If not, you'll protect your estate—and serve the best interests of the beneficiary under your will by naming this company as your executor.

WOMEN REPORT ACTIVITY. Auxiliary to Harrisburg Improvement Club Tells of Success.

Among the many women's auxiliary commercial organizations in the state, which have sent to the Portland Commercial Club reports of their work for civic improvement within the past year, the women of the Harrisburg Improvement Club have a story of zealous effort.

Mrs. T. J. Anderson, secretary of the Women's Auxiliary of the Harrisburg Improvement Club, has just sent to W. L. Crissey, chief of the promotion bureau of the Portland Commercial Club, the following account of the recent work of the organization:

"The Women's Auxiliary of the Harrisburg Improvement Club, after waiting two years for the club to do something, concluded to start a potato show or carnival. Small prizes were offered for the best displays of potatoes and for different varieties of fruits, as well as fancy work, curios and vegetables.

The funds were raised by subscriptions of business men, sale of badges and refreshments and a small admission fee. The affair was a complete success. This year we have the exclusive concession from the city for outside amusements, which will be licensed. Consequently our prizes will be more liberal and we look forward to marked success."
