Opera Bouffe "War" on Desperadoes Leads to Panic on Car.

INNOCENT MAN ARRESTED

Desperadoes Show Contempt for Authorities by Making Them Accept Terms-Webb Continues to Elude Ills Pursuers.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—The opera bouffe "war" of the Chicago police department on automobile bandins, particularly Robert Webb, wanted for the murder yesterday of Detective Peter Hart, continued today, the chief results being a panic on a streetear when a squad of heavily armed detectives arrested an innocent man who, some one rested an innocent man who, some one intimated, looked like Webb.

intimated, looked like Webb.

With drawn revolvers, an automobile load of detectives dashed into a crowded streetcar at Monroe street and Wabash avenue and surrounded a man who was preparing to alight. Women screamed and said to the floor and men in the car dodged behind scats, expecting a fusilisde of builets. With revolvers pressed against several points of his body, the man presumed to be Webb was hustled from the car. Thousand of loop workers and pedericians jammed the streets and urged the police to kill the prisoner.

Innocent Man Thrown Into Auto.

Just then another nuto loaded with police reserves dashed through the crowd, knocking people right and left. The prisoner was thrown into this car and taken to the station with six detectives on top of him, ready to kill him if he breathed. Once there he convinced the officials that he was Edmund Bell, a peaceful citizen, and he was released.

The contempt in which the desperadoes hold the police was shown early this morning when Madia, keeper of the "Hole in the Wall" where the raids were planned and the loot divided, telephoned the police he would confer with them if they would pledge not to prosecute him. "You will never get me unless I come in on my own terms," he told the officers, and they were compelled to accept his terms.

It was learned today that the police have had Webb in their custody four times in the last II days, but each time he has tricked them and walked away. Review of the records of II shocking murders of recent date show that the police have bungled every one and the oriminals have escaped with no effort whatever.

Criminals Mock Police.

Under the present administration the police are the laughing stock of crimi-nals, who have not the slightest fear of them and actually mock them by of them and actually mock them by phone, by letters, postcards and per-sonal messages. Yesterday thieves stole a lot of brass cuspidors from the City Hall and also stole the silver hinges from heavy doors directly across the hail from the office of the chief of police, letting the doors crash to the floor and walking calmic away.
