physician, saw the Governor for a few minutes early in the day, but did not think another visit necessary until early tomorrow. It is unlikely that the Governor will make any more automobile trips to and from Trenton in the cold weather, although his indisposition is believed to be as much the result of the quick change from the STAUNTON, Va., Dec. 26.—Visitors from various parts of the country began to arrive here today for the celebration in honor of the home-coming of President-elect Wilson, which will begin on his arrival in Staunton tomorrow night and conclude Saturday night. The arrival of every train augmented the crowd of visitors, and by tomorrow it is expected the city will be thronged. Every precaution has been taken to safeguard the President-elect. A large detective force is here and policemen from other cities will assist in maintaining order. In order to prevent Governor Wilson from catching cold during the big parade, which he will review on Saturday, the reviewing stand will be inclosed with glass and heated. Mrs. Wilson will be tendered a reception Saturday by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

Plans were completed at Alexandria, Va., today which will be the first stop on the President-elect on his way to Staunton, for tendering him a big reception. Although his train will stop only for

LEAGUE DEMANDS LAW ENFORCEMENT IN CHICAGO.

Saloons Declared to Have Understanding They Can Violate Ordinance New Year's Eve.

CHICAGO, Dec. 26.—Special officers will be provided to aid the police in enforcing the 1 o'clock closing ordinance for the New Year's eve. If there are not enough regular members of the force to prevent violations, E. J. Davis, superintendent of the Chicago Department of the Anti-Saloon League, in a letter to Chief Mcweeney in a letter today.

The letter was prompted by a statement by Chief Mcweeney, in which he declared there were not enough policemen to watch every saloon in Chicago for possible closing ordinance violations and at the same time keep other crime in check.

"Crooks are smart; they are looking for just such plays on the part of the police," the Chief said. "If you are short of police to enforce the closing ordinance," the letter said, "and will issue an order that the ordinance must be strictly enforced and that any saloon that violates the ordinance will lose its license, this organization, co-operating with the Chicago Law and Order League, will undertake to supply the men to see that evidence of any violations of your order is furnished."

HOLIDAY MAIL IS PROMPT

Work Performed With Less Confusion Than in Recent Years.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—Although the holiday mail was heavier in every section of the country than ever before, the work of handling it was performed with less congestion and confusion than in previous years, according to reports received today by Postmaster-General Hitchcock.

Slight interruptions were reported in a few sections of the country on account of weather conditions. A larger force than usual was put on this year to handle the Christmas mail, in order that the capacity of the service could be tested in anticipation of the establishment of the parcel post system, which becomes operative throughout the service January 1.

Reports made to Mr. Hitchcock show that holiday mail was delivered early on Christmas day and conditions were generally normal throughout the service on Christmas night.

PRUNE RATE FORCED DOWN

Express Company Cuts Far Under That of Parcel Post.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—The express companies have been compelled by the Government to cut down their rates, it was learned today through the agency of the parcel post.

Dr. Charles P. Grandfield, First Assistant Postmaster-General, recently returned from a stay in Los Angeles, Cal., after the announcement that the latter proposed to send by parcel post two carloads of prunes to New York. It was a "frank" shipment and the rate on eight-pound boxes. The rate would have been 86 cents. The express companies promptly cut their rate to 55 cents. Dr. Grandfield believes that the parcel post will return will force express rates down to "rock bottom."

The policy was issued by the defendant's New York agents in 1926.

POISON SWALLOWED BY YOUNG WOMAN

When Sweetheart Neglects Her for Other Girls at Dance.

HALFWAY, Or., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—Miss Birdie Robbins, a young woman about 21 years old, who has been teaching school for several months past in Pine Valley, probably is dying as a result of poison taken after her sweetheart failed to pay attention to her. Miss Robbins has been keeping company with a prominent young man of Halfway for some time, but recently a disagreement of some kind caused a break in their relations temporarily. Last night Miss Robbins went to a Christmas ball, but found that the young man totally neglected her, apparently showing a decided preference for the other young women.

Miss Robbins soon left the ballroom and went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Stalker, where she was visiting. In a short time Mrs. Stalker noticed that she was acting strangely and went to her room and learned of the suicide attempt.

Dr. Eastman and Hewitt were summoned and have been working with her the greater part of today. They say that as yet it is impossible to determine whether she will live.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—Within 40 minutes after holding Scott Swetland, manager of the J. K. Armsby Packing Company, Patrolman McCurdy walked two suspects into the police station while Mr. Swetland was still there telling his story, and they were identified by him. They only succeeded in getting a pocket-knife, purse and 15 cents from the Vancouver capitalist and the pocket-knife was found on one and the purse on the other prisoner.

The men gave their names as James Cameron and Joseph Lane. Cameron says he is 29 years old and was released from the Linton rockpile November 5, after serving a 20-day sentence for vagrancy, and Lane gave his age as 22, and said he was released from the Kelly Butte prison December 17, where he served a 20-day sentence. He says he is from Wisconsin and admitted having served 22 months in the State Reformatory there.

Both men say they arrived in Vancouver last night from Portland and stopped at the Homewood rooming-house. They refuse to discuss any operations in Portland.
