Principal among the improvements will be the establishment of a depot at West Sclo or Munkers for the receipt of all exhibits sent by freight which are crated or boxed. This will include sheep, goats, swine and poultry and they will be transported to and from the fair grounds free. Furthermore, a competent caretaker will be furnished without expense for all livestock to be exhibited, not accompanied by the owner or his representative.

Express matter will be handled with

In the poultry department all fowls will be scored and in addition to the regular premiums offered, a ribbon will be awarded on first, second and third birds.

Changes in the rules of the sheep and goat department were made. An elaborate race programme will be one of the features and many new free attractions will be featured. "Jungle Land" will have many novel amusement features.

The fair will be held one week prev-

CALERO IS OPPOSED TO MADERO POLICY

Former Mexican Ambassador to United States Tells Why He Resigned.

Ex-Diplomat Says Country on Verge of Abyss of Miscry--Weakness of Administration Blamed on Vice-President Suarez.

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 13 .- Don Manuel Calero, hitherto Mexican Ambassador to the United States unequivocally gave the cause for his resignation of the Ambassadorship at Washington in a statement today.

The cause, he said was the lack of accord with the policy of the Mexican Made - Officers, Directors and administration. He expressed the opinion today, however, that President Madero must be sustained, since his overthrow would mean "the beginning of a series of revolutions which would be the death blow, if not to our Nationality, at least to our severeignty.

He discounted the danger of American intervention unless some incident occurred similar to that of the blowing up of the Maine in Havana Harbor. He intimated that in case of interven tion all Latin America would stand with Mexico.

In his statement Calero said:
"There is no occasion to speculate on the reasons for my resignation. I resigned as I was not in accord with the policy of my government. I keenly desire that the policy, which I consider mistaken shall serve to save the counmistaken shall serve to save the contry in the crisis which faces it, but since my opinion is contrary and since I felt the republic was nearing an abyse of misery and humiliation, I regarded as unsupportable my post as Mexican Ambassador at Washington. "Our relations with the United States "Our relations with the United States always assume an aspect of extreme delicacy when the situation of our country is as it is at present and if that situation is due in good part, in the opinion of the Ambassador, to the errors of his government, then that Ambassador ought to resign a mission which he feels cannot be sustained in-

Senor Calero attributes much of the weakness of the Mexican administra-tion to the influence of Jose Pino Suarez, vice-president and minister of Pino er of for this county, on the many fruit and garden pests and the proper public instruction. He said:

The labor of all Mexicans ought to be more strengous to assist the government to correct its deficiencies that it may live out its constituted life. If the government fails the result will be
