

DYNAMITE SPECIAL ON WAY TO PRISON

Convicted Conspirators Under Heavy Guard on Journey to Leavenworth.

FAMILIES MAY GET AID

Ironworkers' Official Says Union Will Act at Next Convention. Marshal Not Alarmed but Takes Precautions.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 31.—Communication with those aboard the "dynamite special" was forbidden tonight when the train bearing the 33 convicted union men to the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth passed through St. Louis.

Deputy United States Marshals guarded each platform. The shades of the windows were drawn. No one was allowed even to approach the platform.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 31.—With the departure this afternoon of the special train bearing 33 convicted dynamite conspirators to the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., the scenes of activity in the famous case shifted. The next move here will come Thursday morning, when Federal District Judge Anderson will rule on the motions of the defense for a writ of superseas and of error.

Judge Seaman, of the Circuit Court of Appeals, will be here Thursday and has announced that he will consider the subject of an appeal for writs to prevent the incarceration in Leavenworth prison of the 33 men, who yesterday received sentences ranging from one year and one day to seven years.

Families to Be Cared For. J. E. McClary, of Cleveland, acting secretary-treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, of which 32 of the prisoners are officers or former officers, and Edward Lewis, of San Francisco, executive board member, the only two officials of the union out of custody, said this afternoon that efforts would be made to take care of the wives and families of the prisoners. McClary said official action to supply aid would be taken at the next convention of the organization.

Just before the start for the train was made, Marshall Schmidt called 50 deputies together and outlined to them the rules that would govern the officers on the trip.

No Chances to Be Taken. "This is no picnic party," said the Marshal. "It is my duty to deliver the prisoners at Fort Leavenworth prison and I intend to do so. I do not expect trouble, as the men do not get as severe sentences as some thought they would. We can't take any chances, however."

"No man must do a thing that will reflect on this movement, that will detract from the grandeur the Government has shown in meeting out justice. I do not believe any man among you will show the yellow feather, should action be demanded."

"No nippers are to be used. I want to treat these prisoners like men, as their conduct has been. Take the man by the coat sleeve and keep hold of his arm."

Marshal Schmidt said the prisoners would not be handcuffed tonight unless the occasion demanded.

FRENCH MAYOR ARRESTED

Robbery Said to Have Been Motive for Attack on Rich Woman.

PARIS, Dec. 31.—A sensation has been caused by the arrest of the Mayor of the suburban city of Gentilly on a charge of having attempted to murder two wealthy women.

The crime occurred on Saturday, when the assailant, according to the charges, gained access to the parlor of the villa at Perreux where the two elderly women, Madame Chabreux and Madame Solet, lived. He used a subterfuge to gain admittance and immediately rushed at the women and stabbed both of them. He then escaped.

The women were taken to the hospital in a serious condition. Perreux was arrested today and brought to the hospital.

As soon as the women saw him, both shrieked, "He is the assassin!" The motive of the crime is supposed to have been robbery.

SOLDIERS NOT GIVEN UP

Stimson Decides Not to Turn Accused Troopers Over to State.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—Secretary of War Stimson today decided to refuse to deliver up to the state of Texas for trial the six soldiers of the Fourteenth Cavalry, stationed at Fort Clarke, Tex., who were charged with the Mexican and seriously wounding two others in a dancehall near the post November 5. The question of jurisdiction will now be decided by the Federal Supreme Court.

Colonel Sibley, commandant at that post, refused to surrender the men to the state courts on the ground that the military and civil tribunals had concurrent jurisdiction, and in view of the fact that the accused men already were being tried by court-martial, they would not be surrendered until the military process was completed.

CASTRO WILL NOT REMAIN

Castro sent out word through his valet that he was "very weary" after his voyage and had no statement to make. He added that he was in good health.

The exiled Venezuelan's baggage consisted of two small steamer trunks, a handbag and a hat box. All were plainly marked "General Cipriano Castro."

The ship's surgeon of La Touraine certified to the authorities that the condition of Castro's health was not entirely satisfactory.

While the deposed President of Venezuela is under detention, he is allowed by the Government nine cents a meal for his food. The steamship company pays for his maintenance at the rate of 50 cents a day. He is not prohibited from purchasing whatever may appeal to his palate from the restaurant used by the Government officials.

Special permission will be necessary if Castro is to return by a German whose people have a general interest and ownership in the public lands. He asked if it was not probable that the selection of a Secretary from the Middle West would give more general satisfaction.

Senator Chamberlain told the Governor that he thought a Far Western man could act impartially, and that from his practical knowledge of Western conditions, would make a more efficient head of the Interior Department than one selected from any other part of the country. He also said that the selection of an able and unbiased Western man would undoubtedly be to the credit of the administration.

From other sources it is learned that Mr. King has probably eliminated himself as other candidates from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California by reason of his active candidacy for the office of Secretary of the Interior. Mr. King's scramble for this office and the fact that he has been bringing to
