GRANGE ESTABLISHES READING ROOM.—The new reading room established in the hall of the Pleasant Valley Grange through the joint work of the Grangers and the Women's Aid Society will be officially opened to the public tonight. Dinner will be served by the women between 6 and 8 o'clock, followed by public exercises. W. F. Woodward, of the Portland Library Association, and Miss Nellie Fox, county librarian, will deliver brief talks on the work of the Library Association and its extensions. The Pleasant Valley Library will commence with 200 selected books which will be changed monthly. Mrs. W. U. Moore will be in charge. The books will be free to the district and it is planned to keep the room open daily. It is the first reading room opened through the efforts of the Grange in this county, and the library officials hope to extend the work to other Granges.

LAVROT CASE GOES TO JURY.—The case of Louis D. P. Lavrot against the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company to recover $75,000 for personal injuries was given to the jury in the United States District Court yesterday morning. The case was tried last night but did not arrive at a verdict. When court adjourned Judge Bean directed the bailiff, in charge, to take the jury out to supper and to breakfast also if a sealed verdict had not been reached by that time. That the injuries to the plaintiff are of a permanent character was shown by testimony, but the defense sets up that the man was killed in his employment and that the injury was the result of carelessness.

SALOONKEEPER GETS DAMAGES.—Judgment for $4600 against Donald Mackay was given Jacob Hahn, a saloonkeeper, by a jury in Circuit Judge McClinn's court yesterday. Hahn brought suit to recover damages for the tearing down of his saloon when the old Baker Theater building, Third and Yamhill streets, was torn down in 1910. His lease had not expired. In defense it was pleaded that the structure had been demolished by order of the city building inspector. The case was tried once before, Hahn getting a verdict for $6300, but the Supreme Court ordered a reversal, holding that Judge McClinn had erred in instructing the jury.

SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED.—An entertainment will be given at the Elliot school by the pupils of the upper grades today at 2 o'clock. A programme of interest has been prepared. Among the features will be a fife duet by George Hinkle and Clair Rogers, two gifted boys; a chorus by the seventh-grade pupils; a piano solo by Wesley Abbott and choruses by ninth-grade pupils. Frieda Keller will sing a soprano solo and Helen O'Day will contribute a piano solo. Hisa Hiawasa, a bright Japanese boy, will sing the National anthem of his native land. S. U. Downs is principal of the school.

BRANCH LIBRARIES TO OPEN.—The North Portland Branch Library, located at the corner of Commercial street and Killingsworth avenue, will be occupied and formally opened to the public February 20. The building is practically completed except the furniture. It is also announced that the Greenham Branch Library will be occupied and opened to the public on February 20. The building is also practically completed except the furniture. It is also announced that the Greenham Branch Library will be occupied and opened to the public on February 20.

ELK-SLAINERS GO FREE.—The case against Emerson Ferrell and Archie Nichols, indicted for killing an elk last October near Forest Grove, was disposed of by Judge H. Campbell at Hillsboro, yesterday. Ferrell was dismissed on account of his youth and Nichols, aged 17, was fined $100 and jailed. The boys had shot the elk out of the elk with a shotgun and had followed it, killing it with a .22-caliber rifle.

OVERDOSE THEY GET 90 DAYS.—A wife and sick baby saved Howard Baker from a much heavier sentence than 90 days in the County Jail when he pleaded guilty yesterday in Circuit Court to a charge of manslaughter. The cost of the value of $25 from the Holtz store. Deputy District Attorney Collier asked that he be given six months, but Judge Morrow thought that on account of the wife and child three months would be sufficient.

IMPROVED STREETS ON SOUTH EAST SIDE WANTED.—The East Seventy-Second Street Improvement League in the South East Side has taken steps for the improvement of the district between Fiftieth and Sixtieth avenues, East Sixtieth and East Seventy-sixth streets. J. H. Nash, C. A. Anderson and E. C. Arnold are the committee to take this improvement up. Also steps were taken to lay hard-surface pavement on East Seventy-second street from the Foster road south, to connect with the proposed hard-surface pavement on the Foster road. Efforts will be made to secure more lights for the district. The league was organized two weeks ago with the following officers: President, H. H. Morrison; vice-president, A. Morrison; treasurer, F. E. Foot; secretary, George E. Cameron.

PARENTS-IN-LAW ARE SUED.—Trial of the suit of Margaret Burns against H. C. and Mary L. Burns, of McMinnville, her parents-in-law, was commenced in Circuit Judge Gatens' court yesterday afternoon. The plaintiff is demanding judgment for $10,000, declaring that the affections of her husband, Hollie Burns, whom she married in 1905, were alienated by his parents, the defendants. She charges that they offered her $500 if she would allow him to get a divorce, that they encouraged him to marry her, and that a woman whom he did not tell that he was married and that they did everything in their power to make her life disagreeable on the Foster road.

ROSSMERE PROPERTY OWNERS WILL MEET TONIGHT.—There will be a meeting of the property owners of the Rossmere district tonight at the Rose City Park Presbyterian Church at 7:45 o'clock to hear report of the paving committee. Bids for paving the Rossmere district between East Thirty-eighth and East Forty-fifth streets, amounting to $104,000, were opened by the street committee Wednesday and the contract will be let at the next meeting. The committee from the Rossmere Improvement Club considered these bids at the home of H. S. Adams Wednesday night, and decided to lay the price before the property owners Friday night.

FRAZIER ESTATE VALUED AT $182,000.—William Frazier, ex-Sheriff, who was killed by collision with an Irvington streetcar which he was running on board on the night of January 15, died intestate leaving an estate estimated to be of the value of $182,000. Of this all but $75,000, which is personal property, is real estate with a monthly rental value of $600. The heirs are: Margaret E. Frazier, $25,000; Charles R. Frazier, $25,000; Mrs. Frazier was appointed administratrix by Probate Judge Cleiton.

BODY SWINGS IN BREEZE

John Stosila Chooses Tree Near Forestry Building to Die On.—Swinging from a high limb of a tall fir tree in the park surrounding the Forestry building, the body of John Stosila, a Rumanian, was found at daylight yesterday. The man had climbed the trunk, affixed a rope about his neck and jumped off. The gruesome figure, swinging in the wind and snow, was discovered by Mario Florie, keeper of the house where Stosila resided, when he went to milk her cow.

Stosila had lived for several weeks in a boarding-house at 940 Uppsbury street. He had been drinking when he went to the house Wednesday night and after taking off his shoes, went outside. His absence had not been noted when the body was discovered. The police took charge of the case and turned the body over to the Coroner.
