

ISRAEL ZANGWILL DEFENDS COLONEL

Famous Novelist Reveals Pre-Election Attitude of Roosevelt on Suffrage.

PEACE PROBLEM TALKED

International Harmony Is Moral Issue, Says Author of "The Melting Pot"—Change in Human Heart Needed, He Avers.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—The effect of the present suffrage movement in England is having effect everywhere before reaching England, said Israel Zangwill, the famous novelist, when I asked him what he thought of Colonel Roosevelt's efforts on behalf of woman's suffrage, as shown by the large vote cast for the ex-President in the recent election.

There is nothing formal about the acknowledged leader of literary Herewordom. In answer to my knock he opened the door himself. Pointing to a comfortable chair, he invited me to be seated. He had just finished dictating a pronouncement on foreign affairs to the representative of a leading Jewish newspaper.

Opponents See Attempt to Mislead and Create Dissatisfaction.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—Persistent efforts are being made to get some reliable information about the official inquiry into the case of Mr. Lloyd George. The committee was appointed with the approval of the Prime Minister, and that the Government saw the question which forms the basis of the secret inquiry.

ENGLAND FITS BAN ON IRISH CATTLE

Dublin Fair Ordered Discontinued and Harbor Board Files Remonstrance.

DUBLIN, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—Dis-may is the only word which adequately describes the feeling today among Irish cattle traders regarding the latest development in the foot-and-mouth disease epidemic. The closing of English ports to Irish cattle was, of course, anticipated from the statement of Mr. Runciman in the House of Commons recently, but it was not known sufficiently widely to prevent loss and inconvenience to those who brought cattle for the market usually held in Dublin every Thursday.

CONGO CRUELTY DENIED

ENGLISH WOMAN REPUDIATES SIR A. CONAN DOYLE.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. Marguerite Roby, who recently passed several months in the Lower Congo region, has returned to a visit to Brussels, where the details of her journey have been laid before the King of the Belgians. Mrs. Roby does not represent Belgian interests in any way, but is convinced that the stories of cruelty to the natives, so far as the Kasai district is concerned, are mainly unfounded.

SOCIALISTS ARE HOPEFUL

German Party, More United Than Previously, Seeks Reforms.

HAMBURG, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—As the dawn of another new year approaches, the million financial members of the German Social Democratic party are busy with conjectures as to what the future holds in store for them. With 110 Socialists sitting in the Reichstag, almost a third of the Imperial Parliament of the Fatherland, it is felt that progress along their chosen lines of legislation should be much quicker in the future than it has been in the past.

BOYNE BANNER IS CHEAP

DUBLIN, Jan. 1.—(Special.)—Irishmen the world over will be interested to hear of the sale at Stevens' Auction Rooms, Covent Garden, of an historic silken banner 120 years old and commemorating the battle of the Boyne.
