ADMMEN SEEK LAWS

Legislation Providing Permanent Exhibits Wanted.

RICHARDSON STARTS MOVE

Committee of Five to Work for Appropriations. Named—Need of Recognizing Valley and Southern Oregon Pointed Out.

As a means of securing appropriations with which to establish permanent Oregon exhibits, Tom Richardson in his address to the Portland Ad Club yesterday urged the club to appeal to the State Legislature for the necessary legislation and follow the appeal by co-operating with the legislators in gathering information on which to base laws.

While he strongly advocated representation and permanent exhibits for Oregon in both the San Francisco and the San Diego expositions of 1915, Mr. Richardson also urged that other permanent state exhibits should be placed at Ashland and in Portland.

Valley Recognition Timely. "The upper Willamette Valley has not given to Southern Oregon the recognition it deserves," he said. "All of the leading state institutions are situated in the Willamette Valley and we have practically ignored Southern Oregon and the great eastern portion of the state."

There is another reason besides this for my suggestion that we place a permanent state exhibit at Ashland. More than 85 per cent of the tourists to the Northwest pass through Ashland on their way northward.
