VIGOROUS PROTEST IS MADE TO BILL
Provision for State Acquisition of Low Riverfront Property Is Opposed.
SUPPLEMENTAL VOICES OBJECTION

In protest against the acquisition of all flat land between Pine Street and Western Avenue for project the following resolution by the Seattle Times is a voice of Seattle Times of Long Ownership and Hard Work. Urban Tourism Climbing, in Build Up Profitable Industry.

Mr. W. H. Hoge, President, Eastern District, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Cleveland, Ohio, said there were only 20 miles of electric service in Seattle, and that the company had no intention of building any more. He further said that the cost of labor in Seattle was only 15 cents per hour, and that the company had no intention of increasing the rates.

"We have been working hard to build up the electric business in Seattle, and we have no intention of building any more. The cost of labor in Seattle is only 15 cents per hour, and we have no intention of increasing the rates."

Mr. Hoge said that the company was glad to see the city grow, and that it would do all it could to help the city in any way it could.

"I am glad to see the city grow, and I will do all I can to help it in any way it can."

Mr. Hoge closed his remarks by saying that he believed the time had come for the city to think seriously about the future of its electric business, and that it should give serious thought to the matter before it was too late.

"I believe the time has come for the city to think seriously about the future of its electric business, and I hope the city will give serious thought to the matter before it is too late."

Mr. Hoge then closed his remarks by thanking the audience for their attention, and asking them to continue to support the company in all its endeavors.

"I thank you for your attention, and I hope you will continue to support the company in all its endeavors."