

FAY KING SWOONS AS WIFE RITES SAID

Portland Girl Suffers Nervous Breakdown and Falls in "Bat's" Arms.

GOOD CRY REVIVES BRIDE

Pugilist's Spouse Declares "I'm Not Used to Big League Stuff," as She Recovers From Shock of Wedding at Hegewisch.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—(Special)—Oscar Battling Matthew Nelson, known in the pugilistic world as "Bat," took the count of ten at 12:30 P. M. today.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

The ceremony, which was short, was marked by any nervous breakdown of the bride. As the final words fell from the minister's lips and the prizefighter realized that he was betrothed at last, he clasped his bride in his arms.

At that hour, in his home in Hegewisch, he became the husband of Miss Fay King, a newspaper cartoonist of Portland and Denver, whom he first met in Portland.

UNIQUE PHOTOGRAPH OF LIGHTWEIGHT BOXER AND PORTLAND GIRL, WHO WERE WEDDED YESTERDAY AT HEGEWISCH, ILL.

BATTLING (OSCAR MATTHEW) NELSON AND MISS FAY KING—PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN IN PORTLAND LAST YEAR, WHEN NELSON VISITED AT THE KING HOME FOR SEVERAL WEEKS.

Friedlander, Frank E. Watkins and Dr. H. V. Adix, bench show committee.

WASHINGTON DEFEATS LINCOLN

Splendid Offensive Basketball Play Results in 22-to-16 Score.

The Washington High School second basketball five defeated the Lincoln High seconds on the Washington floor yesterday afternoon, 22-16. Myers and Peterson played splendid offensive games for their side, while the work of Dunin was the feature for the Lincoln roster to about about.

McIntire Joins Cincinnati Reds.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—Harry McIntire, a former member of the Chicago American League baseball club, will go south with the Cincinnati National League Club, on its Spring training trip. He and Manager Joe Tinker came to terms tonight.

JACK KING DOUBTED VICTORY

"I Didn't Think That Fay Would Marry Bat," Says Father-in-Law.

While Battling Nelson and Fay King were being married at Hegewisch, Ill., yesterday, Jack King, the father of the bride, was in the mountains near Kootenai, Wash., with the Volgaast. Before his departure he was convinced that his daughter was to marry her ardent suitor and upon his arrival here last night telegraphed the following congratulations to his son-in-law:

"Just back from mountains and find that we have an increase in the family. Best wishes from the old folks. Come to Portland on honeymoon."

A telegram from Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, dated Hegewisch, greeted the Portland man upon his return with the Volgaast party, the bridal couple greeting Mr. and Mrs. King as follows:

"We just finished our wedding dinner. It was great. All our love and we both feel fine and happy. Leave for Denver shortly."

"Fay knows her own mind and if she thinks Bat Nelson is the man to make her happy, I am sure that neither her mother nor myself object to the marriage," said King. "I really did not think Fay would marry Bat; their friendship seemed purely of the platonic variety. But Nelson is a square clean chap and he need not fear a cool welcome when he comes to Portland."

KENNEL CLUB TO ELECT TODAY

Frank E. Watkins Mentioned as Probable Choice for President.

Frank E. Watkins, prominent dog fancier and owner of the Willamette Kennels, may be the next president of the Portland Kennel Club. His name will be brought before the club members at the 14th annual meeting to-night in the offices of the president, Dr. Alan Welch Smith, in the Medical building.

Mr. Watkins has always been a strenuous worker in the cause of the various dog shows, and the movement to place him at the head of the organization is practically unanimous among the members of the kennel club. The success or failure of the coming show, which is likely to be an April feature, depends largely upon the efforts of the officials, hence the interest in the annual meeting and election of officers.

The retiring officers of the club are: Dr. Alan Welch Smith, president; Frank O. Cressey, vice-president; J. J. McCarthy, secretary and treasurer; Walter B. Hone, manager; St. George B. Story, C. B. May and E. P. Boley, directors; Felix

FINE CARD OUTLINED

Multnomah Announces List of Vancouver Bouts.

Portland boxing and wrestling fans who enjoyed the best programme of the year at Multnomah Club last Friday night, have an even greater treat in store for them on February 21, when the Vancouver, B. C. athletes appear in Portland in the final Northwest inter-club "smoker" of the season.

EVENTS WILL BE FEB. 21

Milbas to Meet Martin and Knowlton to Clash With Barrieau in Ring—McCarthy and Hatch and Franks and Smith Vic.

Edgar Frank has named March 28 as the date of the Multnomah Club inter-club boxing and wrestling programme at the Olympic Club, of San Francisco. McAllister, the Coast champion, will meet Milbas, of Portland, while opponents will be secured for Walter Williams and Walter Knowlton.

Tonight Derbyshire and Knowlton, the club boxers, meet Olympic Club boys at San Francisco. Clubmen know little about the merits of the San Franciscans, but as McAllister holds a decision over Milbas, rated higher than Derbyshire, the latter is sure to have a terrific argument on his hands if he is to return a light-heavyweight winner. Knowlton is thought to have the best chance of success.

