In addition to the jail sentence imposed on the three men they also were sentenced to pay fines of $500 each.

The Supreme Courtroom was crowded this morning when the court announced its decision. The opinion written by Justic Sullivan was concurred in by Chief Justice Stewart. It upheld the inherent right of courts to punish for contempt.

Justice Alishie Dissents.

Justice Alishie dissented from the opinion on the ground that the case was not pending at the time of the publication of the article in question. Although A. R. Cruzen in his answer to the court's charges, made affidavit that he was in no way connected with the paper, the sworn statement of the publisher made in compliance with the Federal law was introduced, showing the ownership of both stock and bonds of the company and the court held the ownership of both stock and bonds of the company and the court held Cruzen equally guilty with the pub-lisher and editor. When the court maked Broxon if he knew of any reason why sentence should not be pro-nounced, he replied: "None that this court will consider."

It is reported that representatives of the Hill and Gould lines discussed the clos-ing of the Ogden gateway to the Northwest by the Union Pacific. The policy went into effect Wednesday, and effectually shuts the Gould lines out of the Northwest. Mr. Young denied that there was any such reason for the conference. In regard to the report that the Hill linterests had entered into an agree-

EIGHT SALOONS STILL ILLEGAL AS STEEVES TAKES OFFICE.

Discovery of Obscure Ordinance Suddenly Makes Lachmund ex-Mayor and Licenses Are Unapproved.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 2 .- (Special.) -- Discovery of an obscure section of an obscure ordinance brought a new complication into the situation of eight apparently unlicensed saloons by making B. L. Steeves Mayor of Salem and Louis Lachmund ex-Mayor.

Everyone has been laboring under the assumption that Lachmund would hold office until January 6. This sec-tion of the ordinance, however, pro-vides that fall elective officials shall take office as soon after January 1 as take office as soon after January 1 as they qualify. All of the newly elected officers have qualified, and consequently Mr. Steeves is Mayor. The position is also the one taken by City Attorney Page. Ex-Mayor Lachmund said that the ordinance in his mind could bear no other construction, and acknowledged he is now ex-Mayor rather than Mayor.
