PORTLAND IS URGED TO DEFEND RIGHTS

Keynote Sounded at Chamber of Commerce Meeting Is "Act as Unit."

J. N. TEAL POINTS WAY

Local Jealousy Decried and Whole Columbia Basin Told to Join in Development Work-A. H .-Averill Elected President.

Declaring that existing transportation conditions in Portland "cannot be endured if Portland is to fulfill her destiny." J. N. Teal, addressing the Chamber of Commerce at its annual business meeting and banquet at the Commercial Club last night, urged the necessity of Portland business interests acting as a unit to bring about conditions such that the city may derive the "full benefits from its natural advantages." vantages."

No other city in the United States "No other city in the United States has so many natural advantages as Portland," he said, "and no other city falls so far short of reaping the full benefits from those advantages. Generally speaking a city situated as is Portland has some powerful transportation interest whose interests are common with the city's, and whose growth is more or less dependent upon and linked with that of the city. Such is not the case with us. Portland has never been the favored darling of any interest. What she has gained has been gained by her own efforts.

City Forced to Act Now. Portland is forced in self-defense to act and to act as a unit. Portland and the entire Columbia River basin must by some means secure the benemust by some means secure the benefits based upon their natural conditions. At this time every effort of the railways is used to prevent this. The rate structure as now framed is Intended to prevent it, and will, unless changed, irrevocably prevent it, and Portland must use her every effort to see that this is changed."

Portland must use her every effort to see that this is changed."

Mr. Teal declared that the City of Portland has in the past been too much finclined to ignore Astoria as a factor in the problem of her transportation and to overlook the Columbia River as a harbor. The result, he asserted, has been to turn an enormous volume of business to the Sound that might have been as well handled on the Columbia River, and to postpone for years the settlement of a question vital to the commercial and industrial growth of the city.

Local Jealousy Deeried,

"Let us come to realize that it is a matter not of the City of Portland alone, but of the whole Columbia River as and of the cities which ile upon the court to have a settlement of a question vital to the court in the city of the city.

Local Jealousy Deeried,
"Let us come to realize that it is a matter not of the City of Portland alone, but of the whole Columbia River Basin and of the cities which lie upon the court to the court to the court in the court in the court to the court in the c

alone, but of the whole Columbia River Basin and of the cities which lie upon the harbor of the Columbia clear down to the sea. There is no time nor room for local jealousy. I would like to see Astoria grow to a population of 100,000 while Portland makes her proportional advance, and not to see our city slip to second or third place in the commerce of the Northwest, because of any tendency to minimize tae importance or the relations between all of the communities in the Columbia Basin."

In speaking of railroad control of water lines, Mr. Teal declared that he believed the provisions of the Sherman
will only repeat his offense, the court has looked rather to the extremities of the familian and sessing the count that she was without means to maintain herself.

"He is a good husband when he is not drinking," she said, "but when he is drunk he beats me. I have no money and I cannot work because of my baby.
Can't you give him another chance?"
This is a condition that the court faces almost daily. In a score of cases in recent months, the importunities of wives and other dependents have prevailed to bring about the re-opening of such cases and the release of the prisoner. Well-knowing that

A resolution submitted for the trus-ters of the chamber by J. Fred Larson was unanimously adopted recommendliberal appropriations for the erection of buildings at the Panama-Pacific Ex-position in San Francisco and the Pan-ama-California Exposition in San Diego. W. W. Cotton offered a motion that the Chamber of Commerce take steps to present with a suitable token of ap-preciation the members of two lifesav-ing crews at the stations at the mouth of the Columbia River for their recent of the Columbia faiver for their recent gallant work. The answer of the mem-bers of the chamber when President Knapp put the question was a unani-mous affirmative, while every man in the roem sprang to his feet and joined in the cheers and applause that were given for the lifesavers.

CAMPAIGN TO AID PRISONERS' FAMILIES PLANNED.

Provision to Be Made for Dependents by Applying Rockpile Earnings to Support Needy.

Finding himself hampered at every turn in the dispensing of justice by the number of innocent heads upon which the penalties fall, Municipal Judge Tazwell announced yesterday that he will send a communication to the Mayor and City Council, urging the adoption of legislation by which men whose cases call for imprisonment can be given it without their wives and families suffering destitution. The magistrate says he will throw himself into an energetic campaign to further the measure.

The expedient proposed is, in its gen-

but, now that some original genius has set the pace, there seems to be no good reason why the money-lenders should not do a thriving business with the outlying places which know not the sign of the three gilded balls.

The pawning of the camera duly appeared on Detective La Salle's reports yesterday, with the notation that the article had been sent in by mail. Scenting a possible attempt to evade the scrutiny of the pawnshop squad, Detective Smith made inquiries and discovered that the transaction was in good faith. Lewis M. Dole Is Dead.

Word was received in Portland yes-terday of the death in Redlands, Cal., of Lewis M. Dole, deputy building in-spector and architect, who went to California for his health several months ago, with his wife, Mrs. Dalsy Dole, daughter of Councilman Dunning. Death was due to tuberculosis. Mr. Dole was connected with the architectural firm of Ertz & Dole, with offices in the Lumber Exchange build-ing. He was 27 years old and lived at 892 East Salmon street. Mr. Dole was a member of Portland Council, Knights of Columbus. The body will be brought to Portland for interment.

Gridiron Will Sizzle at Banquet and Installation Tonight.

In declamation and pantomime, or in tuneful adjuration, the admen will "pan" their officers and many of the leading citizens of Portland at the annual banquet and installation ceremonists tonight. The details of the programme have been kept secret by the committee, but they have sent word abroad that all whose feelings are easily hurt by "gridironing" had better stay away, or come with blinders on their eyes and cotton in their ears.

Seattle admen are coming in a special train, 50 strong, and will bring with them their own scenery for porformances, which they will spring from time to time by way of surprising their fellow admen of Portland. Spokane and Tacoma Ad Clubs are also sending large delegations.