Edgar Frank, president of the Pacific Northwest Association and former Coast wrestling champion at 125 pounds, will enter the coming Northwest tourney at that weight. This is not official, but since his defeat at the hands of Oliver Runcie, of Seattle, Frank thinks it's up to him to figure in a "come back." He believes that he can beat Runcie next time they meet and is not going to retire without making a strenuous effort to retrieve his lost laurels.

The entry list for the pool tournament has been posted on the club bulletin board. Three signers were affixed yesterday afternoon, but the contestants will number more than 30. The final date for entering is February 19.

BIRTHDAY CONGRATULATIONS.

Dan McGuigan.

Daniel E. McGuigan, the noted football coach at Vanderbilt University, was born in the town of Tingley, Iowa, January 24, 1879. After graduating from the high school in his native place he entered Drake University, in 1898. He was a substitute on the Drake football team, which defeated the best teams in Iowa that year. After his graduation he entered the University of Michigan law school and was a member of the Michigan football squad two years, making all-eastern guard his last year. Upon completing his course at the Michigan, McGuigan decided to become a football coach like his celebrated brother-in-law, "Hurry" Up.

During the six years that he has coached at Vanderbilt the university eleven has won the Southern football championship each year. Last year Vandy suffered one defeat, the Harvard eleven being the team to turn the trick.

Squash racquets is Portland's latest court game. This sport, a cross between racquets and squash, slower than the former but faster than the latter, has been played on the Multnomah Club courts for several weeks, with its devotees including Harry L. Corbett, Hamilton Corbett, Alvin D. Katz, T. Morris Dunne and F. A. Foster.

The new game, which is played extensively in Boston, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities, is rapidly gaining a firm hold among the Multnomah Club athletes, who like its speed and superior skill requirements. It is played on the squash courts, with black rubber ball the size of a handball and racquet with longer handle but smaller head than that used in squash. The game is for 15 points, with the count the same as in handball. The difference in speed between squash and the little game is chiefly due to a rule which permits a return on the fly instead of a bound.

IMPORTED MINIATURES

Each Package Has One—Every Sweetheart Wants One—When You See Them Your Eyes Won't Behave—P. S. 250 Subjects

20 for 15¢

GREGG AND McLEAN ARE BEST BATTERY

McCredie Picks ex-Beavers as Greatest Men Ever in Coast League.

DAN HOWLEY TO BE SOLD

Announcement Made That Catcher Will Not Be With Portland Team and That Pitcher Greenwell Goes to New Orleans.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. "Naming the greatest pitcher in the history of the Pacific Coast League," said Walter McCredie at Portland baseball headquarters yesterday, "is like rummaging through a bushel sack of walnuts to find the nut with the meat."

The great southpaw came to Portland in the Spring of 1910, after resigning to report to Cleveland. The Saps paid Spokane $1000 for Veau. Gregg won 22 games and lost 18 for the Portland pennant-winner that year, and after establishing a new record for strikeouts, was taken over by Cleveland in 1911. Gregg fanned 357 men in 335 innings, or an average of 8.31 strikeouts for 44 full games.

Of the Coast League backstops Manager McCredie picks long Larry McLean, recently sold by Cincinnati to St. Louis, as the premier catcher of this circuit. McLean caught for Portland in 1905 and 1906. The all-star Coast batter, therefore, would read Gregg and McLean.

"Next to Gregg," continued McCredie, "I believe the 1910 corps, which included such stalwarts as Gregg, Krapp, Seaton and Steen, was the greatest in the history of the West."

Manager McCredie ranks Pete Lohman, of Oakland, as the second best American world's champions, was deeply disappointed at his failure to slip Pitcher Pape through the waiver line to Happy Hogan. He has promised the Venice Beach crowd to send a good effort before the Coast race begins.

Happies would probably be satisfied with either Joe Wood or Hugh Benditt.

GOVERNOR'S SON TOO BIG

ARCHIE JOHNSON'S WEIGHT BARS HIM FROM RING.

Clark, of Los Angeles, Refused to Meet Olympic Club Amateur Who Is Ten Pounds Heavier.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22.—There will be no six-round bout tomorrow night between Archie Clark, of Los Angeles, amateur welterweight champion of the Pacific Coast, and Archie Johnson, youngest son of Governor Hiram Johnson, for the amateur championship. When Johnson weighed in today at the Olympic Club, the beams balanced at 148 pounds, three pounds over the welterweight limit.

In refusing to waive the difference in weight, Deyitt Vancouver, representing Clark, said: "Clark boxes at 138 pounds, and I couldn't afford to let him risk his title against a man ten pounds heavier. Johnson is a middleweight, and one of the cleverest for his inches and pounds I have ever seen. With a less able contender, I might take a chance."

Advertisement for ZUBELDA Turkish Cigarettes. It features an illustration of a woman in a long dress and hat, looking towards the camera. The text says 'ZUBELDA TURKISH CIGARETTES' and '20 for 15¢'. Above the woman, it says 'The Double Package'.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.

Lock the Doors! Close the Windows! Don't Let Anybody Move! Here's the ENCHANTED Cigarette.